CITY AND COUNTY IN BRIEF.

Small Paragraphs of General Interest.

The News of a Day in Phoenix and Its Tributary Region Presented in a Nutshell—Doings of People and Other Matters.

There are now twenty prisoners in the county jail.

The Santa Fe reports heavy and continuous travel to Randsburg.

A newspaper has been started at Randsburg, California's boom mining camp.

One week from today—the beginning of the session of the irrigation congress.

J. J. Ellis died at the county hospital and was buried by Randal & Davis yesterday.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will hold their bazaar on Thursday and Friday of this week.

Jesus Preciedo, convicted of burglary, was sentenced by Judge Baker yesterday to one year in the penitentiary.

There are at present 228 convicts in the territorial penitentiary—the largest number in the history of that institution.

The social that was to have been given at the Presbyterian church next Friday night has been postponed for one week.

The weather bureau predicts a severe frost for tonight and warns citrus growers that it will be dangerous to that fruit.

The Williams News says the majority of Coconino county's teachers will attend the teachers' institute here December 28.

Superintendent M. J. Nugent of the territorial penitentiary has filed the appeal bond in the big canal and prison contract suit.

The Florence Tribune reports that George D. Tantau is on the rapid road to recovery and that he will return to Phoenix this week.

The remains of John Bursey, the young man who died in a cyanide tank at the Union mine Friday night, were shipped Sunday night to Madison, Wis.

Grand Master Workman Pierce of the A. O. U. W. is delayed in his tour of visits to the different territorial lodges by illness. He is in the city at present.

"Mr. Harvey Westhorp, late of the Hotel Arcadia," says the Santa Monica Outlook, "has been offered a lucrative position at Phoenix, and may leave for that city early in December."

A very interesting game of baseball was played at the park Sunday between the Pioneer and Victor hose teams. The game was won by the Victors, the score standing 31 to 16.

The delegates from Missouri to the irrigation congress will be J. G. Stowe and E. Lalley of Kansas City and A. P. Mowry of Sedalia. The local committee will meet tonight to name a reception committee.

Sunday's gun club shoot at Prescott resulted as follows: Hill, 18; Stevens, 10; Ferguson, 16; Jackson, 16; Manderfelt, 8; Andrews, 8. Doubles—Jackson, 4; Hill, 6; Stevens, 7; Ferguson, 6; Manderfelt, 4; Andrews, 1.

Charles Hill, a young fellow aged 14 years, was arrested yesterday afternoon in this city by Deputy Sheriff Buggeln of Coconino county. The boy is charged with grand larceny at Williams. He was taken north last night.

Editor C. D. Reppy of the Florence Tribune, who has been commissioned by Governor Franklin as honorary member of the board of irrigation, says he's coming to the congress next week.

Tomorrow night at Redewill hall will occur W. W. Cooley's lecture on "Prison Life." It will be graphically illustrated and, as Mr. Cooley is a bright and ready platform speaker, the evening promises to be interesting and instructive.

Acting Territorial Secretary Devoreux has received the full election returns for delegate to congress from all the counties in the territory. The result was as follows: Smith, 6,965; Doran, 4,990; O'Neill, 3,596. Mark Smith's plurality was 1,975.

E. E. Abel, speaking of cowboy tournaments, said yesterday that Bill Jackson in 1899 at Winslow roped and tied a steer in fifty-eight seconds, the animal having risen after being thrown the first time. This beats the record.—Albuquerque Democrat.

Says the Los Angeles Express: Ex-

Governor Murphy of Arizona and Congressman White returned from a short trip to Catalina last evening and brought in some fine bonitas caught on the boat coming over from the island. Now it is the question of the largest fish—story with them.

A burglar entered Sam Seip's cigar store Sunday night by forcing open a side door. The only thing taken was a nickel-in-the-slot machine. The remains of the machine were found in the Churchill addition, where the thief had broken it open and abstracted the contents.

The quarterly teachers' examination was begun yesterday in the high school building. There were sixteen applicants for county certificates and one for a territorial certificate. The examining board consists of Probate Judge Crouse, W. A. Coy and F. A. Parker. The examination will be concluded today.

The Los Angeles Times will next week issue a special irrigation edition, in which the subject of irrigation and the doings of the congress here will be exhaustively treated. The edition will be handsomely and profusely illustrated by portraits of the prominent men connected with the congress and irrigation matters generally.

The Phoenix Typographical union held a meeting Sunday and elected the following officers: President, G. W. Brown; vice-president, O. O. Matthews; financial and recording secretary, S. Palmer; treasurer, T. L. Harris; sergeant-at-arms, William Harris; board of trustees, J. A. Gardner, A. E. Estabrook, C. H. Morris and the president and vice-president.

Mr. W. C. Gregory received a few peaches last Thursday from Phoenix, Arizona, fresh from the orchard, says the Pomona Times. They were about right in size, flesh nearly white, very high flavor and good enough for Salt River valley people, who ought to have the best things on earth. Arizona's valleys and mountains possess the elements of wealth to a remarkable degree.

William Fairchilds, a former employe of the street railway company, was arrested yesterday on a charge of passing a bogus check. The check was made out in the name of John W. Jones and was payable to the Williams bank. Fairchilds owed a debt to Dorris Bros. and passed the check on that firm. It called for $2,500. He will be examined by Justice Morris today.

From the Escondido, Cal. Times: Dr. N. J. Rice writes us from Phoenix, Arizona, that he and family arrived at their destination in good shape, and adds: "Rev. Mr. Thompson and the 'big tent' people are here. Have also seen Rev. Mr. Healy. This is a fine country; of course, I don't know much about things yet, but from what I have seen and heard, the prospects for the future are fine. Real estate values are constantly advancing."

The chamber of commerce held a meeting last night in the new quarters. No business of importance was transacted, as several of the members were absent. Secretary Bruce Perley desires everybody who has anything attractive in the vegetable or fruit line to place the same on exhibition in the office of the chamber of commerce. The exhibit has dwindled some and an effort is being made to make it as large and interesting as possible for the session of the irrigation congress.
