News from All Parts of the Northland

Delegate Wickersham is quoted by the Fairbanks News-Miner of using the following remark in a speech there two days before election:

I am an Alaskan first of all and not taking orders from the president of the United States.

ATLIN, B. C., Nov. 15.—1914 will be a memorable year in the history of Atlin—the year of the fire.

On the morning of May 23rd, a fire which originated in E. L. Pillman's store, on the corner of First and Pearl streets, swept over and consumed nearly the entire business portion of the town. The fire started about 7:30 in the morning and by 9 o'clock nothing remained of over thirty buildings but a few charred embers, the financial loss being upwards of $100,000.

With Sulzer, Democrat, and Tanner (holdover), Democrat, in the Senate, and J. G. Heid, independent, William Britt, Democrat, Arthur G. Shoup, Republican and J. R. Heckman, Republican in the House, the anti-Wickersham faction will hold the balance of power.

The assembly will have eight Democrats, two Non-Partisans, six Republicans, six Wickershamites and one of Bull Moose tendencies. There is one doubtful seat in the Fourth division, the result of which, however, cannot alter the plurality of the Democrats.—Juneau Empire.

FAIRBANKS, Former U. S. Attorney J. J. Crossley and family left yesterday for Portland, where he will practice law and make his future home. A fund of $650.00 has been raised here for the benefit of the American Red Cross.

J. C. Rogers, who just returned from Broad Pass, verifies the report of the discovery of a limitless amount of low grade ore there. "The greatest ledge in the world has been uncovered," he says.

Acting under instructions from Washington, United States Attorney R. F. Roth today reduced his office force from three to one assistants.

FAIRBANKS, Nov. 14.—William J. Fitzpatrick, pioneer sourdough, who has been United States commissioner at Chena for many years, died Thursday of complication. His funeral will be held today.

CIRCLE CITY.—A messenger arrived from the diggings this morning, reporting that a fight started last night in a bawdy house at Miller House kept by Alice Christopher. It appears that William Lehman, James Taughery and E. S. Erickson got into a mixup and that Lehman and Taughery took sides against Erickson. In the melee revolvers were used, and as a result Taughery and Erickson are reported dangerously wounded.

CIRCLE CITY.—Palmer of Circle, who was insane and under guard at Hot Springs on the Fairbank-Circle trail, died and was buried at the Springs.
