COMIN' & GOIN'

The North Coast arrived from Seattle on the 29th, leaving a quantity of freight here, and continuing her trip to Unalaska. She returned here Wednesday, leaving in 1 hour for Seattle, with the following passengers; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cheney, Ed. S. Farley, Dorothy M. Taylor, Mrs. Alico Hellmar and R. Barnes.

Arriving here on scheduled time, the Cordova brought 24 passengers to Kodiak and 9 for Women's Bay. Those getting off here were W.T. Brown, Mrs. Lars Erickson, Betty and Phylliss Erickson, Mrs. Emil Kraft, Mrs. Julia Muller, Martin McMurray, Hubert Vinberg, Mr. and Mrs. G. Pitt Boers, Dick Clifton, Mrs. E.C. Connors, Paul C. Herring, S. Lachman, Sam Shucklin, Mrs. F. W. Williamson, Mrs. J.I. Noble, Mary A. Noble and Stephen Noble, Elizabeth Park, H.O. Webb, Helen J. Wiedor, Emil Vinberg and Francis Epping. Those for Women's Bay were Ben B. Belden, Mrs. E.C. Brown, Ed. C. Colo, John E. Ginstrom, E. Don Miller, Curtiss W. Hill, John Knapsted, E. D. Miller, Frank J. Schaupp.

Due to the fact that she is undergoing marine inspection by the Government inspectors this week, the "Monterey" did not make her usual trip this week. She will resume her schedule next week, according to Frank Hermann agent in Kodiak.

U.S. Marshall Paul Herring and a guard, R. L. Clifton, returned from Valdez, where he had taken 3 prisoners last week. Unable to fulfill a promise made to his daughter Arline, to get a tricycle, he brought a team of dwarf tortoise which seem to be affording a great deal of fun as well as interest, to everyone seeing them.

After discharging passenger and cargo at both docks in town, the Cordova left Kodiak for Seward. Booked for Seward were; G.R. Anderson, C. Herman, Mrs. J. Laktonen, Jacob Laktonen, Mrs. G. Antonsen, Ella Johnson, Bailey Covey, Joe Derry and M.M. Meyers. Those who booked for Seattle were Edith L. Abbott, Sol Lachman, T.A. Bateman.

Gil L. Rich took passage for Ketchikan.

"Knights of the Grip" who visited the town this last week were Bailey Covey of Alaska Distributors, Inc., Gil Rich of Black Bear clothing and that old veteran Sam Shucklin of U.S. Rubber Co.

The "George Washington" paid Kodiak a short visit on her way to Seward. She was the boat which took the mail from the dismantled "Fern" last week and took it to Bering Sea points. Capt. Pete Wold brought 3 passengers from Ugashik, R.C. Jillson (page 15)
