Yes, we sell a lot of other things besides lumber. For instance, good dry kindling put up in sacks, nice clean saw-dust. Then we have lots of roofing paper, roofing paint, sheathing paper, genuine Beaver board, doors, windows, lime, plaster, cement and about everything in builders hardware you might need. Besides, if we haven't all that is ordinarily carried in a first-class lumber yard, we can make it for you in our wood-working mill.

Miss Marie Cramer a former resident of Winslow and who has instructed a music class at this place for three years past, returned Monday last and renewing acquaintances with many friends. Miss Cramer now resides at Albuquerque.

Rev. Harold S. Brewster will conduct Episcopal services in Holbrook on Sunday at the Central school building at 3 p. m. Rev. Brewster will come from Winslow by automobile, and will not depend on the train, on account of it being late very often and thereby causing him to fail to keep the appointment.

Some Superstitions. The breaking of a looking glass is, with some people, the occasion of a gloomy foreboding, and the unlucky person who does it is supposed to be doomed to seven years of bad luck. Peacock feathers were formerly considered as bearers of sickness, yet fashion has introduced them into house decorations.

How to Save. "It's got so," says an old friend of ours, "that a fellow can't save any money without doing without something." While this is perfectly true, we hold to the opinion that a fellow never could.
