Thanksgiving Ball.

All will be a scene of gaiety at the Arlington tonight. The annual Thanksgiving ball has long been the stellar event of the Spa's early winter season of jollity and the stage is set for a riotous inaing of pleasure.

Granting that the season proper is still some distance off, still there is a splendid colony of fashionable people from many of the big northern, eastern and southern cities at the Arlington—plenty to assure the success of the ball. Then, the smart set of the Arkansas Hot Springs has over chosen the Arlington's Thanksgiving ball as the proper function to get started on its winter's social life.

This really ought to be the truth that the resident elite always holds up its end at the great dances and parties at the Arlington; in fact, when it comes to handsome and supplely dressed matrons and debutantes this fair town ranks in just about first place in the entire land.

Little Rock's ultra swan set enjoyed itself so well at the state fair ball that quite a party is expected over from the capital city. Manager Corrington, though still confined to an invalid's chair as a result of his recent illness, has made elaborate plans for tonight's special ball and his aides can be relied upon seeing that everything comes off as arranged.

The beautiful ball room will be gayly and appropriately decorated, while Prof. Richard Barton promises the dancers an unusually attractive program. The ball will be strictly of the formal variety. Dancing at 9:15 o'clock.

SOLDIERS HASTEN HOME.

Gen. Funston Ordered to Land Troops Not Later Than Friday.

San Antonio, Texas, Nov. 25.—A wireless message picked up here this afternoon from the war department to the steamship Cristobal Colon, which is en route from Vera Cruz to Galveston with troops under General Funston, giving orders that the troops must be landed in port not later than Friday morning, appears to have something to do with reports that the border patrol is to be increased at once several thousand men. The department ordered that the speed of the Cristobal be increased to 9 1/2 knots, indicating the necessity of getting the soldiers on American soil as soon as possible. Reports from border points tonight say the patrol is to be increased by two or three regiments.

Coincident with these reports comes an order that the Twenty-second infantry, en route from Vera Cruz, be hurried to San Antonio as soon as it lands at Galveston. Army officers here refuse to give out anything about proposed troop movements.

TREASON AGAINST LABOR.

Philadelphia, Nov. 25.—Resolutions condemning what was characterized as treason in the ranks of organized labor at the closing session of the annual convention of the building trades department of the American Federation of Labor here today.

Charges were made that organizations of plasterers, stone cutters, steam engineers, hod carriers and common laborers had worked with the International Union and of Bricklayers and Masons which is not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

The convention also vetoed that the charters of local and state councils that fail to expel local unions of unaffiliated bricklayers and masons be withdrawn.

"SANTA CLAUS" SHIP LANDS IN ENGLAND

BRITAIN EXPRESSES HEARTFELT THANKS FOR THE $6,000,000 WORTH OF GIFTS.

Earl Kitchener Says Thoughtfulness of America Will Bring Joy to Many Homes in the War Zone.

Plymouth, Nov. 25.—via London.—A dinner given tonight by the Earl of Beauchamp, first commissioner of works in the British cabinet in honor of the officers of the United States naval collier Jason, the Santa Claus ship closed a day in which the British foreign officers and the citizens of Greater Plymouth manifested in every possible manner the heartfelt appreciation of the king and the country for the six million Christmas gifts sent by the people of the United States to the unfortunate children in the war zone.

Following the arrival of the Jason at Devonport today American flags floated over every public building in Plymouth and from the main masts of all warships and commercial craft in the harbor until sunset.

Among the visitors on the Jason was Mrs. Waldorf Astor, who presented Lieutenant Commander C. E. Courtney, U. S. N. in charge of the ship, with a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums on behalf of the women of England.

Fifty covers were laid for the dinner tonight which was served in the Royal hotel. The dining room was a mass of roses and chrysanthemums. Mayor Baker of Plymouth and Major Waldorf were among the guests.

The Earl of Beauchamp replied to the toast "The King" while Francis Dyke Acland, under secretary for foreign affairs, responded to "The President of the United States."

Joan Callan O'Laughlin, represented two hundred newspapers throughout the United States which assisted in collecting the Christmas gifts, responding to the toast "The Children of America," reviewed the history of the movement.

During the dinner the Earl of Beauchamp read the following telegram from Lord Kitchener, the British secretary of war:

"Please express on my behalf and that of the British army our cordial appreciation and gratefulness for the kind thought of the American people. The welcome freight the Jason carries will bring pleasure to the homes of many of these whose fathers are away."
