

Largely Attended—An Accident.

The races given at Jones' Park yesterday afternoon, were largely attended despite the inclement weather which prevailed. The races were all close and exciting and every one was well paid for their attendance. The first race was between Lady Hearn, owned by Mr. D. Hearn, and John, owned by Clarence Philpot was declared an account of an accident which occurred while practicing for the race. Mr. Hearn ran into Mr. Philpot, overturning both carts and causing Mr. Hearn's horse to con- siderably lame. Mr. Philpot is laid up with a sprained ankle, but is resting easy today. Mr. Hearn had a precarious escape as his horse con- siderably kicked until Mr. Hearn was thrown from under the cart, which was demolished. The second race was between B. owned by Wiley Jones first, and Nelson, Monroe Perdue, owner of the second. In the third race there were three heats, Minnie T. owned by F. B. Tomlinson, won the first, McKinley, owned by Wiley Jones won the second and Jim owned by Virginus Wilkins won the third. The fourth race was de- clared off on account of rain.

AN HEROIC ACT.

Mr. Jake Sarason proved himself a hero yesterday evening, and his friends are proud of him. Standing in front of his place of business on Main street he saw a runaway team tearing madly up the street. The buggy was a helpless and frightened little girl, who was in imminent danger of being thrown and perhaps killed. Without a moment's thought of the great risk he was taking, Mr. Sarason made a dash for the horse, grabbed him by the bridle, and after being dragged for some distance succeeded in bringing the animal to a stand. Those who saw the deed pronounce it as one of the coolest and daring, as the risk of Mr. Sarason being maimed or badly injured was very great. One of his friends proudly re- marked: "It was the bravest act I have ever seen, and we ought to give Mr. Sarason a medal." The horse was owned by Mr. E. C. Grace, and it was his little daughter who was narrowly escaped a possible death. The horse, always consider- ably perfectly gentle, had been left with the little girl a few moments before Mrs. Grace was making a purchase. The Democrat is glad that it has nothing serious to re- port as the result of the runaway.— Greenville, (Miss.) Democrat.

Mr. Sarason was formerly a citi- zen of this place and his friends will be glad to hear of such a heroic deed.

In Which as is Usual a Woman Figured in the Case.

The Police headquarters were telephoned about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon, that a shooting scrape was taking place near Cook's Grocery store on east 2nd avenue. The patrol wagon was sent to the scene and it was found that Chas. Bently a negro who upon seeing Ed Levibran also colored, pulled a 39 calibre pistol and began shooting, he shot three times but only one took effect, and that in the hip of Levibran. Bently gave himself up to officer Dewitt Hope and was brought to the county jail and locked up. As is usual a woman was in the case, and was the cause of the shooting. Levibran is not seriously shot, but has a very bad flesh wound on his hip where the bullet entered his body.

A Runaway.

Considerable excitement was caused this morning by a runaway team belonging to a farmer. They directed their course north on Main street to Barraque where J. C. Meyer's horse joined in the flight. Down Barraque they dashed, turn- ing over a wagon near this office and continued their course. Brad- ford & Knox's mare, thinking it to be a free for all race, took an active part, and was soon followed by a stray animal who brought up the rear, making the run a successful one. Fortunately no serious damage was done.

At the school election tomorrow there are two members to be selected. There will be, it is believed, two names before the people, S. M. Taylor and P. P. Byrd. Mr. Taylor has served on the board for two years— Capt. Roberts, who was elected with him declines on account of his health to serve longer, as its night meetings are injurious to him. Messrs. Taylor and Byrd will serve the people faith- fully and well. They are both strong friends of the public school and the administration of Mr. Hinemon, who has done so much for our school.

The English of It.

The lady lawyer, Mlle. Chauvin, seems likely to gain her heart's desire and to be allowed to practice. Lady barristers will certainly be a novelty, and there seems no particular reason why they should not be a successful novelty. "The gift of the gab" has al- ways been a woman's attribute, and when to this she adds discretion, know- ledge and good looks she bids fair to prove a formidable rival to her male competitors. Whether her prudence will be equal to her zeal, her tact equal to her enthusiasm, remains to be proved, but in cases where women have conducted their own cases they have generally done it efficiently, as those who remem- ber Mrs. Weldon and other ladies versed in the law must acknowledge. A fresh career will now be open to women, who are already running a neck and neck race with their male rivals.—London Graphic.

Miss Jane Addams.

A number of Chicago clergymen are strongly urging Miss Jane Addams of Hull House in that city to become a regularly ordained minister. In speak- ing of the matter Miss Addams says: "I do not yet see the advantage to my work if I were ordained. I help preach- ers whenever they wish me to fill pul- pits on Sunday, and this does not inter- fere with my work here. I have spoken at Jenkin Lloyd Jones' church. I have helped Dr. Thomas and others. I can do this any Sunday and am glad to be able to help. But I am not certain about the advantage to be gained if I were or- dained a preacher."

Miss Marion Hyndman.

Miss Marion Hyndman, assistant ed- itor of The Templar, Canada's prohibi- tion weekly paper, is a young woman whose talents and efficiency have ad- vanced her speedily. She entered the office of that paper a short time ago as stenographer in the correspondence de- partment and was soon promoted to act as secretary for the editor, who was also general manager of a large fraternal in- surance society. Miss Hyndman was made assistant editor a few months ago

PRESENTATION

At Little Rock Today, Where Pine Bluff Will be Well Represented.

The flag which was given to the Jefferson Fencibles by the citizens of this city, and which will be pre- sented today at Little Rock by Miss Emma White, is one of the prettiest of any company at our capital. The ceremonies for the occasion will be very interesting, and is being largely attended by Pine Bluffians. The presentation speech will be made by Miss Emma White, the beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. White, while Capt. E. K. Braley will address the large assemblage in return of thanks. The Valley train this morning run an excursion, with half fare for the round trip, and this opportunity was greatly taken advantage of, as the names below will show. The many who are attending are as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jones, Mesdames. N. T. White, R. Smith, Tom Sparks, J. L. Reinach, J. Bloom, C. C. Love- lady and Maud Stanley. Misses Emma White, Joe and Dolly Smith, Maggie Rutledge, Helen Rosenberg, Sue Knox, Hennie Blum, Jennie Altheimer, Zorner Thompson, Ealine Smith, Nell Collier, Grace York, Allie Torian, Helen Love- lady, Reber Dewoody, May Hudson and Jennie McCain. Messrs. Har- vey Hudson, Gordon Smeade, Will Hearn, Eugene Lietner, Ollie Gal- braith, Harry Trulock, John Tan- ner, George Vining, Joe Nichols, Joe Meyer, Julius Schloss, Ben Altheimer, Wade Knox, Judge Vance, Creed Caldwell, J. E. Le- Bosquet, Dr. Loper, John McCain Kemp Toney, and J. W. Adams.

WHEELMEN RECEPTION.

The rainy weather last night pre- vented a larger attendance of wheel- men at the Merrill Institute, but all of the thirty-five men present had a fine time. The short bicycle talks were appreciated and the members of the male quartet and torch and club swinging of Mr. Dixon were very heartily applauded. Encore numbers were required. The torch swinging when all other lights are extinguished is indeed a beauti- ful sight. The cake and cream and ices served by the ladies in the gymnasium did not fail of apprecia- tion. It is hoped that another such event will be given.
