No one need feel alarmed regarding the standing of the county's credit. Martin Costello who is a shrewd financier offers 95 cents on the dollar for last year's general fund warrants with accrued interest if offered in large lots.

The report copied some time ago from the Tombstone Prospector, to the effect that Erba Robeson, the well known in Arizona, was dead is reported as a mistake by a friend of Miss Robeson, who has just received a letter from her. She is not, however, Miss Robeson, her name having been changed to Mrs. E. J. Carpenter.—Republican.

The Prospector's information was gleaned from a Tombstone man who had just returned from Washington State and said that he saw the funeral procession. There are many Arizonans who look upon marriage as a death blow and perhaps that is what our informant meant.

By virtue of an execution issued out of Justice Nat. Swack's court of No. one precinct, county of Cochise, Territory of Arizona, dated the 27th day of December, 1890, in a certain action wherein Ott. Gosenhofer as plaintiff recovered judgment against Joseph Russell for the sum of one hundred and ninety dollars ($190) and costs amounting to the sum of twenty one and 55/100 dollars ($21.55) on the 27th day of December, 1890.

I have levied upon the following described property to wit:
The "Morning Star" "The Stars and Stripes" and the "Virginia" Mining claims being situate in the Werron mining district Cochise county, Territory of Arizona.
Notice is hereby given that on Tuesday the 20th day of Jan. 1891, at 11 o'clock a. m. of that day in front of the Court House in the City of Tombstone county of Cochise, Arizona, I will sell all the right title and interest of the said Joseph Russell, in and to the above described property at public auction for cash in hand to the highest and best bidder to satisfy said execution and all costs.
Dated at Tombstone the 31st day of December 1890.

Constable

The Treasurer Must Pay Out no Money on Old Warrants.

County Treasurer McAllister posted a notice in front of the Court House last Wednesday which shook the incoming administration from the foundation up. He announced that he was ready to pay out-standing general fund warrants issued during 1890, since March 1st. It did not take long for Allen English to get to Benson and take the next train for Tucson where he hunted up Judge Sloan and returned last night with a restraining order in his pocket, which was duly acted upon by the clerk of the district clerk's office this morning, who filed out the necessary papers which were served by Sheriff Kelton as his first official act. The complaint as written by Mr. English recites that all of the warrants issued since March last were in violation of the Harrison act, which allows only evidences of indebtedness to a four per cent limit on the taxable property in the county; that the "Wolfley" funding act provided for the funding of the outstanding indebtedness of the counties by the issuance of bonds and if the money now on hand which it was proposed to pay out for these warrants—some $26,000 were paid their would be no money with which to run the county during the ensuing year, as the "Wolfley" act prohibited the issuance of evidences of indebtedness after Jan. 1st, 1891, after which time county affairs must be run on a cash basis. Judge Sloan issued the order and at the next term of court arguments will be heard upon the point of making the injunction permanent.

There are outstanding warrants against the general fund of $36,056.49. All of these warrants bear ten per cent interest per annum, but it is possible nothing will be done for the relief of the holders of them until the legislature meets when a funding act can be passed which will cover these warrants.

Who rules in this town?
Depends on the question up.
The lamp-chimney question—what sort do you break?
Whatever sort your dealer deals in.

How, do you think, he selects his chimneys?
He buys those that cost him least; he can get the regular price for them; and the faster they break the more he sells. That's how he reasons.

Tell him you want Macbeth's "pearl top" or "pearl glass," tough glass, transparent, clear, not foggy, fire, of right shape and uniform. Tell him you'll pay him a nickel more a piece, and that will cover his extra costs twice over. Tell him you don't propose to break any more. Try your hand at ruling.

How to help your digestion.

Almost every day we feel the unpleasant sensations of indigestion. Try Allcock's Porous Plasters and be relieved. J. F. Davenport, of Cassville, New York, writes:
"I have been very much troubled with a violent pain below the chest bone. I was told by several physicians that it was rheumatism of the diaphragm. It resulted from cold and exposure. I had very little appetite and digested my food with great difficulty. I placed one Allcock's Porous Plaster below the breast bone and two on each side. In the course of twenty-four hours all pain ceased, and I was able to eat and digest a good square meal, something I had not done before in two weeks. I got better constantly, and the end of seven days found myself entirely well. Since then I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for colds, coughs and pains in my side, and I have always found them quick and effective."

A Peculiar Order.

The Mexican government has concluded, since the result of the last election became known, that the McKinley bill is a bad measure and that all of its provisions are equally bad. It has therefore concluded that any legislation directly opposed to its provisions must necessarily be good for their country. They have made the first step by prohibiting the importation of any raw material into the country without paying duty. Which is a direct flop from the position her government has taken heretofore. The Lower Californian published at Ensinada, Lower California, has the following to say regarding its probable effect upon the manufacturing industries there: "The matter of the Mexican Government issuing an order to the custom officials here by which all manufacturers who hold concessions are prohibited from importing raw material used in the manufacture of their goods, is of absorbing interest to the people of Lower California and particularly to those to whom it directly applies. Although we are loath to believe that the Government has any other than a solicitous regard for the industries in this colony, which under inducements held out by the Government itself have been established here with the privilege as expressed in their concessions of importing raw materials necessary for the manufacture of the various products, it is most difficult to find a reason for this sudden movement on the part of the Government by which all such importations have been stopped. The fact of the matter seems to be that the Government authorities do not understand the situation here and have but a faint idea of the magnitude and importance of some of our industries. The least that could be done in justice by the Government would be to reconsider the matter."

The Republican of yesterday says:—It is understood that a deal has been accomplished whereby the Gazette changes hands to-morrow. Messrs. Johnstone and Dunbar step out, with the sale of their interests, and Thomas Farish, as Editor, and J. L. B. Alexander, as business manager, take charge of the sheet. As will be seen by the names, the politics will remain the same. Mr. Farish has had much experience in journalistic work and Mr. Alexander is a rustler of the first class, so the team may be considered a strong one.

Preliminary plans for the Government building at the World's fair were received from Washington to-day. They provide a building 650 feet wide and 450 feet high. It is subject to change when the board on January 10.

The business throughout the United States for the year of 1890 as reported by the U. S. Census Bureau is 10,907 in number 115 greater than 1889. The increase over 1889, being $189,000,000 as against $148,000,000 an increase of $41,000,000. These are the largest liabilities since 1873, when they amounted to $226,000,000.

In the New Mexico legislative assembly today the democratic majority in the house by simple resolution and without taking any evidence whatever, unseated J. B. Mayo and B. M. Read, republican members from Santa Fe county, and admitted C. T. Easley and T. P. Gable who were candidates on the democrat ticket. This action gives the democrats a majority of two on joint ballot.

The Times-Democrat, San Antonio, Texas special says: Brigadier General Stanley, who spent eight years among the Sioux, thinks a war will follow the fight at Wounded Knee, as it only required bloodshed to arouse the Indians. He was in the City of Mexico when Sitting Bull was killed and returned immediately, as he believed trouble would ensue. Speaking of the Indians he said that if once they smelt blood they could not be restrained. An Indian will enlist as a scout to fight other Indians and be ready when his term expires to fight the scout. As soon as the troops begin to disarm the hostiles, he added, they will fight. It is worse than death to an Indian to take away his arms or put him in the guard house. For this reason he does not believe that the fight began by Big Foot's band was premeditated, but relieving them of their arms was too much for their pride. The Fifth infantry of this department which has been held in readiness for a month to go to the front will probably be ordered to move at once.
