The Epitaph of Mary Lyon.
 In the grounds of Mount Holyoke Seminary, overlooking the beautiful valley through which the Connecticut flows seaward, is a monument to Mary Lyon, the Massachusetts teacher who founded the college. On it is inscribed a sentence of her own. "There is nothing in the universe that I am afraid of but that I shall not know and do all my duty."

Wonders of Henry VIII.
 "Henry VIII was king of England and the greatest widower that ever was," states a boy's essay quoted in the London Lancet. "He was born at a place called Anne Domino, and he had 350 wives. The first was beheaded and then executed, the second was revoked and the third died, and then he married Ann Bolein."

Two More to Feed.
 "You are a fraud. You said yesterday that you had seven starving children, and today you say you have nine."
 "Both stories are true, sir."
 "How do you make that out?"
 "Twins born last night." Exchange.

Positively Uncanny.
 "There's something very queer about that woman," said the clerk. "I don't know what to make of her."
 "Why?" the floorwalker asked.
 "She was satisfied with the first piece of goods I showed her"—Chicago Record Herald.

His Long Suit.
 Bacon: How long have we been married, dear?
 Mrs. Bacon: Three years, love.
 "Is that all? I thought I'd been wearing this suit longer than that, dear."—Yonkers Statesman.

Her Strong Hint.
 "Miss Pincle, how do you like my new hat?"
 "I like it ever so much better, Mr. Smokins, when you are holding it in your hand."—Chicago Tribune.

Cook in Small Vessels.
 Meats of all kinds, unless intended for soup, should be cooked in small vessels. To put a small roast in a large pan is wasteful, as there is rapid loss by evaporation, and a large proportion is dried too much. A stew in too large a kettle will require more water to cover than should be used. Exchange.

Be the Model for Your Own Clothes!

Rarely does a man who wears ready-made clothing look right in it. It was not made for him, and no matter how well it may apparently fit, the fact remains that when the suit "settles" and loses its ironed false form, it will cave in here, bag there and wrinkle somewhere else.

Clothes made-to-measure by
