

THE AGE-HERALD'S LAST MINUTE WORLD WIDE PICTURES

Five in Auto Party Die in Death Plunge

Two women and three men were killed when their auto shot through grating and over wall (background) in Philadelphia before speeding freight train which smashed car into this jumble of junk. One man in party was taken alive from wreckage by rescue party.

Champ

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Elizabeth Bartoloe (above) of Youngstown, Ohio, claims to be girl marble shooting champion of U. S. She has defeated many boy experts in competition.

Instigator

Police declare captured gunmen in New York have confessed that Anthony Pantano was instigator of holdup of bank messengers in New York that resulted in their death and theft of over $40,000.

Scrap Heap for U. S. S. Indiana

As though it were a piece of pie, the stem of the U. S. S. Indiana was sliced off at Brooklyn, N. Y., Navy Yard, where the battleship is being scrapped.

All Night Fire Leaves Tijuana in Ruins

This photo of ruins in Tijuana, Mexico, gives indication of way the city looked after an all night fire had razed practically every building in it.

Hurricane Did It

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Considerable damage was done to parts of Spain by a violent hurricane. Above is shown a wrecked street in Jativa, a small coast town.

American Beauties Bow to Miss Canada

Oil Princess

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
Miss Leona Coyle, tire splicer in Indianapolis factory and a former orphanage inmate, who inherited Oklahoma oil land worth $250,000 and an annual income of $30,000.

(By Pacific & Atlantic)
First honors in the beauty contest held in New York City went back to Toronto, Canada, with Norma Niblock, fifteen, who conquered American queens from many cities in U. S. "I came, they saw, I conquered," was her smiling explanation for victory.

Where the West Began

The spot where the West began, marked by Lincoln Monument at Council Bluffs, Iowa, was decorated by D. A. R. on sixtieth anniversary of signing of bill by Lincoln.

Four of a Kind, All Lusty, and Their Mother

These quadruplets, just arrived, have increased the family of George L. Wittig, Baltimore, Md., to twelve children. Wittig is forty-four and his wife is thirty-seven. The three girls and one boy are all normal and strong. The boy weighed five pounds and the smallest of the girls four pounds and two ounces, making a total weight of eighteen pounds and three ounces for the four.

From Far Above

How Mother Earth looks from above is shown in this photo, snapped from Shenandoah, formerly the ZR-1, while over Fall River, Mass.

Elders Frown on Gerry

Concert appearance of Geraldine Farrar in two leading Atlanta, Ga., Methodist churches was stopped by presiding elders. Miss Farrar caused sensation in Atlanta three years ago by her "Zaza" costume.

Young

Despite his seventy-seven years of youth, A. Chamberlain competed against youngsters in 10 1/2-mile walking race in New York City and finished strong.

Beauties Grow the World Over

American queens would have to look to their laurels if these Swedish girls had entered the National Beauty Show. Prizes were awarded them at an agricultural fete in Stockholm, Sweden, both for their beauty and their peasant costumes.

Names Galore

Containing 50,000 names, this greatest autograph book, carried by Joseph F. Mikulec (left) in 200,000 miles of travel, is valued at $10,000.

Held for Murder

John (left) and Marriner Browning, son and nephew of machine gun inventor, are on trial, charged with slaying husband of Mrs. B. B. Bantyne (center) in Salt Lake City.

(Copyright: 1923: Pacific & Atlantic Photos, Inc.)

AGE-HERALD PICTURES LEAD THE SOUTH