

EMPEROR FRANCIS JOSEPH OF AUSTRIA IS DEAD

BUCHAREST SILENT AND LONDON FEARS ROUMANIA HAS COLLAPSED

FEAR ROUMANIA COLLAPSED

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Bucharest is silent concerning the advance of Falkenhayn in the west and military men fear that the Roumanian defensive has suffered a total collapse.

FRENCH LINES SHELLED

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The French lines southwest of Grandcourt are being heavily shelled by the Germans but no infantry attacks of consequence are reported on the French front.

ITALIANS REPULSE BULGARS

PARIS, Nov. 22.—The Italian forces fighting in conjunction with the Serbs have repulsed Bulgarian counter attacks west of Monastir.

ARTILLERY AT VERDUN

PARIS, Nov. 22.—Severe artillery duels are proceeding at Douaumont on the Verdun front. The Germans are intensely bombarding the positions which our troops recently occupied.

FALKENHAYN AT KRAJOYA

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The Teuton infantry has now arrived before Krajoja, the seat of the chief command of the First Roumanian army and an immediate assault on that position may be looked for.

FIGHT AGAIN IN CHAMPAGNE

BERLIN, Nov. 22.—The German positions at Ancre and St. Pierre Vaast, on the Somme front, were heavily shelled last night.

EMBARGO TO KILL BLACKLIST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Congressman John J. Fitzgerald, when interviewed about his proposed food embargo bill today, admitted that he intends to introduce the measure and he declares that it is the most effective measure the United States can use against the blacklist of the allied nations.

PROBABLY WHITE STAR LINER

LONDON, Nov. 22.—It is not yet officially known but it is generally believed that the British ship Britannic sunk in the Aegean is none other than the big White Star liner which was the largest afloat.

BRITISH HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK

LONDON, Nov. 22.—The British hospital ship Britannic was sunk last Monday in the Aegean sea and fifty of those aboard were lost.

REPORT JAGOW RESIGNS

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 22.—It is reported here that von Jagow, German minister of foreign affairs, has resigned because of ill health and that von Zimmerman, assistant secretary, will be appointed to fill the vacancy.

AMERICAN DEMANDS EXCITE MEXICANS

MAY PLACE EMBARGO ON FOOD FROM U. S.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Congressman Fitzgerald of New York, chairman of the appropriation committee of the house of representatives, is planning to introduce a food embargo bill at the coming session.

EVANS LEAVES FRIDAY

The Admiral Evans will leave Seattle on Friday instead of Thursday.

BASEBALL PRACTISE

The woman's indoor baseball team will meet this evening for practise.

George Kriedler, the engineer, will leave for the outside on the Alameda.

WRECKED CREW COMPLAINS

VANCOUVER, B. C., Nov. 22.—The shipwrecked members of the crew of the Romano state in the newspapers here this afternoon that they were mistreated aboard the Admiral Evans that brought them here.

AID MAY COME FOR THE NATIVES NEAR SUSITNA

G. B. Poindexter has received a cable from Governor Strong asking him how aid can be given to the destitute Indians of Knik and Susitna and Mr. Poindexter has suggested to the governor to write to the commissioner and postmaster over there.

HUGHES GETS VERMONT

MONTPELIER, Vt., Nov. 22.—The plurality of Hughes in Vermont is 17,542.

MINE STATION FOR SEATTLE

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior, announces that a mining station will be established in this city.

DEUTSCHLAND SPEEDING EAST

WATCHELL, R. I., Nov. 22.—The Deutschland when seen latest last night was ten miles off shore and was going eastward through Block Island sound.

DID NOT AWAIT CONVOYS

NEW LONDON, Nov. 22.—The Deutschland is evidently proceeding without the expected convoy of armed submarines and Captain Koenig must have changed his plans at the last moment.

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 22.—The positive statement by Lane that the American expedition will not be withdrawn from Mexico until its purpose has been fulfilled has apparently caused consternation in Mexican circles and has precipitated a crisis which may have momentous results.

EVANS PICKS UP A SHIPWRECKED CREW

SEATTLE, Nov. 22.—The Admiral Evans arrived today after an exceptionally stormy voyage. She received a severe handling but was not hurt in the least.

DANCE ENTERTAINMENT

An entertainment will be given by the pupils of Miss Lucille Hallett's dancing school in A. B. Hall on December 8.

SAYS ADAMSON LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Federal Judge Believes Railroad Eight Hour Law Will Not Stand.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 22.—Federal Judge Hook today declared the Adamson eight hour law unconstitutional and invalid and at the same time denied the motion of the government for a receiver for the Missouri and Oklahoma Gulf railroad as the Adamson law was involved.

WANTED INFORMATION ON SKAGWAY ELECTION

The Skagway Alaskan says: Juneau, Nov. 6.—Proceed with the election tomorrow at Skagway. The defect in the publication of the notice of election will not invalidate the election.

The above message is in answer to one sent by U. S. Commissioner Rasmussen to U. S. District Attorney at Juneau this morning.

I have been requested to give opinion on the validity of the local election under the following facts and pass it on to you for your opinion.

WOULD SULZER HAVE TO RESIGN FROM SENATE

The Juneau Dispatch says that if Sulzer is elected delegate to congress he would not have to resign as a member of the territorial senate as he could not take office in the national legislature until December.

FEDERATION OF LABOR AIDS R. R. BROTHERHOODS

BALTIMORE, Nov. 22.—President Lee of the railroad brotherhoods has urged the Federation of Labor convention to unite with the railroad men to fight for the eight hour day.

SIX BABES BORN AT ONE TIME

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 2.—Mrs. Andrew Woods, 31 years old, gave birth to six children, all boys, at her home in this city, according to the report of City Physician Kyle, who attended.

MISS WALLACE, PRINCIPAL OF THE SCHOOLS, IS INDISPOSED TODAY AND WAS COMPELLED TO REMAIN AT HOME.

Miss Wallace, principal of the schools, is indisposed today and was compelled to remain at home.

LE ROI EST MORT; VIVE LE ROI

VIENNA, Nov. 22.—The Archduke Charles Francis was proclaimed emperor of the Austro-Hungarian empire today. The latest accounts of the death of Francis Joseph show that it was entirely unexpected.

SAY ARCHDUKE UNTRAINED

LONDON, Nov. 22.—Europe is now watching the new emperor. He has had no training in diplomacy but has had considerable military success.

AUSTRIAN EMPEROR DEAD

LONDON, Nov. 21.—Francis Joseph, emperor, died at 9 o'clock tonight at the castle of Schoenbrunn. Reports from Vienna and Geneva state that Extreme Unction was administered to him by a priest last Saturday and this report removes any suspicion that his death was not a natural one.

AUSTRIAN CABINET MEETS

LONDON, Nov. 22.—A special meeting of the Austro-Hungarian cabinet has been called as a result of the death of the emperor. The meeting may be held in Vienna first and another meeting is contemplated in Budapest.

BERNSTORFF ON EMPEROR'S DEATH

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The officials of the German embassy here see in the death of the emperor of Austria greater renergy and renewed military activity in Austria to prosecute the war.

BOUGHT CROPS AND LET THEM ROT AWAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The sensational fact was disclosed today before the investigators that speculators bought the growing crops this year and then permitted them to rot so that a shortage might be created and the crops in hand bring large prices.

BUYS NUTTER'S INTEREST

Jack Edminton has purchased Charlie Nutter's interest in the sawmill and roadhouse at Roosevelt. Al Roberts and the purchasers are now partners.