MORE YEARLINGS.

Deputy J. H. Culpepper, arrested a negro yesterday at the boat landing, who he had longed to catch for some time. The negro is Louis Hubbard, who is wanted for selling stolen property. A few weeks ago this negro stole three yearlings and sold them to a Mr. Sigers, a cattle dealer. When Mr. Sigers was taking the cattle home three men met him and claimed the animals. It was plainly shown that Hubbard had stolen the yearlings. A warrant was issued for his arrest. Deputy Culpepper went after him and found him at the boat landing. He made resistance but was overpowered and locked up to await trial.
