

J. B. GIRAND

Mem. Western Soc. Engineers

Civil and Mining EngineerU.S. Deputy Mineral Surveyor*Railroad and Mining Surveys*LOCALS.

Assessor J. B. Jones has been a visitor in Prescott during the week.

Johnny Freeman is manipulating the glasses at the Boyce hotel bar.

Oysters at Phelan's, in cans or bulk.

District Attorney J. E. Jones was a visitor in the city from Flagstaff Tuesday last.

Attention is called to the new ad of the Keystone-Monogram in this issue.

FOR RENT.—Good piano. Inquire at Williams Hardware and Stationery Co.

Mrs. Grosskoph was called to Seligman Wednesday to assist in caring for a sick lady.

C. E. Boyce, proprietor of the Grand Canyon hotel, is spending the week on the coast.

Mrs. Joseph Johnston and daughter, Irene, returned from a visit to Albuquerque and the fair Tuesday.

Mrs. S. A. Pleasants returned home last Monday from a pleasant visit in Flagstaff with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hammond.

Furnished house for rent with good water. Inquire of Mrs. Nalaskowski.

Everyone who visited the fair at Albuquerque this year says it is the best yet. Quite a number went over from Williams.

Ed McCoy came up Tuesday from Maine where he has been employed for some time past. Ed says they are certainly coming good.

Mrs. N. Rogers Stone left for Los Angeles Thursday on the "flyer" for a few weeks' sojourn with friends.

AUGUST TETZLAFFMERCHANT TAILOR

A Full Line of Gent's Furnishings Carried in Stock
Clothes Cleaned and Repaired

New Located in Our New Bldg. Opp. Boyce Hotel

WILLIAMS, ARIZONAOld Harper.

The whiskey that needs no trimmings and leaves no regrets. Pure and fragrant; old and mellow. Sold by The Cabinet, Williams, Arizona.

Amos Adams came in last Sunday from southern California for a short visit at home. Considerable work is being done by the Santa Fe in that section just now, taking most of the boys over there.

Mrs. Wm. Tedford and Mr. Harry Keller, mother and brother respectively of Mrs. E. M. Hardesty, arrived in the city last Sunday from Sedalia, Mo., and expect to make Williams their future home.

Eddie Priest, son of J. Edward Priest of Flagstaff, will be the hello boy at the telephone exchange during Mrs. Raudebaugh's absence. Eddie is a bright boy and will no doubt give perfect satisfaction as the business is not new to him.

When you want something good to eat, call on J. C. Phelan.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parsons, after a residence in the city for the past few months, left last Sunday for Tempe. The change was necessary, as Mr. Parson's health was very poor at this altitude and his friends here hope the sunny climate of southern Arizona will restore his wonted vigor.

Wait! Wait! Wait!

*and don't be DECEIVED by traveling
FAKIRS as we have a SUR-PRISE in store FOR
YOU in the way of*

Ladies' Tailor-made Suits,
Wraps, Cloaks, Skirts, Shirt
Waists and Automobiles

Owing to limited space in our present quarters it is impossible to display the line. We have them in stock and they are bought from first hands and not carried all over the country to be handled by everybody. We will be in our new store by NOVEMBER 1st. So don't be deceived, but WAIT for us. Leave your money at home where it does the most good.

M. SALZMAN.

W. W. Bass, the Grand Canyon promoter, who has done so much to bring that section to the front, was in the city Wednesday and added his name to the rapidly increasing subscription list of the News.

The Wrinkle, the University of Michigan mirth producer, made its first appearance this morning. The issue contains sixteen pages of student wit, devoted mainly to freshmen roasts. The cover is a harmonious affair in two colors drawn by Harold E. Brooks.

Hal, who is at present taking a course at this well-known institution of learning, seems not to have lost his skill with the pen as the above clipping shows.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Kennedy returned from Albuquerque last Sunday and Jim has again assumed his duties as tax collector and city marshal.

Phelan's for vegetables, fruits, groceries and meats.

The new Laub building will be greatly improved in looks when the steel awning, which will extend around the Keystone-Monogram portion, is placed in position. Why not run it all the way?

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Crowe are now living in Williams, Ed being on the short run between here and Winslow. He says he likes the run all the better because he can live in Williams—the only place.

A. H. HARRELL

General Contractor

STONE AND BRICK WORK A SPECIALTY

Estimates Furnished

WILLIAMS, ARIZONA

Geo. L. Plowman, formerly employed by the Saginaw Lumber company as stenographer, came in from the west Tuesday and went out to the Grand Canyon.

Miss Bessie Niedecken, of Flagstaff, visited with Mrs. R. J. Arey the first of the week. The young lady was on the way to assume her duties as teacher at Signal, Arizona.

The Santa Fe railroad system is increasing its consumption of oil at a very substantial rate. Last month it consumed 361 carloads of fuel as against 315 the previous month.—Journal-Miner.

Go to Phelan's and get a 40-pound box of apples for $2.50.

C. H. McClure and Capt. John Hance came in from the Grand Canyon Tuesday and left for Flagstaff where they went to transact important business in connection with the sale of the asbestos mines in the canyon region.

On last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Harry Pyle and Mrs. J. B. Girand entertained a small party at the residence of the former in honor of, and as a "farewell" to Mrs. Earl Parsons. The house was daintily decorated, while the lunch served was delicious. A most enjoyable time was had.

Miss Nichols will give face treatments and beautify your complexion at Dr. Melick's hospital.

Our old friend Johnny Flick came down from the cinder pit Wednesday for a day's visit in the metropolis. He says he expects to leave shortly for Winslow where he will remain this winter—taking a regular run—and hopes to be called shortly for an examination as engineer, being not far from "next out."

WHEN YOU WANT

A delicious MILK SHAKE, LEMONADE or dish of ICE CREAM call on

H. C. SANDERS

A general line of Candies, Cigars,
Fruit, New and Second-hand Goods.
Call and see me at the same old stand.

H. C. SANDERS.