ACTRESS SUICIDES

Noted Playwright Becomes Despondent and Fires a Bullet into Her Brain.

By Cable to The Daily Gateway.
New York, Nov. 30—Mrs. Eleanor Cowper, a writer of plays and an actress of some fame, this morning shot herself in the right temple, the ball lodging in the brain. She was still alive when found, but unconscious. She was immediately taken to a hospital where the physicians, upon examination, pronounced the wound of such a nature that recovery was impossible and that the patient had but a few hours to live. Mrs. Cowper had been despondent for some time and it was believed that she was temporarily insane.

William Jennings Bryan is now being urged to become an evangelist. It is predicted that he would be a winner, and that even the great apostle to the Gentiles would be put in the shade by the great commoner should he consent to play this role.

January 28, next, is the date at which the withdrawal of the United States troops from Cuba takes place.
