GERMANY DENIES SINKING SUSSEX

Note Annex Torpedoing Another story made the world hold its breath once more.

THE BELL IS NOT CLANGING—
Yet Other Attacks.

Berlin, April 15.—Germany's reply to the American charge that the armed merchantman Sussex was sunk by the submarine E 19 is that the latter was acting independently. The German government maintains that the submarine sank the Sussex because it was engaging in mercantile seaplaning, and that the E 19 was acting on its own authority. The German government further charges that the Sussex carried a large number of troops and that it was engaged in a war against Germany.

CARRANZA TROOPS KILL 70 BANDITs

Battle Rages at Carranzia. Mexico, April 15.—The Carranza troops, under General Name, have succeeded in driving the bandits out of their last stronghold. The Carranza forces have been victorious in several engagements, and the bandits have been forced to retreat into the desert. The Carranza forces have captured a large number of weapons and supplies, and are continuing their pursuit of the bandits.

CASHIERS ARE HELD UNDER HEAVY BOND

The Planters State Bank has a heavy bond on their cashiers, and this is a good thing. It is a good thing, because it makes the bank more secure. It makes the bank more secure, because it makes the bank more trustworthy.
