—MAIN 275—
The best way is to make life insurance payable in the form of a permanent monthly income, not in a lump sum. Thus it cannot be lost, spent or levied on by creditors. Many beneficiaries are receiving permanent income checks ranging from $10 to $250 per month. The present difficulties of investment make this the ideal, in fact the necessary, way to protect one's family.
Without obligation on my part please advise me the amount of annual deposit necessary to provide a monthly income of _____ for a beneficiary born _____ of _____ 18. My birthday _____ of _____ 18.
