

SNIPS & ST. JOHNS HERALD

SNIPS & HERALD,
Vol. 3, No. 1.

ST. JOHNS, ARIZ., DEC. 31, 1904.

SNIPS, Vol. 4, No. 17
HERALD, Vol. 21 No. 15

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NEWS

"I know not what the truth may be,
I tell to you as 'twas told to me."

Who says the weather has not been cold this week?

Benigno Lopez came over Thursday to attend the meeting of the board.

Attorney Ruiz and family and Father Derichemont left Friday morning for Concho.

A. H. Pratt was down from his ranch in the mountains to spend Christmas with Captain Hogue.

Prime Coleman came down from the mountains Sunday and is spending a few days in town.

A rabbit drive is going on today (Friday). The side that kills the least number of rabbits will have to give a dance.

The wedding of Mr. Manuel Ruiz, of this city, and Miss Beneranda Martinez, of Concho, will take place on the 4th of January at Concho.

Joseph Patterson, who has been attending the Normal school, left last night for his home in St. Johns to spend the holidays.—Flagstaff Gem.

The last issue of the Apache News has appeared. Brother Ling will move the plant in the SNIPS & HERALD office after the first of the year.

W. W. Berry, a substantial citizen of St. Johns, passed through Safford, Sunday, on his way to Tombstone where he has been summoned as a witness.—Safford Guardian.

Nathan Barth killed a large bear and mountain lion while on his trip from Albuquerque. Mr. states that bears and lions do a great deal of damage to the sheep industry of New Mexico.

A shooting match was pulled off here Monday between the married men and the single boys. The married men turned out to be the best shots, and the single boys had to give a dance that evening.

The following teachers left here Tuesday to attend the teachers' convention, which convened at Flagstaff Thursday: Luella and Pauline Udall, Louie Freeman, Ethel Farr, F. A. Hinckley and Horance N. Fish.

COFFEE

Good for the grocer; good for his customers.

Good for his customers; good for the grocer.

He returns your money if you don't like Schilling's Best.

A marriage license was issued in Phoenix recently to Charles Wallace Riggs and Annie Terry Greer, both of Mesa. The contracting parties are well known in Apache County, having been residents of Concho for a number of years.

Supervisor Truax came over from Adamana Wednesday to attend the meeting of the board. Mr. Truax, who is the present manager of the Wabash Cattle Company in Arizona, will turn everything over on the 1st of January to the new company.

A good deal of damage was done around town Christmas eve by some one, who thought they were playing great jokes. Among the numerous things destroyed was the United States Weather Bureau thermometers. This is carrying things a little too far.

Atty. Isaac Barth left Monday for Richmond, Indiana, where he will wed Miss Chessie A. Dennis, of that city, on January 9th. Before returning to Arizona they will visit some of the principal cities of the east, and expect to arrive here about January 20th.

The Board of Supervisors met Thursday to wind up the business of the year. This will be the last meeting of the present board, as the newly elected board will convene next Monday and take charge of the county's affairs. The new board will consist of Isaac Isaacson, the hold-over