Dr. Tyroler was in Seligman yesterday.

Rev. G. W. Geyer visited Flagstaff the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Salzman returned to the city from California this morning.

Miss Ruth Hayward left this week for Los Angeles where she will attend school the coming winter.

Jas. Perkins will leave tonight for a day's visit with his sister, Mrs. John Flick, now at the cinder pit.

Dan McDonald, who has been down with mountain fever for the past two weeks, was around town yesterday for the first time.

Martin Buggeln has purchased J. W. Thurber's interest in the stage line, trail stock, etc., at the Bright Angel hotel, and is now sole owner. Though the erection of a Harvey House is a question of only a few months, the stage and trail stock will be kept up for the benefit of travelers along the brink of the chasm.

Mrs. M. J. Kennedy and family, who have been spending the week in the city, will return to their home in Flagstaff this evening. On next Wednesday she will leave for a two-weeks' visit with her parents in Newcastle, Ind. M. J. expects to accompany his wife and family as far as Albuquerque, if his business will allow him.

A peculiar accident occurred near the Bright Angel hotel Wednesday. While the graders were at work clearing the right-of-way, a large blast that had been placed under a mammoth stump, shot the stump into the air until it was a mere speck in the sky. It descended into an unoccupied tent near the hotel, completely demolishing it. It then bounded across the street, tearing up another tent. Fortunately, no one was hurt.

PRESIDENT ASSASSINATED

The most horrible tragedy since the assassination of President James A. Garfield occurred yesterday at Buffalo, N. Y., in the assassination of President McKinley by a Polish anarchist or crank.

The assassin fired two shots, both taking effect in the stomach of the President. As soon as the shots were fired the President bowed to a detective and then walked quietly to a chair and sat down with no apparent show of pain.

The assassin fled, but was soon captured. He gives his name as Fred Neiman, 28 years of age and a Pole by descent. He is 5 feet, 9 inches, weighs 160 lbs., hair brown, eyes blue, smooth face, regular features, prominent nose. He claims Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit as his home.

The latest news states that the prospects for the President's recovery are good.

Still Improving It.

The announcement has been recently made that a magnificent six-page colored comic supplement will be added to the Los Angeles Sunday Herald. It is promised that this will be the finest colored supplement ever published by any newspaper in the west. The first one will appear about October 1. The Sunday Herald has been making some pretty rapid strides lately. Its Sunday magazine is far ahead of any Sunday magazine on the coast, and is constantly being improved and presenting new and attractive features.
