

"MERRY CHRISTMAS, EVERYBODY!"

Dear Santa:

I want you to bring me a doll, wagon, and a balloon, a doll buggy, and all kinds of fruit. I am a little girl three years old.

Homiselle Sharp.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want a cowgirl suit and a story book to read and my little sister wants a rubber doll and a red ball and give my little sister and me some candy and some fire works and a wheel and I want a set of furs.

From Florence Logan.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring me a doll, a desk, some books and apples, oranges, nuts and candy, also a music roll.

Your friend,
Helen Buchanan.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a Dutch doll and some things to pull with bells on them, and something to eat.

Katherine Buchanan.

Mr. Santa Claus,
Iceland.

Dear Santa:

I want that steam engine in the Webb Variety Store. Lots of fire crackers, Roman candles and some torpedoes. I am in the fourth grade.

From your little friend,
John Marshall Pittman.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little girl six years old. I want you to bring me a little doll bed, some candy, apples, oranges, nuts and everything that is nice. Don't forget my two little brothers; bring them some nice things too.

Hazel Worthington.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a doll, a little doll bed, and something for my little brother, and some oranges, apples, candies and nuts. Santa, I won't ask for any more.

Mildred Huston.

Dear Santa: I would like for you to bring me a Billy-goat and a wagon. Now if you haven't enough goats for all the boys, bring me a drum, army pistol with a big box of shells. Santa don't forget the poor little boys and girls of Prescott. Bring me three books, fireworks and knife.

Your friend,
Roy Osborn.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a doll, a little doll bed, a whistle for my little brother and some oranges, apples, candies and nuts. Santa, I won't ask any more, but if you want to bring me something more I will thank you very much. Santa remember the poor little children.

Your friend,
Dorth.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a doll, a little doll bed, a whistle for my brother, and some oranges, apples and a doll cradle, a Christmas tree, a big doll and a doll buggy. Bring me a doll set, a piano too. Bring my teacher something.

Mary Garner.

Dear Santa:

I would like for you to bring me a Billy-goat and a wagon. Now if you haven't enough goats for all of the boys, bring me a drum or a cap pistol with a big box of shells, a big lot of firecrackers and bicycle. Santa, don't forget the poor little boys and girls of Prescott.

Your friend,
Burl Lee.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a doll, a big doll bed, a muff fur for my sister, and some oranges, apples, candies and nuts. Santa how are you getting along this year? I want that big bed up there at Guthrie's Drug Store, and that big baby doll up there with eyes that open and shut. Santa, I won't ask for any more, but if you were to bring me something more I will thank you ever so much. Santa remember the poor little children. Santa, I forgot, bring me a little squeaky.

Your friend,
Annajo Morrison.

Dear Santa:

I would like for you to bring me a Billy goat and a wagon. Now if you haven't enough goats for all the boys, bring me a cap pistol with a big lot of shells.

Your friend,
Garland Wells.

Dear Santa:

I will promise not to slip off to the store any more if you will please bring me a baby doll, a balloon, doll buggy, and lots of other toys and be sure and fill my stockings with nuts, fruits and lots of candy.

Your little friend,
Winifred Virginia Duke.

Dear Santa:

I am a little boy as mean as the rest, but still I like old Santa and I want you to bring me a boy scout suit a train and a camping tent, and all kinds of fireworks and candies.

Your little boy,
James M. Duke.

My Dear Santa Claus: I want you to bring me a boy doll and a boy cart too. I want you to bring me a pair of mittens, and I want some fruit. I have been a good girl.

Fay Johnson.

Dear Santa:

I am a nice little girl. I have been good since last Xmas, and I want you to bring me a doll, doll buggy and lots of doll clothes. Coem to see me, Santa.

Yours,
Hershal Lumpkin.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little boy one year old. I want you to bring me a rocking horse, a duck, fish, frog and turtle that can float in water; a great big ball, a little red wagon, a monkey that can climb a string and a little kitten and dog. I will be good and not cry much when you come.

Your little friend,
Robert Hitt, Jr.

My Dear Santa: I want you to bring a pair of rubber boots, size 4, an air gun and some shots, a pistol and belt, a good football, and a good pearl handle knife with three blades, and all kinds of fire crackers and also lots of fruit.

Your friend,
Archie Johnson.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring me some fire crackers and romas candles. Bring me a new train, a Dan Patch racer, and some other nice toys. I want some apples, oranges, nuts and candy, too.

Your little friend,
Duncan L. McRae.

Dear Santa:

I have been a good Irishman and want you to bring me a little soldier boy and a cowboy suit, and a pistol that shoots lots; also lots of apples, oranges and nuts. I am a good little Irish boy.

John Holloran.

Dear Tanty Tause:

I nont you to bring me a little norse naggon and nittle whip. Bring me some tandy and fruits. Well, I will close. Your little baby boy,

William Ghormley.

Dear Santa Claus:

We are your little girls. We want you to bring us some fruit and candy, nuts and a doll and story book, and some firecrackers. We will go to bed early. Well, I will close.

Your little girls,
Jewel and Jean Ghormley.

Dear Santa Claus:

How are you. I go to Sutton school. I am 8 years old and in the third grade. I want you to bring me a doll and story book, with good stories in it. I want you to bring me some fruits, nuts, candies. I will go to bed early Xmas eve and wake up happy. Well I will close.

Your girl,
Lillian Fore.

P. S.—Bring me some fire crackers and a Roman candle.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am your little girl. I am 11 years old. I go to Sutton school. I am in the 6th grade. I want you to bring me some apples, oranges, candy, raisins, nuts, and bananas. I want you to bring me a great big doll and story book. I want a bunch of fire crackers, a Roman candle. Well I will close.

Your little girl,
Myrian Fore.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a blackboard and a little trunk, a little bed, a little dresser and some little chairs and a table. I will go to bed early.

Mildred Wuertz.

Dear Santa:

Please bring me a goat wagon and harness. I want a horn and a tinker toy. Fill my stockings with nuts, candies and all kinds of fruit.

Don't forget Jack. Bring him lots of toys too. He will be here Xmas eve night.

Your good boy,
Benjamin Steger.

My Dear Santa Claus:

I am 7 years old and am in the second grade. I am a good little girl. I want you to bring me a doll and a rattle, a little doll bed and bottle of milk with a nipple on it. I want a little iron and a little stove to heat it on.

Your little girl,
H. Ross Harte.

Dear Santa:

I want you to bring me a gun, horn, train, play auto, windmill, some Teddy bear, a Roman candle and a balloon. I am a little boy in the first grade, five years old, and I want all kinds of fruit.

Hiram Sharp.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want you to bring me a horn and a drum, some little play blocks, lots of candy, nuts and fruit. And please remember my little baby sister, Mary Alice, and bring her a rattler. She is nearly 3 months old.

Your loving little friend,
John Anderson Coleman.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want you to bring me a tricycle and a drum and lots of fireworks and candy, nuts and fruit. I am a little boy six years old.

Theron Coleman.

Dear Santa:

I am a little girl three years old. I live with my aunt. I am a good girl most of the time. Please bring me a little telephone so I can talk to Joe and anything else you want to, but don't let me see you because I'm awfully afraid of you.

Little Winnie Gipson.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want a doll, box candy, oranges, apples, and please I want a wagon so Gertrude and I can ride. I am a little tiny girl. I will be looking for you.

Evy Ward, Route 5.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring me a big gun and a pistol, a drum, a horn, a Christmas tree, train, picture books and a soldier boy suit, and lots of fireworks; bring some apples, oranges, bananas, candy and nuts.

Your little boy,
Wallace Benjamin Rouse.

Dear Santa Claus:

Please bring me a kiddie-kar, a little dog and elephant, some blocks, a red wagon and lots of toys and things to eat.

Your little fat boy,
Robert Dudley Rouse.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want oranges, apples, fire crackers and some of everything you have.

Your little friend,
Tom Watson Ward.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want a doll, box candy and oranges and apples, and a set of dishes.

Virginia Waller.

ges and apples, and a set of dishes.
Agnes Ward.

Dear Santa Claus:

I am a little boy three years old, and I want you to bring me a little drum, a little horn and a tricycle, and lots of things to eat. Goodbye,

Woodrow Hitt.

Dear Santa:

I want you to please bring me a doll and some clothes for her, some fruit, candies and nuts and anything else you have to spare, and don't forget Mrs Denington, the woman who washes to make a living for her children.

Your little girl,
Effie Tyner.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want you to bring me a doll, a doll cart, a little doll bed and some little dishes. Please don't forget my little brother, Joseph Leo.

Your little friend,
Cleo Russell.

Dear Santa Claus:

I want you to bring me a little dog, a little doll and a little wagon, some candies and fruits and please don't forget my little friends, Buddie and Cleo. I am your little 3-year-old boy.

Deward Tyner.

Dear Santa Claus:

I do want a sewing set, a crying baby and a buggy and three big dollies and a little doll in a bath tub, a stove and a train on the track and an Indian suit. Please bring Teddy some new rompers and please be sure and get the clown doll that grandmother is making for me. I am a good girl four years old.

I love you very much.

We would suggest the useful present rather than the ornamental one, such as listed here.

For the Ladies

A pair of Hose
A Serge Dress Pattern
A Gingham Dress
Some Highland Suitings
Some Plaid Suitings

For the Men

A pair of good Shoes
A Stetson Hat
A pair of warm Artics
A pair of Suspenders
A Four-in-Hand Tie
A Mackinaw Coat
A Rain Coat

For the Children

A pair of Shoes
A Boy's Suit of Clothes
A Boy's Hat

Also for the Men: Let us take your order for a
M. Born Suit of Clothes

J. E. Barham
PRESCOTT, ARKANSAS