THIS TELLS HOW WE BOUGHT IT.

M. & L. S. Fechheimer & Co.,
 Clothing and Woolens,
 Nos. 321 and 323 Race St.
 Dictated by D. K. Cincinnati, Oct. 17, '95.

Mess. J. Blach & Sons,
 Birmingham, Alabama.
 Gentlemen:—

We are pleased to hear, through your father, that you have had, and are having, an exceedingly good fall business. We are more interested in this inasmuch as we are just now wanting somebody to whom we can dispose of the balance of our Fall and Winter stock.

You are well aware that "bottom" on Woolens was reached some months ago, and that there have been considerable advances on many lines of goods. We anticipated a good fall business and prepared for it, but now, with the season, for us practically over, and though what we have are all new, choice things—in fact, some of them still in the hands of the tailors—we prefer to maintain our reputation for showing each season an entirely new line of goods; therefore it is that we are anxious to dispose of what we have left, and are ready to do it at exact cost, or some less, if need be. We come to you giving you the first opportunity, for the reason that, as with the wants of two such stores as yours at Birmingham and Nashville, you are not likely to scruple at the size of lots, some of which run as many as 100 and more of a kind.

Sincerely this is an opportunity for you, and as we mean it to apply to our entire line, we would urge you to send not only your buyer of men's suits and overcoats, but also your department buyers of men's pants, youths', boys' and children's suits, overcoats and pants.

Yours truly,
M. & L. S. Fechheimer & Co.

This Tells How We Sell It.

In finer grades of Underwear we are displaying the most complete line in the city.

This is unquestionably the largest amount of merchandise ever bought by any retailer, and we name prices on fine, desirable garments that have no competition. The season is rapidly advancing and we will not carry any of it into the next season. We own the goods at prices less than manufacturer's cost, and will sell them lower than other clothiers can buy them.

CALL and EXAMINE the QUALITIES and GET OUR PRICES.

Our pleasing salesmen are always ready to show goods, and if you want to make your dollars reach further than elsewhere, don't miss our sale.
