Fletcher Fairchild, late sheriff of Coconino county, died at the asylum at Phoenix recently. The deceased was confined to the asylum about three months ago, and he failed rapidly since. He leaves a wife and five children in Flagstaff, where he resided for years, and where he stood high in public estimation.

"Now, boys," said the Sunday school teacher, "can any of you name the three great feasts of the Jews?"

"Yes'm, I can," replied one bright little fellow.

"Very well, Johnny; what are they?"

"Breakfast, dinner and supper," was the unconsciously logical reply.

Documents Filed for Record.

Following is a list of documents filed for record at the county seat from eastern Graham county for week ending November 4th:

John Laird et al locate Copper Chief mine in Greenlee district.

W. H. Settle, of Morenci, files official bond as justice of the peace.

J. J. Putman and wife to J. T. Tong, deed to lots 8 and 9, block 1, Duncan.

Wythe Denby and wife to A. K. Waugh, deed to lot 7, Riverside Park, Clifton.

Charles S. Couch et al locate Old Dutch and Dutch Extension in Ash Peak dist.

"Tommy, I hear you were shot full of powder grains on the Fourth."

"I don't care! I'm th' only boy in th' block wot's got blue freckles."

Young Doctor.—Congratulate me, old man. I'm just preparing to visit my first patient.
