PRESIDENT TAFT BOWS LOW TO THE WOMEN OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

CORDIALLY RECEIVED IN INSURGENT STRONGHOLD OF GOLDEN STATE

Sees Pretty and Dangerous Work of Auto Drivers Shielding Him From Possible Injury by Runaway Horse

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 16.—President Taft spent today in insurgent Southern California and was given an entirely non-partisan reception. In one of his speeches the president took occasion to thank Senator Works and Governor Johnson for their share in so hospitable a welcome. The streets of Los Angeles and Pasadena were jammed all day. His principal address of today was in the auditorium where he spoke on his vetoes of the tariff measures. Taft was constantly on the go from early morning until late tonight, when he retired at the home of his sister Mrs. W. A. Edwards.
During his address at the auditorium he laughingly referred to the suffrage amendment, saying that he bowed just a little lower this time to the ladies than two years ago when he was here and "hoped the fact was duly noted."

He was taken to Pasadena to luncheon and viewed the school children at Alhambra where an exciting incident occurred when a horse attached to a delivery wagon, excited by the motor cars of the procession, dashed down the street in the president's wake. Three or four detectives grabbed the horse but were shaken off. Several automobiles then moved up and formed a circle around the rearing animal and completely shut him in at the same time shielding the president. It was a pretty but dangerous piece of work.
The president heard nothing of the alleged attempt to dynamite the bridge above Santa Barbara over which his train passed. Tonight at the banquet he made a plea for the arbitration treaties.

TWO TALESMAEN ARE TEMPORARILY PASSED

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 16.—Seemingly caught by the first big snag in the McNamara trial today, he wiggled out and went joyfully on. "Could you set aside your opinions sufficiently to enable you to give a fair and impartial verdict?" asked Attorney Darrow, for the defense, of Seth Nelson, the talesman who has been under examination since the first day of the trial last Wednesday. "I don't just know," Nelson answered. District Attorney Fredericks immediately withdrew his opposition to the challenge made by the defense on the ground of bias.

"There is nothing else to do when the man disqualifies himself," said Fredericks. Nelson had been asked more than an hundred questions without clearly stating his position.
Two talesmen were temporarily passed today—John W. Roberts, real estate man, and Robert F. Bain, a carpenter.
The local Merchants and Manufacturers' association, which offered a reward for the alleged dynamiters, was brought into the case today, Darrow asking Roberts if he ever belonged to it. He said he did seven years ago. Darrow said he might question Bain further tomorrow.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK PRESIDENT TAFT'S TRAIN IS FRUSTRATED

Thirty-Six Sticks of Dynamite Placed Under Bridge By Two Men Who Escape After Exchanging Shots

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 16.—A report was received here today by the officials of the Southern Pacific railroad from C. B. Brown, section foreman of the company, at Naples, Cal., which gives the details of the discovery of thirty-six sticks of dynamite under the Cacitas viaduct, twenty miles north of Santa Barbara at 2 o'clock this morning, several hours before President Taft's train was scheduled to pass. Brown says the watchman of the bridge saw two men at the far end, gave chase, ordered them to halt and the men ran. The watchman then fired and the men returned his fire.

After they disappeared in the darkness he returned and inspected the bridge and found the dynamite under the center near the support with a ten-foot fuse attached to one stick. He left the stuff alone, went immediately to Santa Barbara and notified the officials. Sheriff Winse left at once, found the dynamite and removed it.

Brown reports seeing the two men leave the train at Naples Saturday night. The sheriffs and police all along the coast are hunting for the men but have only the meager description furnished by Brown. The president's train passed over the bridge at 5:51 o'clock this morning.

REWARD OFFERED.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Oct. 16.—E. E. Calvin, vice-president of the Southern Pacific railroad, tonight telegraphed to Sheriff Stewart an offer of five thousand dollars reward for the capture of the alleged dynamiters.

YAVAPAI IS AWARDED TWENTY-THREE PRIZES

(By Malcolm A. Fraser)
Special to the Journal-Miner.
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 16.—The Sixth International dry farm congress put Yavapai county on the map today when it awarded blue ribbon prizes to Thomas Brock for white Dent corn, D. M. Wynkoop for white Mexican bayon and Kentucky beans, Sam Boblett for Aztec beans, Walter Atkin for buckwheat and second prize to James Davis for bayon beans and yellow Dent corn. Yavapai county has nine prizes to date and is certain to take firsts on peaches and apples as these fruit displays are conceded to be far superior to any here.
Professor McOmie arrived Saturday and is one of the judges.
The congress will go down to history as the finest and most comprehensive exhibition of reclaiming arid lands in the history of the world.
Nearly every country possessing semi-arid acreages is represented. Canada has the best showing, her exhibits taking up nearly one-half of the entire ground space. Alberta and Saskatchewan have the most complete and interesting showing. Grains and grasses predominate, although some excellent specimens of root crops, including potatoes, turnips and beets are shown. They will be hard to beat by anything raised in the United States.
New Mexico will have a representative range of her dry farming products under the direction of Santa Fe expert J. S. Finsley. Arizona's exhibit consists entirely of Yavapai agricultural and mineral products, with the exception of asbestos and mica from Coconino.
I have yet to see any peaches, apples or corn to beat the Yavapai stuff, but the exhibits are not yet unpacked.
Coloradoans are anxiously awaiting the shipments of gold bars and nuggets from the Bank of Arizona and Prescott National Banks. The chief of police will detail a plain-clothes man to stand guard over this precious collection. Every day it will be placed in a safe deposit box promptly at five.
Friends of Dr. V. T. Cooke will be pleased to learn that he leaves in a fortnight for Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, where he is to assume the portfolio of Dry Farming in authority only second to the Minister of Agriculture. He is here and has helped me install Yavapai's exhibit. A good hat, the prize for the first stand to be completely set up and ready fell to my lot.
Arizona needed this publicity and the money is well spent. Each inquirer has to be taught that ours is no desert land; that our climate is infinitely milder the year round than that of Colorado Springs and that

PHILADELPHIA WINS SECOND GAME OF WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

ATHLETICS AND GIANTS ARE NOW ON EQUAL FOOTING FOR PENNANT

Baker Slams Home Run in Sixth Over Right Fence, Chases Collins Ahead Of Him, Making Score 3 to 1

By Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 16.—When John Franklin Baker, third baseman, slammed a home-run over the right field fence in Shibe park today, scoring Eddie Collins ahead of him, he put the Athletics on an even footing with the Giants in the number of games won in the world's championship series and the two teams will leave for New York tonight for the third game of the series. Today's score was 3 to 1. The big hit came in the sixth inning with two out and when the Athletics had only secured three hits off Marquardt, the National league champion. Baker's smash was the last hit the locals got but it was enough. Just as important as Baker however was Eddie Plank, the star south paw of the American league, who never pitched a better game in his life. Only once was he in danger and that was when Herzog doubled in second. In the last six innings the Giants went out in regular order. Marquardt too, pitched an excellent game allowing but four hits though these came in bunches, two in the first and two in the sixth which proved his undoing. Marquardt in the first innings gave some signs of "blowing" and Manager McGraw sent Crandall down to the side lines to warm up but "Rube" soon steadied himself and performed in a grand manner under the coaching of the Indian catcher, but he was hit harder as the score shows. Plank struck out eight, Devore being his victim four times. Marquardt got six and neither gave a base on balls.

Philadelphia gave Plank superb support and not a bobble was made but on the other hand many sensational steps and throws aided him to win. New York made three errors behind Marquardt but none of which figured in the scoring except Marquardt's wild pitching.
The runs were scored like this: First—Devore struck out; Doyle flew to Lord; Murray drove a liner to Collins. No runs.
Lord singled to right and took second on Murray's fumble, third on Oldring's sacrifice and scored on a wild pitch. Collins singled to infield. Baker struck out. Murphy flew to Devore. One run.
Second—Merkle out, Barry to Davis. Herzog doubled to center. Fletcher out, Collins to Davis. Herzog taking third. Meyers singled, Herzog scored. Marquardt struck out. One run. Davis out, Doyle to Merkle; Barry flied to Devore who muffed. Barry taking second. Thomas flied to Devore; Plank out, Meyers to Merkle on bunt. No runs.
Sixth—Doyle out to Davis unassisted. Snodgrass singled to left and was caught at second trying to stretch to double. Murray struck out. No runs. Lord flied to Snodgrass; Oldring flied to Devore, Collins doubled to left. Baker hit a home-run over the right field fence. The crowd went wild and the game was delayed ten minutes. Murphy struck out. Two runs.

At Philadelphia— R.H.E.
New York ..... 1 15 3
Philadelphia ..... 3 6 0
Batteries—New York, Marquardt, Crandall and Meyers; Philadelphia, Plank and Thomas.
At Chicago—Cubs 0, White Sox 2. Game called at the end of the second inning on account of rain.
