

THE ALASKA PROSPECTOR

Vol 6

Valdez Alaska, March 14, 1907.

No. 4

KISSING DOWIENO CURE

Invalids Kiss Hem of His Garments But In Vain

Chicago, March 14—Hundreds of sick are visiting the bier of Dowie, believing that by kissing the hem of his garments they will be cured of their maladies. One woman who succeeded in kissing his garments tried to walk later and rolled down a flight of stairs, injuring herself seriously.

Lloyd Hill was an arrival from Juneau this morning. He will remain here until after court adjourns, and then do some work around the Sound.

Title To Menach

Litigation Over Ellamar Mine Settled In Supreme Court

Olympia, March 14 — The supreme court has affirmed the decision of the King county court regarding the disposition of the Ellamar mine, vesting the title in J. D. Meenach and the Ellamar Mining Co. F. C. Lawrence, who brought the suit, alleged that there was fraud connected with the sale of the mine before development, to Meenach, and was trying to have the sale set aside.

Washington, March 14—Cortelyou announces that the government will not call for the $20,000,000 now deposited in the banks of the country until September. The money is due in March, but to allow wall street to collect their large outstanding loans six months more will be given them.

U. S. Commissioner John Lyons is expected to arrive on the Northwestern.

WILL VISIT ALEUTIANS

California Professor Coming To Inspect Volcanos

Seattle, March 14—The receipt of news from Valdez that the volcano on the island of Akutan was active and that Unalaska had suffered an earthquake shock, has aroused considerable interest among scientific men and Prof. Smith, of the Stanford university announces that he will proceed to Alaska soon to make a thorough investigation of all volcanoes along the western coast.

Washington, March 14—Arrangements have been made for a congressional junketing party which will visit the Sandwich island during June. The party will be headed by Hawaiian delegate Kalaniaole, Congressman Hepburn and Lloyd Hamilton. The trip will be made in the interest of trade relations with the United States.

San Francisco, March 14—Four of the jurors in the Ruff case have been drawn and the case postponed until next Monday. The application for a change of venue has been denied and Judge Dunne will try the case.

Louisville, March 14—There is now a prospect of a settlement of the street car strike which has tied up the city lines for several days. Strikers and the bosses are now holding a meeting for the purpose of effecting a compromise.

Pittsburg, March 14—Western Pennsylvania is having a continual downpour of heavy rains which cause the rivers to rise rapidly all over that section. The town of Dunbar is under six feet of water, and the submersion of thousands of acres of fertile bottom lands is feared.

The Jeanie went from here to Orea and was to return today to unload some coal for Ft. Liscum.

HILLS COFFEE

That's All

Exclusively For Sale By

A. L. Levy & Co.

GOOD GOODS