Musical Art Club, Mrs. Jacques F. Manier, Hostess.
"There is in souls a sympathy with sounds
And as the mind is pitched the ear is pleased
With melting airs of martial, brisk or grave
Some chord in union with what we hear
Is touched within us, and the heart replies."

With autumn comes the opening of the club season of the gentler sex. This is an auspicious event in club life, eagerly anticipated by the loyal workers.

The fall opening of the Musical Art Club, the select musical club of the city, is attended with special interest as the programs rendered by this organization are especially delightful and elevating, the club purpose being "The uplifting and upholding the love and culture of music by our best and constant effort."

Mrs. Jacques F. Manier proved a most gracious and charming hostess yesterday afternoon when the members of the Musical Art Club assembled at her attractive home on Hobson avenue.

The guests were cordially received by Mrs. Manier in the handsome reception hall and soon presented an attractive picture of fashionably gowned ladies seated about in groups in spacious apartment formed by the large music room and reception hall, which are only separated by a massive colonnade.

The keynote of the entire musical program arranged by Miss Josephine Brown, was the study of the musical artist, Schubert.

Owing to the absence from the city of several prominent club members, the committee re-arranged the program with substitutes who proved delightful additions to the program.

The following excellent program was rendered:

Piano—Life of Schubert, Mrs. Sam McKeehan.

Piano Solo—"Mardi Gras," Mrs. C. E. Marsh.

Vocal Solo—"Good-bye," Miss Madge Witt; encore, "Four Leaf Clover."

Piano Solo—Impromptu No. 1, Miss Josephine Brown.

Vocal Solo—"O, Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," Miss Juanita Gilliam; encore, "Love is a Bubble."

Violin Solo—"Ave Maria," Mrs. Jacques Manier.

Business session.

Each number on the program was splendidly rendered and greatly enjoyed by the appreciative audience.

The piano solo rendered by Mrs. Claude Marsh, and the violin solo by Mrs. Jacques Manier were especially beautiful selections. The skillful interpretation and execution of the artist's compositions by these ladies was marked.

Mrs. Hugh Steele accompanied Miss Witt splendidly with the piano when she sang with such beauty and expression two lovely numbers.

Mrs. Claude Marsh proved a skilled accompanist when she played the piano accompaniment for Miss Gilliam.

A short business session followed the program.

Mrs. J. E. Harper, the district president, was asked for a talk. She responded with a few graceful, well chosen remarks in which she reminded the club ladies of the meeting of club presidents to be held at the Marquette hotel this afternoon. Also of the club work of the A. F. W. C. at the State Fair.

The president appointed Miss

Madge Witt to represent her at the meeting today as she would be absent from the city.

A delegate and alternate were elected to represent the club at the meeting of the Little Rock district of the A. F. W. C., which will convene in this city November 11 to 13 inclusive, the choice falling on Miss Josephine Brown as delegate and Mrs. Claude Marsh as alternate.

Following the business session Miss Lucille Woodcock, by special request, played charmingly one of her original compositions, rendering it in a breezy, spirited, classy manner.

Miss Woodcock is a musical genius from her infancy a musical prodigy—playing beautifully difficult music without training.

Following this musical treat, the guests were invited into the elegant dining room, which is entered from the music room through large double doors.

Assisted by Mrs. C. E. Marsh and her mother, Mrs. J. K. P. Hale, the hostess dispensed hospitality by serving a delicious ice course.

Merry chatter was now the keynote of the entertainment until the guests bid a lingering farewell.

Those present were: Mesdames C. M. Roberts, John H. Woodcock, Sam McKeehan, J. K. P. Hale, C. E. J. Tate, Hugh Steele, Joan S. Wood, Carl Miles, Heller, J. E. Harper, Claude Marsh, David A. Crockett, the hostess; Misses Madge Witt, Lucille Woodcock, Adele Johnson, Juanita Gilliam, Josephine Brown, Ruth Dean, Eugenia Swearingen.

NATIONS HEAR OF OUR PEACE PRAYERS

SECRETARY BRYAN ADVISES THE WARRING COUNTRIES OF THE PRAYERS OF AMERICA.

Washington, Oct. 8.—Secretary Bryan has sent to ambassadors in the capitals of all the warring countries of Europe a message telling of President Wilson's day of prayer for peace and the sincerity with which the people of the United States responded to it. Widespread favorable comment in the European press over the president's action prompted the sending of the message, which will be communicated to the foreign office in London, Paris, Berlin, Petrograd, Vienna, Tokio and Antwerp. The message follows:

"In obedience to the proclamation of the people of the United States assembled at their places of worship on October 1 and joined in prayer for the restoration of peace in Europe. The attendance was very large and there was everywhere a spirit of earnestness. Care was taken that nothing should be said of a non-neutral nature, the trend of the speeches being that God might so direct those in authority in the belligerent nations as to hasten the restoration of peace and that the American people might be wisely guided in the exercise of such influence as they might be able to exert."

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL DRESSED AS A BOY

THEN TOOK FLIGHT FROM THE CITY BUT WAS ENCOUNTERED BY LITTLE ROCK POLICE.

Broke Down at the Police Station When She Was Detained and Told That She Had Run Away to Prevent Whipping.

The Little Rock Gazette contains the following announcement of the escape of a Hot Springs high school girl who came to grief when she was detained in that city en route to St. Louis, and dressed as a boy:

"When Chief of Police Cozswell and Patrolman Ebey walked out of the city hall at 7 o'clock last night they saw standing on the corner at Markham street and Broadway what they thought was a very pretty young man.

"'Ain't he cute?' said Chief Cozswell, well, who has a particular grudge against cute young men.

"'He's too cute,' answered Patrolman Ebey.

"The object of those remarks stood still and eyed them timorously from under a heavy cap, from the edges of which fell great blonde curls that covered the neck, about which hung a lavender.

"'That's a funny young man,' spoke the chief.

"'Yes, it is,' replied Patrolman Ebey.

"'Come here, boy, and let us look at you.'"

"The shy figure, dressed in long trousers and a coat that hung loosely from two slender shoulders, approached timidly and was taken into the chief's office, where a close inspection showed that the shirt the young man wore belonged to a woman.

"'What's your name, boy?' asked the chief.

"The boy broke down, two sets of chubby fingers began to grieve great tears from two big blue eyes and Chief Cozswell almost fell out of his chair when a girlish voice replied between sobs, 'Esther Queen. I live in Hot Springs, and ran away from home because my papa whipped me. I am going to St. Louis to live with my sister. I couldn't get away unless I wore men's clothes. I am 14 years old, and go to high school at Hot Springs.

"Miss Queen said she went from Hot Springs to Malvern in a buggy, and came to Little Rock by train. She had enough money to buy a ticket to Little Rock.

"The young girl was turned over to Police Captain T. M. Clifton, who took her to the detention home last night. She probably will be returned to Hot Springs today."
