ready mentioned for this office are Mr. C. W. Harris, the present deputy assessor, Capt. Sam Lindsey, Mr. John T. Lipscomb, and Mr. M. A. Hudson. It is needless to say there will be "others."

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

No one has yet been mentioned for the Legislature, but as Jefferson county is entitled to three members of the House of Representatives, the woods will no doubt be full of candidates for that office before the primaries are held.

JUDICIAL OFFICES.

There will be a lively campaign for district offices—circuit judge and prosecuting attorney. For circuit judge, Judge Elliott will be a candidate for re-election, and will probably be opposed by the Hon. A. B. Grace. The name of Judge X. J. Pindall, of Arkansas City, is also mentioned in this connection, but it is not believed that he will become a candidate.

For Prosecuting Attorney there will be three candidates—Judge W. D. Jones, Mr. Walter B. Sorrells and Mr. S. C. Martin, the present incumbent. All are young men, able speakers and experienced campaigners. This contest will be second in importance and interest to none.

Altogether the people can prepare themselves to witness a very lively campaign this year. In addition to candidates for county and district offices, there will be a full crop of State candidates to impress their wants upon the people. No voter will therefore want for attention until after the election is over.

THE "GOLDEN RULE" SOLD.

The Stock Thereof Purchased by Mr. Wells, of Alabama.

The stock of dry goods and notions located at No. 202 West Second avenue, known as the "Golden Rule Store," was on Saturday purchased by Mr. — Wells, of Tusculum, Ala., who will probably assume full charge and control Monday morning.

Mr. E. M. Robinson, the former manager, will retire to go into the poultry business either in this county or elsewhere in this State.

The GRAPHIC wishes both Mr. Wells and Mr. Robinson success in their new ventures.

NEW FIRE COMPANIES

ORGANIZED AT THE SHOPS SATURDAY.

Over Twenty-Five Volunteer Members—Grace and Savage the Chiefs.

The employees of the Cotton Belt shops organized five volunteer fire companies Saturday afternoon, and each company starts out with a membership of at least five. Mr. W. H. Grace was elected chief of companies No. 1, 2 and 3, and Mr. W. D. Savage was elected chief of companies No. 4 and 5.

These companies will respond to all calls in the East End, and were organized especially for work outside of city fire limits.

The young men deserve great credit for their enterprise and voluntary sacrifice, and the new companies will no doubt result in great protection to the residents of the East End against losses by fire.

THAT KIDNAPPING CASE.

All Hands off of the Girl Says Chancellor Robinson.

The right to the possession of the S. A. Wood child is still a disputed question. After Mr. Wood was dismissed from the charge of kidnapping brought against him by the child's mother, Mrs. Parnell, who was his former wife, a suit was brought in Chancery Court by Mrs. Parnell to recover the child. Judge Robinson had the matter up Saturday. It being shown that the girl was in a church school and that she was provided for, with a year's tuition paid, the Chancellor issued an injunction against all parties to the suit restraining them from interfering with the child. This will settle the matter for a while.

REAL ESTATE SALES.

GREAT ACTIVITY IN BOTH CITY AND COUNTRY PROPERTY.

The Geo. Atkins Place Sold—J. M. Gracie Purchases the Bankhead Plantation—Other Transfers.

Activity continues in both city and country property, and there have been more big real estate transfers during the present month of January than ever before recorded in a single month in this county.

Notwithstanding the low price of cotton there is especial activity in river bottom plantations, and the end is not yet.

Two big plantation deals were consummated last week.

One was the sale of the Geo. D. Atkins plantation, containing nearly 2000 acres, to a citizen of Pulaski county. The deed has not been filed for record, hence the name of the purchaser and the consideration are not known at this writing, but the GRAPHIC has it from perfectly reliable authority that the deal has been made.

The other big deal in farming lands was the purchase of the Bankhead plantation from the Equitable Securities Company, by Mr. John M. Gracie. This plantation contains about 2000 acres and the consideration was $27,500.

There is also considerable activity in city real estate, as will be seen by the list of transfers published below. The largest deals in city property during the past week were the sale of the Baptist property on West Fifth avenue to Mr. W. D. Hearn, which sale has already been published, and the sale of a part of lot 3, in Finnerty's addition, by Mr. J. H. Mann to Mr. J. T. Lloyd. The consideration in the latter transfer was $950.00.

The real estate transfers filed for record with the circuit clerk last week were as follows:

HEAVY WINDS.

But No Very Serious Damage Done—Telephone and Telegraph Wires Down.

Heavy winds prevailed in this section Saturday afternoon, but so far as known no serious damage was done.

A report became current on the streets that heavy winds had done much damage between Pine Bluff and Little Rock, but Conductor Atwood, who is in charge of the Valley train arriving here at 5:30 p.m., stated to a GRAPHIC reporter last night that he saw no evidences of a heavy storm along the railroad track.

However, the wires of the Postal Telegraph Co. and the Southwestern Telephone Co. between here and Little Rock were blown down—probably caused by falling timber.

MRS. R. P. HOLMES.

Critically Ill in an Infirmary at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mr. R. P. Holmes, the well-known proprietor of the City Meat Market on West Second avenue, received a telegram last Friday evening from Buffalo, N. Y., stating that his wife had suffered a relapse and was critically ill and summoning him to her bedside at once. Mr. Holmes left on the first train to be at his wife's bedside.

Mrs. Holmes has been in bad health for some time and a short time ago went to Buffalo, N. Y., to enter an infirmary in hopes of finding relief, but all efforts to restore her to health have apparently failed. The many friends of the family will regret to learn of Mrs. Holmes' critical condition and wish for her speedy recovery.

Mr. C. A. Hodge, the well-known baseball twirler who was a member of the local Y. M. C. A. team last summer, has received a telegram from the manager of the Houston club offering him a good salary to enter the Texas league, but Mr. Hodge has a good job at the Cotton Belt shops and says Pine Bluff is good enough for him.

STATE FAIR.

TO BE HELD IN PINE BLUFF NEXT FALL.

The Name of the Fair Association Changed to Pine Bluff State Fair Association.

The Board of Directors of the Fair Association met in called session at the Citizens Bank at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon to consider a resolution referred to them for action at the last meeting of the stockholders to change name of the Association to that of the "Pine Bluff Fair Association," and to consider such other matters as might come before the meeting. Upon motion the resolution to change the name to Pine Bluff State Fair Association was unanimously adopted.

A committee was appointed on revision of catalogue and premium lists, and the President and Secretary were instructed to draft a circular letter to be sent out to the farmers and stock-growers urging the latter to plant their crops and raise stock with a view of exhibiting the same at the fair next October.

The Directors discussed the subject of the fair next fall, and are inaugurating plans for a much more elaborate exhibit than that of last year. The indications are that the fair next October will be one of the greatest in the history of the South.

The members of the Board of Directors are W. H. Langford, President; J. W. Withers, Vice-President; D. C. Bell, Secretary, J. B. Trulock, Treasurer, and H. F. Westbrook, Arthur Murray, Wiley Jones, L. E. Goldsmith and J. W. Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Stahl, of St. Louis, are the guests of Mrs. Lina Melenger, on West Barraque street. Mrs. Stahl was formerly Miss Fay Melenger, and her many friends welcome her heartily. Mr. Stahl leaves for St. Louis some time next week but Mrs. Stahl will continue her visit some time longer.

GOT ON A JAG.

And Created Somewhat of a Sensation on West Barraque Street.

Dr. C. D. Niven, of Rison, came to town Friday.

He not only came to town, but proceeded to tank up and in the course of the afternoon had on a good sized jag.

While in a boozy condition he walked into the cigar store of Mr. F. M. Altschul, on West Barraque street, opposite Hotel Trulock. Mr. F. M. Altschul, the proprietor, is in Tampa, Fla., purchasing a new stock of goods, and during his absence the store is in charge of his wife.

When Dr. Niven walked into the cigar store Friday afternoon Mrs. Altschul was standing behind one of the front show cases. The Doctor swaggered up to the counter and said to her:

"Do you know me?"

"No, I don't know you nor never saw you before," she replied.

"Well, I'm Doctor Niven—don't you love me?"

At this the lady became very indignant and said: "No, get out!"

"Doctor Niven never gets out," was the drunken reply.

At this Mrs. Altschul began to retreat and started up the stairs leading to her apartments in the second story.

Dr. Niven started to follow her when she screamed. This attracted Messrs. Sol Kaufman and Dave Franklin, who gently stepped in and forcibly took the Doctor by the arm and escorted him to the door.

Mrs. Altschul was badly frightened and almost fainted, but quickly recovered after the removal of the intruder.

The affair was not reported to the police.

Rev. J. R. Cason and family were tendered a pound party last night, when members of the Main Street and Lakeside churches and their friends presented Mr. Cason with large quantities of household supplies.

Miss Alma Hanks arrived in the city Friday and is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Riley, on Second avenue.
