In the item which appeared in the Oax a few days since in regard to the Cochise copper company's properties, the depth of the shaft should have been one hundred and fifteen feet instead of 85. The assays of the ore found in the shaft shows 19 per cent copper. Three size of the strainer continues to increase in width as the shaft is sunk. The eight hour shifts are now at work and will push the work as rapidly as possible.

Judge Williams came into the Oax office this afternoon in a furious state of excitement, his face was all red, he was puffing and blowing like a porcupine, all out of wind; his hair was turned the wrong way, and he was trembling like a man fresh from a Turkish bath—of ice water. We tried to soothe him, but it was no go. Finally he quieted down sufficient to say that it was a sheet of a tramp up the hill to this office without his cane. We were agreeable and he went away apparently satisfied. Call again Monday, Judge.

A Tennessee lady, Mrs. J. W. Towle, of Philadelphia, Penn., has been using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for her baby, who is subject to the croup, and says of it: "I find it just as good as you claim it to be. Since I've had your Cough Remedy, baby has been threatened with croup ever so many times, but I would give him a dose of the Remedy, and it prevented his having it every time." Hundreds of mothers say the same. Sold by the Bisbee Drug Store.

Billy Hassong, well and favorably known as the driver of one of the Copper Queen delivery wagons, is handling the ribbons for the old reliable transfer company. For promptness and dispatch, see Billy.

The Bisbee market is now supplied with venison and it is the only market in the territory that is. The meat is brought out from Mexico and the custom officials issue a certificate to the effect that the deer were imported from Mexico. There is nothing in the Arizona statutes that can prevent the sale of this meat as it can not be proved that any of the deer were killed within the bounds of Arizona.

A gentleman who recently shipped a bunch of cattle from Bisbee is authority for the statement that Dr. Leslie Allen, inspector for the bureau of animal industry, while strictly courteous and honorable in his relations with importers and shippers, takes every precaution to prevent the admission of infected cattle. It is this gentleman's belief that the health of our cattle is safe in Dr. Allen's hands.—News.

Word comes from Tombstone, to the effect that Attorneys Land and Clark came near coming to blows over a discussion of the assessment question, before the board of supervisors. Law books were sent flying through the air and for a time it looked as if there would be a lively setto. Sheriff White hearing the disturbances from the office below rushed up to the scene and soon had matters smoothed over.
