The editor of the Vindicator has had occasion to test the efficacy of Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice with the most remarkable results in each case. Second, in rheumatism in thigh joint, almost prostrating him with severe pain, which was relieved by two applications, rubbing with the liniment on retiring at night, and getting up free from pain. For sale by Dunn, druggist.

Not Dead—Just Dyeing.

Mit Simms, Clifton's hustling tailor, got struck in the head, from the effects of which he is now dyeing. He was struck by an idea. He is used to such strokes, but this one was a new one. He knew that he had, or very soon would, sell everybody one of those, "never wear out" new suits made by Wanamaker & Brown, and that all other clothes in town would make people look and feel so entirely out of date after wearing or seeing one of his new suits, that he knew Consequently, he was struck with the idea that clothes bought elsewhere would very soon need dyeing, or the wearers of them would feel embarrassed. The idea will strike everybody else the same way. Mit is now prepared to dye anything and everything from a pair of old socks to an old hat. He lives to dye, and dyes to live for his friends, and that includes everybody.

A correspondent at Blue, this county, writes the Guardian that "unless we have early rains the farmers in this part of the county will have a poor show, and without early rains the farmers at Luna, N. M., 20 miles from here, will stand no show at all."

Lewis Dennis, Salem, Ind., says, "Koch's Dyspepsia cure did me more good than anything I ever took." It digests what you eat and can not but help cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles.—dunn's drug store, chase creek.
