

REPUBLICANS should see that their friends are properly registered.

The Citizen says Head had his wet blanket along with him when he reached Tucson.

DR. JONES don't seem to create any very wonderful impression in the southern part of the Territory.

BLAINE'S trip through Ohio don't seem to indicate that he has been slain quite yet by G. W. Curtis and the Indianapolis Sentinel.

PARTY bolts will not find themselves enjoying much of a following this fall. The indication is that both parties will vote straight tickets to the Territory in November.

The Republicans of the various precincts in the county should see that their precinct tickets are carefully filled out. Good men will add to the strength of an already strong ticket.

If the best men for the place are selected at the coming election, C. C. Bean will be our next Delegate to Congress and R. L. Long the next Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Gazette don't seem very enthusiastic over Head's appearance here. Evidently, as is the case of most of the saloon men, Head failed to "see" the Gazette. It must have had on its working clothes.

FOUR HUNDRED is a considerable sum of money for an aspirant for Congress to throw around loose at a saloon, and yet it is affirmed as a fact that the Head of the Democratic ticket really opened his sack to that extent after he had delivered that remarkable lecture of his.

FAVORED by Mr. Burke the general manager of the New Orleans Exposition, as will be seen from his letter, it is now the intention of our Fair management to collect, so far as possible, all meretricious articles at our Territorial Fair and have them forwarded to the New Orleans Exposition.

Table with 3 columns: Item, Eng. U. S., and U. S. values for various goods like Puddlers, Top and bottom rollers, etc.

It is understood that a movement is on foot among a very few Democrats to run Broadway of the Democratic ticket. Broadway is a good solid man who attends to his own affairs in quiet way, and would, if elected, doubtless attend to the affairs of the staff of office in the same way. He has lots of friends, however, that will stand by him, and the more trouble we see in his way to getting into office is that staunch Republican, Jos. S. Drew, the Republican nominee for sheriff.

When a few cent pieces slides down into C. P. Head's pocket it sings "Farewell wavy world I'm going home," and it might not have existed at all so far as any further good it might do the public is concerned, and in this grasping, selfish spirit C. P. Head will go to Congress, if he goes at all. Can such a man possibly open up his heart to do anything for the people of the Territory? We say no, a thousand times no, unless the interests of the public are to pour coin into the pocket of C. P. Head.

SOME of our contemporaries has given as a reason for not supporting C. C. Bean for Delegate to Congress that he has been an unsuccessful business man. So far as that goes, if we understand the matter, C. C. Bean has been successful in many ways. He has made and lost fortunes in his literary and enterprise, in his great desire to develop the country and to assist his friends, and ought to be to get some of the good things with which Fortune had blessed him. All the time of his opponent, C. P. Head, has been grasping every dollar and carefully stashing upon it for fear that a melody might be in it. Which of these men has done the most for the Territory at largest?

The answer can only be, C. C. Bean. Which of these men has done the most for his own selfish purposes? The answer can only be, C. P. Head.

A LADY friend sent to our office yesterday a very beautiful bouquet of growing cotton in various stages of maturity, from the beautiful white and pink flowers to almost full grown boll, all in a most perfect and thrifty condition, showing that our valley would be the natural home of the cotton plant were it introduced. What little has been experimented upon here and there has surprised the friends of cotton growing by its luxuriance and unusual productiveness. Our thanks are due the lady for the elegant and interesting favor.

C. P. HEAD'S recent visit to Phoenix lost him at least fifty votes that he might have received had he never shown himself. As we have heard numerous gentlemen of his own party remark, "he would make more votes by staying at home." His aristocracy is a stumbling block that he fails to get over as a canvasser, his title of "Colonel" which he never earned, evidently weighs him down with its glory and his knowledge of national finances is so astonishing that he knocks the wind so far out of his hearers that they never recover sufficiently to carry his ballot to the polls.

THE Republicans of Prescott had a rousing rally meeting on Friday evening last, at which Gov. Frittle, Hon. T. J. Butler, Colonel Eggers, C. C. Bean and Hon. E. W. Wells were speakers. The speeches are all spoken of by the local press as of the highest order. Great enthusiasm prevailed and Col. Bean got a heavy send off. Pass him along the line and let old Maricopa give him a lift. We say Maricopa because we know a majority of the Democrats as well as Republicans will stand in when C. C. Bean is the man who wants the vote.

ALIZONA wants a man in Congress that is not altogether selfish; a man who has a heart; a man whose living, acting, moving sentiment is to see the people of the Territory prosper; to see the vast mining, grazing and agricultural interests of the Territory open up to the world the wealth of riches; a man who glories in the prosperity of his neighbor, even though he is not making a cent himself. Such a man is C. C. Bean, and the hearty cheerers of Arizona will not forget him when the 4th of November comes.

C. P. HEAD has never been a friend to any laboring man. He has never been a friend of any farmer. He has never been a friend of any miner. He has never been the friend of any enterprise that attempted to develop the resources of his own country, so long as he thought he could squeeze a ten cent piece by opposing that enterprise. He has never been a main pillar of the most selfish character, grasping all within his power, holding all within his power, crushing out the weaker ones wherever it was within his power; this is the true history of C. P. Head as an Arizona man and yet he has the effrontery to ask for the suffrages of the people he has abused.

THE first shipment of wheat to Liverpool via New Orleans, from California was made on October 1st, according to our dispatches. This is the beginning of a long contemplated scheme and one which promises important results to California, and we cannot see why it should not be important to all the southern farm country through which the railroad line runs. The first shipment consists of 10,000 tons, and the company can handle all the wheat in California at the same rates they get for this shipment. It occurs to us that our valley might be able to make such arrangements with the railroad company as to have the advantage of this arrangement when it shall be necessary to do so in order to dispose of our crops.

THE Gazette deliberately falsifies the facts to excite a little prejudice against J. J. Winger, of Tempe, who is the Republican candidate for Probate Judge. Mr. Winger is not a minister at present. He was, once, and it is not to his discredit that such was the case. Since that time Mr. Winger has a noble and practical law, as we are informed. Moreover, Mr. Winger is a man who can and does rise above party prejudice, as the Mormon element of Tempe and Mesa will inform you.

When a paper can bring no other charge against a man than that he is a moral man, it begins to appear in the slums of a driving weakness and proclaims itself the merest demagogue.

We are not inclined to unearth the character of the man whom the authorized sheet would hold up and recommend as opposed to Mr. Winger. We have some regard for the family and friends of that man; but when his mouthpiece challenges an investigation and the public welfare demands it, we are prepared to make it, and go to the bottom of the business, too.

Who purchased sheet begins to write about "policy" and tackles the load it has, it can only blame itself if the rocks rattle down upon its head.

TELEGRAPHIC.

CLIFTON CLATTER. CLIFTON, Oct. 3.—Thomas Harrison, a miner working in the Colorado mine, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon. He lighted a snuff in the tunnel in which he was at work, and retreated to a safe distance, keeping his eyes on the snuff. Supposing it had gone out, he returned to the drill hole when the blast went off, filling his eyes and face full of gravel, and throwing him with much violence against one of the walls. He was brought here this morning and placed in the hospital.

The nominations of the People's party are coldly received here, and are not freely offered against the white ticket.

An average of four carloads of black copper are shipped from Clifton daily.

CLEVELAND'S TRIUMPHAL JOURNEY.

BUFFALO, Oct. 3.—The train bearing Governor Cleveland and party left Utica nearly ten minutes ahead of time. The speed nearly averaged fifty miles an hour, and several miles were made at the rate of fifty-five or sixty miles. The greeting of the assembled crowd at Utica was particularly cordial and though Cleveland made his appearance cool and bowed, he made no remarks. He was in excellent health and spirits and chatted amicably with his friends as the train sped through the fertile valley of the beautiful Mohawk. The train was due in Syracuse at 4:30 p. m., but pulled into the city fully fifteen minutes ahead of time. An immense concourse of people were at the depot. Men, women and children jostled each other in their attempt to get a sight of Governor Cleveland. Hundreds of school boys, books and slates in hand, ran for blocks up the track in the wake of the train. At the Syracuse iron works as the train passed at slow speed through the city limits, the workmen came out and waved an enthusiastic greeting. The depot and vicinity were packed, as were the streets leading to it. In answer to repeated calls, Governor Cleveland stepped on the rear platform, when cheer after cheer greeted him. The Governor lifted his hat and bowed his acknowledgments. The enthusiasm continued unabated while the train remained in the depot.

A VESSEL CAPTURED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—The Treasury department is informed that Lieut. Lutz, of the revenue department, has seized the German schooner "Adel" while the crew were killing seals on St. Paul islands, near Alaska, and brought the vessel and a portion of her crew to San Francisco. Lieut. Lutz has been instructed to turn the vessel over to the United States marshal at San Francisco, and consult with the United States district attorney as to future proceedings.

A HORRIBLE STORY.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—A hideous crime was committed here last night, which is almost unparalleled in its atrocity. Michael Shay, living in a miserable hotel at 49, Clark street, went home during the night in a drunken state and found his wife in bed with the body of a dead infant to which she had given birth during the night. He beat his wife in death. When arrested, Shay was in such a sad condition that a mutilating intelligence could be obtained from him.

ENTRUSTED.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—Mr. Blaine had left late this morning, but long before he was accessible the local ladies and gentlemen were crowded with people at the depot to bid him adieu. At General Logan as soon as Mr. Blaine's name was called, the ladies began to cheer and to wave their hands. A large number of ladies had great difficulty in receiving old-time friends. Many independent Republicans were among the callers. A large number of ladies were present to bid him. The city is still thronged with visitors. The Governor leaves tomorrow for Albany on the 11:30 train. A reception will be held in the parlors of the Geneva House this afternoon.

tion will be held in the parlors of the Geneva House this afternoon.

COL. WATER CONGRATULATIONS.

LONDON, Oct. 3.—A committee of the United Kingdom Alliance Transference organization has adopted a resolution of congratulation to Neal Dow and the State of Maine upon having at the recent election secured such a majority for the measure incorporating into the State constitution a prohibition amendment. They say that by reason of this vote the anticipated great results to the rest of the world.

AP OR NAVY.

APPEAL TO THE S. U. R.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The address of the Republican national committee to the south, dated at Nashville, has been issued. It declares that the Republican national committee opens its headquarters at Nashville, the central city of the south, on October first, and appeals to the intelligence, enterprise, honor and ambitions American instincts and inspirations of the southern people to support the Republican candidates. It concludes by saying the Republican party under the leadership of Blaine is ready to make the south the most attractive region for capital in the country, and make the Mexicans and other people south of our friends and customers and to make capital and labor secure in the south by protect a suffrage.

MARKING BLAINE TO CONVICT HIMSELF.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 4.—In the U. S. court in the Blaine-Sentinel libel suit, the attorneys for the Sentinel filed an amended bill of discovery with twelve additional interrogatories. The bill begins by stating that Blaine pretends to have been secretly married to Harriet Stanswood at Mt. Vernon, Ky., on June 30, 1850, which claim is wholly denied by defendants. The bill further alleges that Blaine was lawfully married for the first and only time to Harriet Stanswood in Pittsburgh, on the 21st of March, 1851, and that said marriage was not one of love and affection on the part of Blaine, but was charged in the amended bill. It then states that full information concerning these matters is in the possession of Blaine, and the discovery of such evidence is necessary to enable defendants to make good the issues upon their part, and the prayer of the bill is that Blaine be ordered to answer positively on his oath and without evasion, the interrogatories in the amended bill. The defendants ask that if these interrogatories are not answered fully and truly that further proceedings in this case be perpetually restrained.

TERRIBLE BURLINCA.

LONDON, Oct. 4.—Intelligence has just been received of a terribly disastrous burlesque in Iceland on the 11th of September. Accounts thus far received show nineteen trading vessels and sixty fishing boats lost, and 32 vessels disabled. The most appalling feature of the hurricane was the loss of life. The exact number of those who perished is not yet ascertained, but it is known to be very large.

ALBEE SARKIS MEXICAN MAN.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 4.—With Lee How, a Chinese laundryman, recently married a white woman and shortly afterwards applied for citizenship papers, having taken official oaths a year ago. The question was asked whether under the act of Congress of 1882, he could become naturalized, and the case was considered. Public Judge Tilden, today heard the arguments and issued citizen papers to Wah Lee How, who exhibited official delight when made to understand that he was "white man."

BLAINE AND LOGAN IN SOCIETY.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 3.—During the whole day the numbers of Blaine and Logan kept the Burnett House and its neighborhood as noisy and crowded as a convention hall. Upon Blaine's return from a drive he had the usual difficulty in getting to his room and when he did get there he was not allowed to remain, for the people outside were provided with a brass band and kept up a constant stream of martial music and cheer. Blaine and Logan were forced to show themselves on the hotel balcony. They bowed and spoke a few words of thanks and then retired amid the acclamations of the crowd. Later, when Logan left the hotel to visit the exposition he was again uproariously cheered.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE JOHN TIERRE HAUTE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A dispatch from Sullivan says: "Some villain fired into a car in which Gov. S. John sat on his way from Carlisle to Terre Haute last night. The ball passed through the window on the opposite side, making a clean hole and lodging in the side on which Mr. John sat, a little in front of him. The train was just slowing up north of Sullivan when the shot was fired. The Governor took the matter very coolly."

COLLAPSED.

NO JERSEY NEEDED.

Glyck of Kansas, has issued a proclamation prohibiting the introduction of cattle from Kansas into the States of Kentucky, Iowa, Nebraska, and Missouri, until after they undergo a quarantine of sixty days at the point of introduction, and released under a clean bill of health from a veterinary. He also prohibits the introduction of Jersey cattle from any State in the Union.

A WEDDING DAY FOR CLEVELAND.

BUFFALO, Oct. 3.—It has rained steadily since yesterday with no indications of a cessation. Should it clear off, however, there will be witnessed one of the grandest parades ever held in the city. The Democratic forces have been hard at work, and subscriptions have been more than usually liberal. Banners and transparencies without number have been prepared for a royal reception of the Governor. A column of six large divisions will be formed, with bands and drum corps as follows: First division will consist of a ward phalanx of about a thousand men from the Governor's home ward, to be followed by the National Veteran Association of eighty men and the Democratic legion of eight hundred; these will be followed by the Governor and the reception committee in carriages. Several gun squads will be stationed at different parts of the city along the route and as the grand procession passes will salute at intervals. Visitors clubs will be provided with refreshments and accommodations in several large halls, as guests of the different Cleveland clubs of the city. Many business houses along the route will be decorated and illuminated. A large number of the principal business men will meet the Governor and friends at Bellevue, and will march here at 8:30. The Governor will review the procession from the balcony of the Geneva House, where he will remain overnight. It is not positively arranged who will speak tonight except the Governor, and the manager states that he will probably make but a short address.

OVATIONS TO BLAINE.

XENIA, Oct. 4.—Mr. Blaine and party left Cincinnati this morning on a special train on the Little Miami road. The crowd at the depot and the workmen in the shops at the track cheered Mr. Blaine as the train moved out. The first stop was at a station where there was a grand social meeting. Mr. Blaine was warmly received and spoke a few words of thanks. At Morrow, in Warren county, where there was a fine demonstration, the party left the train and Mr. Blaine's carriage was escorted by a local committee of 1500 Knights to a pleasure spot outside the town, where several thousand people were assembled. Mr. Blaine was received with cheering. He thanked the people for their kind reception and reminded them that Thomas Cowan, one of the great champions of the protective system, had represented Warren county in Congress, and expressed the hope that the earnestness and ardor of the people in objection to that question would be great in 1884 as it was in 1860. The pleasure of the reception at this point was marred by a sad accident. A cannon with which the salute was fired, exploded prematurely, killing one man and seriously injuring another.
