Amesbury County Heard From. (Mohave County Miner.) In reference to the charges made against U. S. Marshal Meade, the Prescott Courier gets of the following:

"The long string of allegations about as well as infamous, against U. S. Marshal Meade, published by the republicans sheet of Phoenix, and echoed by its fellow bootmen here, will probably receive an attention which its authors and disseminators neither expect nor desire.

Indeed, we will go further and add to the other charges the following, of which some proofs are now in file in the United States Court at Prescott, and accessible to anyone.

They appointed to meet in the parlor, when all of the guests were asleep, and they parted with such protestations that each the appointment would keep.

They were punctual, just to the second, and their greetings were soft as a breath.
