

Metal Quotations.

Following are the market quotations on metals for today. Copper (E. Cathode) lb16.50 Lead, per 100 lbs. 4.60-4.70 Silver, per oz., 61 1/2 cts. New York City, Exchange 1.02 Pesos. Bullion value 47 Mex. Dol. (local) 49 1/2 American Dollars 2.02 Mexico City Exchange 2.02

NOGALES NOTES.

L. T. Bristol, Dentist, Marsh Bldg. Mrs. Frank A. Athearn is dangerously ill. Mrs. Mark Lulley, piano and singing. Mr. Walter Fortune is a visitor at the county seat. Tuesday Doctor J. R. Magruder was up from Hermosillo on business. Score cards for the new game of Five Hundred for sale by the Sonora News company. Inspector George P. Jones, after a few days of illness, was able to be out Thursday. Mr. Wm. T. Powers of Patagonia is in town in attendance on court as a trial juror. Miss Grebe, who taught in the Nogales school last year, is now teaching in Cananea. FOR SALE—Two thoroughbred pedigreed Angora goats. Inquire at THE OASIS office. Captain W. A. Carpenter, of the line inspectors, has returned from a three weeks' outing. FOR SALE—Second hand buggy, in good condition. Cheap. Apply at THE OASIS. Mrs. Bursich and daughter, Miss Martha, were visitors in the city Thursday from Parkers canyon. Wednesday Mr. Earl Griswold, special deputy collector of customs, made a business visit at Tucson. "The American Gentleman" the finest and handsomest shoe for gentlemen's wear, at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez. Mrs. Margeret Igo, from the Huachuca country, was a visitor at Nogales this week, having legal business to transact. Messrs H. S. Eberle and C. W. Eberle left yesterday for the Promontorio mine, where they will remain about a week.

A MATTER OF HEALTH

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure HAS NO SUBSTITUTE A Cream of Tartar Powder free from alum or phosphatic acid

Mr. Fernando Saldamando returned Wednesday from a two week's trip down in Sonora in the interest of the Boston Stores.

Gents' and boys' clothing and underwear, stylish, cheap and durable at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez.

Tuesday Mr. J. E. Wise of Calabasas, started a drive of 500 head of cattle to Tucson, whence they will be shipped to California.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Luis Proto returned from California, where they had been several weeks leaving their sons there in school.

Mr. Ben Goodrich, of Tombstone, the leader of the Cochise county bar, has been at Nogales this week engaged in cases before the courts.

Alfalfa and barley hay for sale, in quantities to suit, delivered on board the cars at Calabasas. Address W. H. Walker, Calabasas, Arizona.

Mr. Harry B. Riggs, superintendent of the Sanford ranche in the Sonoita cañon region, has been serving on the grand jury this week.

Once tried; always used. Barnes' rye, cream, French, whole wheat, graham and home made breads. The wagon will call at your house.

Messrs Owen Walker of Calabasas and Jesse Marleau of Nogales have gone to California with a trainload of cattle shipped by J. E. Wise.

Yesterday Mr. E. E. Bethel, the Washington and Patagonia merchant, returned to Washington Camp, going over in a "choo-choo wagon."

All trains on the Sonora Railway stop for dinner at the Depot Hotel at Carbo. Table supplied constantly with the best in the market. Joaquin Barcelo, proprietor.

Tuesday night the store of Scoville & Beck, near the post office was burglarized, the thieves carrying away a lot of canned goods, and a shot gun. Charley Beck says that had he dreamed what was to happen he would not have cleaned the gun last week.

Mr. Tom Parker, the prize bronco buster of the San Rafael ranch, was a visitor in town during the week, attending the district court.

Mr. Will Igo, who is now clerking in the Copper Queen store at Douglas, has been at Nogales this week, a witness in a case in the district court.

Mr. Richard Farrel, of Harshaw, former chairman of the board of supervisors of Santa Cruz county, was a visitor at the county seat Thursday.

THE OASIS is in receipt of a supply of joint-statehood buttons, and has been passing them out. Quite a number are in evidence, proudly worn upon the coat lapels of well known citizens.

Forgood, substantial service wear Hamilton, Brown & Co.'s "Patrol Shoe," sold at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez.

Yesterday Mr. L. C. Friend of the Sonorensis Prospecting & Developing Company, went to Hermosillo, whence he will go to the Yaqui river on business for the company.

"The American Lady," the most elegant and stylish shoe made Sold only at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez.

Mr. C. W. Smith, a locomotive engineer on the Sonora railway, has stepped down from the foot-board this week to serve Santa Cruz county as a grand juror.

Deputy Sheriff Frank M. Parker, who guards the peace of Mowry and Salero, came into town to attend court this week and was given the post of honor as bailiff of the grand jury.

Tuesday evening Sergeant Olds of the rangers went westward, hoping to head off a couple of men who were reported to have killed two other men at Silver Bell and were running for Mexico.

Tuesday evening Mr. J. D. Sdyder, of Los Angeles, who has been out in the Milpais region, west from Carbo, where he has valuable mining interests, returned to Nogales and has been here since that time.

Two days were occupied by the county board of supervisors, Monday and Tuesday, in auditing demands and examining the monthly reports of county officers this week. Nothing else of importance came before the supervisors during the session.

Thursday Sheriff Fowler was called up on the telephone by Tucson officers and asked to be on the lookout for a Mexican desperado who held up a saloon at Tucson early that morning. Two Mexicans participated in the holdup and one was captured. The second was supposed to have headed this way.

A gentleman who is visiting in Nogales has complained to THE OASIS at the way in which men who are old enough to know better will crowd themselves in front of the line at the post office window when they should go the end of the line and await their turn. He says that the practice is unsupportable. The officials inside cannot see what is going on outside or it would not be allowed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bane de Saint Leu and the lady's sister, Miss Marie Gorosavi, left Wednesday morning for Santa Rosalia, Lower California. They came here six weeks ago and while the gentleman attended to business matters in Tucson the ladies were guests of friends in Nogales, Sonora. Mr. Saint Leu is a commission merchant of Santa Rosalia, where he resides. Miss Gorosavi, a charming and accomplished young lady, is a resident of Mulegé, Lower California.

GILLETTE SAFETY RAZOR

No Stropping, No Honing.

Beautifully Finished - Triple Silver Plated.

Adapts itself to any beard, shaves as smooth as velvet, never pulls, scrapes, cuts, or even irritates the most tender skin.

12 Blades--24 Sharp Edges

Every Blade Will Shave from 20 to 40 Times

Price: $5.00 Gold

SONORA NEWS CO., Nogales, Arizona.

