Miss Sherman says our Woman's Suffrage Plank—
 "Is all wool and a yard wide. And clinched on the under side."

L. J. Brown, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, did the honors for Nutrioso precinct in the Convention last Tuesday.

H. L. Marble, of Concho, was in attendance at the Convention last Tuesday as one of the two delegates representing that precinct.

Sheriff Scott returned from the Holbrook conventions last Saturday, he succeeded in getting one of the plums and is expecting to handle the funds of Navajo County during the next term.

The society of St. Johns will suffer a severe loss when Lady Linda Scott leaves us. Her pleasant face and congenial spirit always made a visit to the house of Sheriff Scott a delightful remembrance. Wherever her lot may be cast our best wishes attend her.

The attention of all parents in St. Johns is called to the fact that the St. Johns School will open next Monday, and the St. Johns Drug Company has on hand a brand new supply of school books, etc. "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Seven years ago I was taken with a severe attack of flux. I was sick in bed about ten days and could get nothing to relieve me until I used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which cured me and has been a household remedy with us every since. J. C. MARLOW, Decaturville, Mo. For sale by St. Johns Drug Co.,

Mr. Isaac Barth was honored at the Democratic Territorial Convention by being chosen as a member of the Democratic Territorial Executive Committee. Mr. Barth is a wide-awake young politician and the wisdom of his selection will be proven by the earnest work he is sure to do for the party.

Another car load of the celebrated Bain Wagons just received by the St. Johns C. M. & M. I. These wagons are made by the Bain people, on a special pattern, all timber selected and thoroughly seasoned to stand this exceedingly dry climate, and are worth double the value of any ordinary Bain or other make of wagon brought into this country.

St. George Creaghe, our esteemed friend, of Springerville, came into town last Monday to lend his valuable aid in arranging the democratic programme for the campaign of 1896. George is about the tallest piece of timber that the Democrats have got for Sheriff.

Sheriff Scott has handed in his resignation to the Board of Supervisors to take effect immediately. He has been a careful and efficient officer, and Apache County regrets to lose him.

The nomination of Mr. Scott for Treasurer of Navajo County has made the above step necessary.

FOR SALE.—I wish to sell my property in St. Johns, consisting of two houses and lots. I will sell cheap for cash. LUIS CHAVEZ.

His Horse Fell.
 SAFFORD, ARIZONA, Sept. 18th, 1896.—Last Tuesday afternoon as the trial of Pratt Stuart was going on quite a crowd had collected near Jacobson's store and Porter Rollins undertook to make his horse go through a course of gymnastic exercises and the result was that his horse fell, and Porter struck with his back on the end of a railroad tie.

At first it was not thought he was hurt at all but in few minutes he commenced fainting and continued to do so for some time, and he died of his injuries at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The funeral services were held on Thursday.

Porter had been at St. Johns for more than a year past working in the St. Johns HERALD office and had been home only a few days when he met his death.—Guardian.

The above account of the untimely death of Porter Rollins is copied from the GRAHAM GUARDIAN, we mourn with his family friends the loss of a generous hearted young friend and a faithful employee.—EDITOR.

Death of Brigham Nagle.
 It is with sorrow that we announce the death of Brigham Nagle, of Concho, who expired last Sunday afternoon after a short but violent attack of typhoid fever. Mr. Nagle was one of our most promising, rising young men, and a legion of friends extend their sympathies to his mother in this great affliction.

Dr. Platt informs us that the present water system of Concho is a menace to the health of the citizens. Some steps should be taken for its immediate improvement, as a sanitary measure, or we will hear of more untimely deaths.

District Court.
 Alfred Ruiz, Clerk of the Court, has received an order for the regular term of the District Court to be held October 7th. The jury was drawn last Monday and the Sheriff commenced at once the work of serving summonses and getting ready for Court. There are quite a number of criminal cases and several investigations for the Grand Jury.

Value Recognized by Physicians.
 As a rule I am opposed to proprietary medicines. Still I value a good one, especially when such is the source of relief from pain. As a topical (external) application I have found Chamberlain's Pain Balm the best remedy I have ever used for neuralgia of any kind. I have conscientiously recommended it to many persons. WILLIAM HORNE, M. D., Janesville, Wis. Sold by St. Johns Drug Company.

Disastrous Fire
 Shortly before 8 o'clock on Saturday evening last, smoke was seen issuing from the stable in the rear of the old Monarch Saloon, the property of Severo Vigil. An alarm of fire was given and the citizens immediately turned out and went to work with will, tearing down adjoining fences, getting out bugles and harness, and wetting down the roofs of the houses where there was any danger. They thus succeeded in keeping the fire confined to the stable, which was totally destroyed, burning to death three horses, which were unfortunately tied in the end of the stable where the fire started, and destroying about eight tons of hay and half a ton of grain. The horses were owned by Dionicio Duran and Tomas Ortega, and the hay and grain by J. R. Armiijo. The total loss will amount to about $600 and was uninsured.

A heavy rain had fallen during the afternoon which wet everything in the vicinity and was a great help towards keeping the fire from spreading and saved St. Johns from a destruction of property which is fearful to contemplate.

In a recent letter to the manufacturers Mr. W. F. Benjamin, editor of the Spectator, Rushford, N. Y., says: "It may be a pleasure to you to know the high esteem in which Chamberlain's medicines are held by the people of your own state, where they must be best known. An aunt of mine, who resides at Dexter, Iowa, was about to visit me a few years since, and before leaving home wrote me, asking if they were sold here, stating if they were not she would bring a quantity with her, as she did not like to be without them." The medicines referred to are Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds and croup; Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, lame back, pains in the side and chest, and Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy for bowel complaint. These medicines have been in constant use in Iowa for almost a quarter of a century. The people have learned that they are articles of great worth and merit, and unequalled by any other. They are for sale here by St. Johns Drug Co.,

Phillipe Gonzales Drops Dead.
 A few minutes before noon on Tuesday last, Phillipe Gonzales died very suddenly at his house on Water Street.

Dr. Craig summoned a coroner's jury who, after examining the body, reported death to have been caused by heart disease.

The deceased was about 32 years of age, he had been complaining of pains in his side for several days, but not thinking it anything serious had made arrangements to go out to the shearing camp on Tuesday afternoon.

From all accounts Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a Godsend to the afflicted. There is no advertisement about it; we feel just like saying it.—THE DEMOCRAT, Carrollton Ky. For sale by St. Johns Drug Co.,

Good Bye.
 On the frontier wilds,
 On a desert high,
 We hailed as we met,
 There we said
 Good Bye.

But a touch of the hand;
 But a glance of the eye;
 We were strangers before
 But now—
 Good Bye.

Is it aught? Ah yes.
 For if you and I
 Meet again, 'tis because
 We have said
 Good Bye.
 —MARY L. SHERMAN.

The Woman Suffragists.
 A reception was given at Armory Hall last Tuesday evening by the ladies of St. Johns, to the delegates of the Democratic Convention, and others in sympathy with the cause of woman suffrage. Mrs. Linda Scott presided and being assisted by Mrs. W. A. Tenney, Mrs. J. B. Patterson, Mrs. John Patten, Mrs. Ritchey and Misses Mand, Stella and Lottie Sherwood, and Mary L. Sherman. An interesting programme was successfully carried out.

The remarks of Miss Mary L. Sherman were listened to with careful attention and heartily applauded. The common sense view of the issue at hand was explained in a way which made those who were wavering decide in favor of the justice of woman's claim to the privilege of the ballot.

Major Platt assisted in making the reception a success by a few appropriate remarks. At the close of the exercises a dance was given under the management of Mr. W. A. Tenney. The young folks joining in the merry making, a most delightful evening was spent. The guests were unanimous in their praise of the manner in which they were entertained.

District Court was convened at this place on Monday, Sept. 14, by Judge John J. Hawkins, but owing to the Judge being in poor health but little was accomplished and on Thursday morning Mr. Hawkins decided to adjourn court for this county until Oct. 19, at which time he hopes to be able to clean up the docket.—Holbrook Argus.

Came in Handy.
 The following little campaign story illustrates how the clever wife of a farmer utilized two candidates:
 "If it is not too early I would like to tell you a campaign story," remarked the chief of one of the bureaus of a downtown department.

"One of the actors in it was very frequently spoken of as a possible candidate before the Chicago Convention, though he was by no means the most prominent, and the other, by a peculiar combination of events, has been spoken of in connection with the nomination as Governor of his State.

"The scene was in a Western State, though neither of the gentlemen resides in that State now.
 "Both were candidates for a small county office, and both men, as they are now, were hustlers for anything they were after.

"They were making a house-to-house canvass, which was necessary at that time, owing to the sparse population, and while they endeavored to work in different sections they frequently found themselves in the same neighborhood at the same time.

"The occurrence to which I refer to was at a farm about a mile distant from the village where both candidates were to speak the following day. The candidates kept their eyes pretty well on each other during the early part of the day, but during the afternoon they started out to do missionary work at the farmhouses. By a singular circumstance they landed at the same farm, though one did not know the other was there until later on.

"The man first referred to, finding that the owner of the farm was absent, devoted himself to the wife, and, of course, said all kinds of nice things to her, making special inquiry after the children, whether they had caught the measles, which prevailed at the time, etc. The lady seemed charmed with the attention shown her, but said she would have to be excused, as she had to milk the cow. The candidate kindly offered to assist in that performance saying that though he could not milk he could keep the flies off the cow, or at least hold her tail.

"While engaged holding the cow's tail he ventured to ask if his competitor for the office had been around yet. 'Oh, yes,' answered the wife, 'he is here now. He is in the back barn and is holding the calf, for this cow will not give down her milk if the calf is in sight.'—Republic.
