AS TO CIRCULATION.

The Daily Graphic has nearly double the circulation of any other Pine Bluff daily newspaper, and the Daily and Semi-Weekly Graphic have a combined circulation larger than that of any other Pine Bluff daily or weekly newspaper. Advertisements accepted on this guarantee.

SEVERAL interesting features will be found on the inside pages of the Sunday Morning Graphic.

The nomination of Joseph McKenna to be an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States was confirmed by the Senate Friday.

The sixth annual session of the Arkansas division of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association met in Little Rock yesterday. The officers are H. C. Wood, Van Buren, president, P. P. Byrd, of Pine Bluff, vice-president; T. C. Davis, of Fort Smith, secretary; Adolph Geyer, of Little Rock, treasurer.

Hon. A. B. GRACE is being strongly urged to enter the race for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge of this judicial district. Mr. Grace has not signified his determination as yet in the premises, if, indeed, he has reached a determination, but it can be set down as a certainty that if he enters the list the campaign will be a lively one. Mr. Grace is a hot campaigner and amply qualified to fill the position.

The Sunday Graphic.

The Sunday morning issue of the Daily Graphic occupies a unique place in local journalism. It stands without a peer or competitor. It occupies a field distinctly its own. It is the only Pine Bluff daily newspaper published on Sunday morning. It is the only paper appearing on Sunday morning with news while it is news. "There are others," but they are simply a rehash of what has been published in each of the dailies during the week and what has already been read by Pine Bluff readers. That's the difference between the Sunday Graphic and the other so-called Sunday papers. Its the difference between a hot meal and a cold one.

SPEAKERS ELECTED.

The Little Rock Debating Society met Friday night in the Senate chambers and elected debaters to represent them in the contest with the Pine Bluff Oratorical Association some time in March. The members selected are: Messrs. W. W. McLaughlin, L. P. Guthrie and A. M. Fulk, with James Stephenson as alternate.—Arkansas Democrat.

Clement, of Pittsburgh, all experienced aeronauts.

CATARH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant Simple, but safe Effective Cure for it.

Catarh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable.

The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headache, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling. There is often a foul taste in the month, coated tongue, and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has a time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harrison the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Dintase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing backward into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling."

"I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores. d19-21-23-25-28-30 w22-29
