HOGGATT ISSUES MESSAGE

The Governor Calls Upon People of Territory to Observe Thanksgiving Day.

By Cable to The Daily Gateway.

Juneau, Nov. 5—Gov. Hoggatt yesterday issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 26, as Thanksgiving day. He follows the custom of all governors in naming the same day as that previously designated by the president. The governor's proclamation calls upon all the people of Alaska to abstain on that date from their usual avocations and to "give thanks to the Supreme Ruler of the universe for the blessings vouchsafed us during the past year, not forgetting to contribute to the relief of those who have not enjoyed the prosperity we celebrate."
