YOUNG MAN, YOU'RE NEEDED ON THE BORDER

A recruiting officer will be in Williams next Tuesday, June 27, for the purpose of securing enlistments for the army.

The latest reports are that war is on in Mexico. American soldiers have been ambushed and slain by the soldiers of the de facto government. They gave a good account of themselves and maintained the traditions of the American fighting forces wherever in action and finally routed the attacking forces with a heavy slaughter. But war is on and soldiers are needed to supply the American army with the troops necessary to terminate hostilities at an early date. Young men are needed on the border.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

The pastor of the Methodist church has returned and was in his pulpit last Sunday. The coming Sabbath is the first of the last three months that he has for this year. What ever we hope to do as people during this year we must do at once. The mission Conference will meet at Prescott on the 27th of September. The pastor is therefore very anxious to have every department of the church up to the standard before leaving for Prescott. The people have stood by us loyally and have been very kind to us in all things for which we are very thankful.

Let us make the rest of the year a great time. On next Sabbath the pastor will speak on the following subjects: "Infidelity or Christianity, which will win?" for the morning. The Sunday evening service will be in charge of the Lady Maccabees. Rev. Hoffpauir will deliver an "Address to the Lady Maccabees" and the remainder of the service will be appropriate for the occasion.

There will be a splendid Sunday School service at 9:45 that you will enjoy. Send the children. Come your self. A splendid time at the Epworth League. You will find a welcome at the Home-like church this summer.

HOMES FOR RURAL TEACHERS

The National Lumber Manufacturing Association has instituted a scheme which, if successful, will add very much to the comfort and welfare of the rural teachers. The proposition is to build homes for rural teachers in the belief that if teachers are provided with proper homes, the country districts will be able to secure better teachers and avoid the constant changes by which the schools are always in a torn up condition.

The government has been interested in the association's scheme as also has the Rockefeller Foundation which has given $25,000 to foster the work, with more money to come.

The first result of the co-operation between the lumbermen of the country and the government itself, is in the issue of a brochure entitled "Teachers' Cottages," by R. S. Kellogg of Chicago, secretary of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association, in co-operation with the United States Bureau of Education. This brochure is being sent to every county superintendent of schools in America.

Arizona will be one of the first states where the plan to build homes for rural teachers will be carried into effect, and a thorough investigation of the conditions in that state preceded the announcement of the social service plans of the lumber manufacturers.

Mr. Kellogg, author in part of the brochure, urges that the teachers' cottages, or as he calls them, teacherages, should be models of sanitation, artistic, tho inexpensive, and so constructed that they may be not only homes, but real social centers for the rural neighborhoods.

Passenger Pigeon Not Extinct

The passenger pigeon which 50 years ago was the most numerous game bird on the continent, is not extinct as has been supposed. The destruction of these birds for commercial purposes was enormous, yet to some unknown agency must be attributed the sudden disappearance of the enormous flock which made their annual passage from their summer quarters in the far north to their winter home in the south.

Quite recently sportsmen have noticed a few of these birds in the Santa Fe Canyon of New Mexico. The birds are well protected by law and it is hoped that thru such protection and the protection which game protective associations will give them these birds may multiply and again become numerous.

RUSSIANS WINNING LAURELS

At the present time the belligerents of Europe are deadlocked on every line but that east in Europe. Here the Russians are pushing their offensive rapidly and with great success. The last report credits them with 170,000 prisoners in a few weeks. The Austrian province, Bukowina, has been penetrated and its capital, Czerowitz, has been captured. The amount of booty in war munitions and provisions is reported to be very large.

One purpose of the Russian drive is to lighten the pressure on other fronts and the object would seem to be partly accomplished. German forces until quite recently engaged in the Verdun offensive are recognized as a part of the opposition which the Russians are meeting.

In the far east the Turks claim successes but the successes are mainly in preventing the advance of the Russian and English forces operating in Asiatic Turkey.

There has been no considerable activity on the sea since the engagement of the German and English fleets.
