Concho Cullings.

Willard, the five year old son of Joseph Kempe, is very ill with typhoid fever.

We had a fine shower Monday and a quite a rain all night which lasted until the next day.

Mrs. Emily Marble is suffering from heart trouble and has been in a low condition for over a week.

Hyrum Cheney, of Pinedale, came over for Elam Cheney to go to Snowflake to transact some U. S. business with an attorney from Washington, D. C.

Last wednesday evening an interesting meeting was held. Apostle Rudger Clawson, Elder Joseph W. McMurrin, Miss Agnes Campbell and Pres. D. K. Udall were the speakers.

Bp. E. G. Cheney and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pulsipher, Misses Julia Riggs, Lou Pulsipher, Pearl Cheney and C. H. Riggs attended Stake conference at St. Johns last week.

Jacob Pulsipher and family, of Thatcher, Arizona, and Alpheus Gillspie and wife, of Clifton, Arizona, arrived in town Monday evening. They will remain a day or so visiting relatives and will then return taking with them Mrs. Olena Kempe and her daughter, Charlotte, and Miss Pearl Udall. The two latter will teach school at Pima, Arizona, this winter.
