REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING CONVENTION: To the Republican Voters of the City of Phoenix: The Republican City Central Committee of the city of Phoenix, Maricopa county, Arizona, at a regular meeting of said committee passed resolutions calling for a mass meeting, convention of the Republican voters of said city, to meet at the city hall in said city, to nominate candidates for the different offices, to be voted on at the coming city election in May, 1894.

SURE CURE FOR ALCOHOLISM: The intemperance of some advocates of temperance was illustrated with disastrous results down in Oklahoma the other day. John Short, a victim of the liquor habit, but otherwise an estimable and valuable young man, so excited the sympathies of a number of his non-alcoholic and tender hearted neighbors that they determined to rescue him from the clutches of the rum demon.

It is possible that the legal authorities may take a prejudiced view of such zeal in a good cause, but whatever happens to them, Mr. Short's friends can console themselves with the thought that their benevolent scheme was not unsuccessful. It is moderately certain that the young man will never drink another drop of intoxicating liquor.

PLEASANTON, Kan., has elected a woman as its mayor. More than that she is described by an admiring local journal of undoubted veracity as weighing 240 pounds, with not a single ounce of superfluous flesh. She announces that she is going to clean out the dives and blind pigs of Pleasanton and make it the most immaculate moral town in Kansas.

IT HAS BEEN given out cold by President Cleveland that the charges made against Governor L. C. Hughes will be ignored. He will, therefore, serve until he is succeeded by a Republican, which is rather cold comfort for the Democrats who wanted him removed in order that they might hold the offices.

THE REPUBLICAN will not be bullied into supporting or even acquiescing in the support of persons for office whom it knows to be immoral and corrupt. Such ringsters it has exposed and will continue to expose at every opportunity.

LOWA HAS so amended her liquor law that a man can now procure a drink without committing perjury.

THE DEMOCRATIC party in this city seems to have followed McGinty to the bottom of the sea.

THERE WILL BE as many proxies as original delegates in the convention Saturday.

THE REPUBLICANS carried nearly every town in Oklahoma last week.
