C. O. Lambert to W. C. Stull, Lot 4, Block 3, Seward, cons. $25.00.

The Whist Club

The Whist club met as usual Wednesday evening. Mrs. Young and Mrs. Sexton were appointed permanent committee to select prizes to be awarded at the end of each month.

The entertainers for the evening were Miss Gordon and Miss Stokes, and it goes without saying that they did their part in a charming manner and an elegant spread was enjoyed by all.

After card playing and refreshments, dancing was indulged in till a late hour, the general enjoyment was only marred by the knowledge that one of the members, Mrs. Grace Teeklenburg, was so soon to sail for Seattle.

The score for the month was not announced but will be reported at next meeting.

Mrs. Sexton and Mrs. McNeiley will entertain the club next Wednesday evening.

Always speak well of your town, and it is always a good plan to say a kind word of those living therein. Backbiting is almighty poor business, and the man or woman who indulges in such foolishness seldom escapes the tongue of gossip.—Ketchikan Journal.

The Burnside was, prior to the Spanish war, known as the Rita, a Spanish merchantman. She was the second prize captured by the Americans. She was placed in the transport service and later altered for cable work.

The petty Merchant who kicks about advertising solicitors annoying him is generally the same fellow who stands at his door and hails every passer to look at his shopworn shoddy goods. Others don't have to.—Exchange.

A Roosevelt Song

Scores of poems set to familiar airs drift into the republican national and state headquarters these days. Recently the mail brought a verse which the writer says should be sung to "Hall Columbia." It is as follows: Raise your banners, hail the chief Of our country, great and glorious; Of our party, long victorious; Strivous always—pressing onward, Ever watchful—looking forward; Vote for him who is truly leading, Earnestly all good causes pleading, Lest our nation come to grief, Trust in him—our faithful chief.

William Nelson has Accident

On Wednesday last, William Nelson, one of the Nelson Brothers, had the misfortune to meet with a bad accident which will cause him to keep indoors for a few days.

Mr. Nelson was hauling hay from the beach when the wagon overturned. He jumped in the opposite direction and meeting with an obstruction was badly shaken up and his face lacerated. It was necessary to take five stitches in his lower lip on account of a serious cut.
