A Great Constitutional Convention Held.

The Royalists Without Representation.

A Descendant of the Kamehamehas a Delegate.

Supporters of the Monarchy Fix June 1 as the Date for the Restoration.

HONOLULU, May 3, per Steamer Alameda via San Francisco, May 10.—The election for delegates to the constitutional convention was held yesterday and passed off quietly. No Royalist candidates were in the field, and consequently no special interest was taken in the election. The American Union party had five candidates and six others ran independent of the regular ticket.

Three were elected, one of whom, A. K. Kuniakia, is a descendant of the old reigning family, the Kamehamehas, and is the last of his race.

A number of prominent royalists have set June 1, as restoration day. It is stated they expect to be fully armed by that time and if no help is received from the United States they intend to make an attack on the provisional government. The government officials take no stock in the rumor, however. The sand bags which have surrounded the executive building ever since last December, have been removed and the military force is being gradually reduced.

Quiet in Samoa.

SAMOA, April 25, per steamer Alameda, via San Francisco, May 10.—No fighting among the natives has occurred since the last correspondence. The cessation of hostilities among the natives is principally due to the united efforts of the American, British and German consuls, who have shown a marked capacity for dealing with the difficulties of the unpleasant situation. They persuaded both parties of natives to return to their homes and though the feeling of discontent among the natives is as strong as ever the probability of hostilities appears to be remote.

ON A MURDERER'S TRAIL.

Probable Solution of Two Ghastly Mysteries.

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—The authorities claim to have evidence that Mrs. Silvera Luenas, who was found dead in her house at Wilmington April 11, died from the effects of a beating received at the hands of John Smith.

The sheriff has also unearthed two persons who were approached by Smith who proposed the robbery of John Hawkins, the old baker who was found dead a few weeks ago. Smith will probably be arrested tomorrow.

Careless but Not Criminal.

SALINAS, May 10.—The preliminary examination of Roger Rykogel, the third mate of the steamer Los Angeles, for the loss of the vessel on the 21st of April, was continued yesterday and there not being sufficient evidence to warrant his being held to answer he was discharged.

ELI PERKINS.

The Great Humorist Delights a Multitude.

The most distinguished arrival in Phoenix yesterday morning was Mr. Melville D. Landon whose alias Eli Perkins, has been a prominent figure on the lecture platform for a quarter of a century, though the great humorist hardly looks more than twenty-five now.

He would be mistaken for nothing else than a humorist. His solemnity is unbroken save now and then by a drooping of his left eyelid which seems to be a sort of concession toward a wink.

Mr. Landon is something more than a humorist if one can be more than a humorist. He is a vigorous writer, and speaker on prosaic subjects and is among the ablest regular contributors to the Political Economist. His views on a protective tariff are favorable and pronounced and are presented in a manner as interesting as it is convincing. Protection is deftly woven into his lecture of tonight "Fun and Fact in China and Japan."

He was faced last night at the opera house by a large and appreciative audience in "Philosophy of Wit and Humor." Mr. Landon is perhaps more somber than he was ten years ago but is none the less attractive. The wisdom in his lecture is almost as funny as the wit and both are intensely funny.

His distinctions between wit, humor and satire were amusing and interesting and his delineation of character showed an intimate acquaintance with the motives of men. His local applications were happy.

Illustrating the manner in which life is frittered away he said while he was waiting at "Mary Cooper" (Maricopa) night before last he engaged in conversation with a native of the country who told him he had lived twenty years in that vicinity and had spent nineteen of them waiting for trains to Phoenix. His lecture tonight, "Fact and Fun in China and Japan," is in itself a liberal education and an antidote against melancholy.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

If you think of building see Ham-brook & Schorr, lumber mill agents.

Found—A school order on the county treasurer for $88.40. Owner can have by applying at this office.

There is a probability that Con Jackson, whose skull was crushed at Maricopa last Saturday morning, will recover.

The friends of Judge Jordan deny the rumor of his intended resignation. They say that he is rapidly recovering and will be able to resume the duties of his office.

Jas. Fitzgerald and Robert Brackett were brought down from Mesa last night under a commitment by Justice Pomeroy to fifteen days in the county jail for misdemeanor.

A Masonic watch charm lost by M. W. Kales ten years ago in his orchard was found yesterday and returned to him. It was not much the worse for the vicissitudes of exposure to summer suns and winter rains.

On the heels of the distressing intelligence of the death of his father, Maurice Fleishman yesterday received a telegram announcing the death of his uncle, Nathan Levy, of San Francisco. Mr. Levy was the father of Mrs. Bernard Goldman.

Another step was taken yesterday in the sensational case of the will of Marcus A. Fry in the presentation of a petition in probate court for the appointment of administrators upon his estate. No action was taken in the matter of the petition.

Two debates have been arranged between the Lamson College literary society and the Tucson literary society. The date of the first debate is May 19. The subject of discussion is "Woman Suffrage." It will take place in Phoenix. The other will occur at Tucson on a date not yet agreed upon.

The following transfers of real estate were entered for record yesterday: Nathan Ellis and wife to J. E. Kallischer quit claim to one-half interest in lots 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 block 6 and lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 block 7 Murphy's addition. A. Redewill and wife to S. P. Hoeter lots 28, 30, 32 and 34 in Gray's subdivision of lots 2, 2, 6 and 7 in Neahr's addition, $850.

Deputy marshal John Hickey yesterday became a private citizen. He has been an efficient accommodating officer and has done much to preserve good order in the city. That his services have been appreciated is shown in the fact that as a candidate, though unsuccessful for the office of assessor, he led his ticket by something like 100 votes.

Two little boys, the elder not more than six years old, were driving a mare hitched to a road wagon along Fourth street yesterday morning. The mare lay down in the road in front of Lount's ice factory, and the juvenile drivers were unable to make her rise. By-standers went to their assistance and finally discovered that the mare's action was not an unaccountable freak. She had taken this opportunity to become a mother.

Washington street was the scene of a dangerous runaway yesterday morning. The team drawing one of Johnson's scavenger wagons became frightened and ran astride a telephone pole. The tongue of the wagon was broken off and the horses thus freed turned and ran furiously down the street. They collided with one of Saunders' heavy trucks and turned it completely over. In the collision one of the runaway horses had a leg broken and the other horse was severely cut.

About Wool.

BOSTON, May 10.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter says of the wool market: The market has been the dullist since January 1. Delaine wools are stiff and scarce and their exceedingly small supply has resulted in fancy prices being obtained here and elsewhere. Receipts of California southern wools are increasing; early Arizona wools are also coming in considerable quantities.

A Fatal Collision.

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., May 10.—A head-on collision between a passenger train from Minneapolis and a freight train occurred near Menominee Junction. The trains were running slowly, approaching a bridge. An express messenger and mail clerk were killed outright. The fireman had both legs cut off and died. Several others are injured.

RECORD OF STOLEN TRAINS.

Movements of the Industrials in the West.

Battle Between the Coxeyites and United States Officials at North Yakima.

By the Associated Press.

TACOMA, May 10.—A special to the News says: Sixty commonwealers stole a train of coal cars at Chalmers at noon and turned it on the main line of the Northern Pacific railway. There was no engine on the train, but as it is down grade east, the cars were easily started. The men say they will stop at Ellensburg, twenty-five miles east, but it is feared they will not be able to keep control of the train.

They Got There.

TACOMA, Wash., May 10.—The car was stopped with brakes at Ellensburg, the sixty Coxeyites joining 100 more of their friends there. It is reported that sixty Coxeyites were arrested at Yakima this afternoon for last night's shooting, but details have not been received. Over one hundred industrials are still at Yakima, and claim they will take the first eastbound freight. Deputy Marshals Chidester and Jolly, who were shot in the fight at Yakima last night, were brought to Tacoma today. Jolly's wound is serious; he is not expected to live. Chidester is but slightly hurt by a ball in the thigh. The marshals say that the two shots were fired by the commonwealers before the marshals used their guns.

After the Battle.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., May 10.—There has been no further encounters between the deputy United States marshals and the industrials. The latter are still here and claim they will take the first eastbound freight. Deputy Marshal Ed Minch of Tacoma, is here in charge of about fifty specials, and Joe Warren with twenty-seven men all armed with rifles, arrived this morning from Spokane. It is claimed that some of the citizens incited the commonwealers to resistance and did much to precipitate the conflict of last night.

Discouraging Vigilance.

SPOKANE, May 10.—The Spokane Coxeyites are very much disturbed. The vigilance of the authorities has crushed their spirits. Desertions are numerous. A deputy United States marshal went out to Hilliard today to serve papers of injunction restraining the commonwealers from interfering with the property of the Great Northern railway.

The Pueblo Train Thieves.

SCOTT CITY, Kan., May 10.—Wagoner's train arrived here sometime before the Coxeyites. Marshal Neeley and his forces were standing on the platform with Winchester. When the industrials arrived and saw the armed men they reversed the engine and went at great speed backwards, disappearing in the west. At Scott City the track has been taken up to stop the stolen train.

The Vinette Crowd Released.

LOS ANGELES, May 10.—Col. Vinette and his seven followers, on trial for an attempt to defraud the railroad out of fares, were ordered discharged today by Judges Clark and Van Dyke, who held that the complaint was not specific. They were rearrested by the sheriff of San Bernardino charged with inciting riot, but were again released by Judge Bartholomew, who fixed their bail in the sum of $1 each.

The Yuma Arrests.

YUMA, Ariz., May 10.—The fifteen industrials who were arrested here for boarding an eastbound train will be held to await the action of the grand jury which meets in October. Their bonds were fixed at $500 each.

TRYING TO SAVE HIS NECK.

Cronin's Appeal From Sentence of Death Heard at Hartford, Ct.

HARTFORD, Ct., May 10.—The case of John Cronin's appeal from the sentence of death August 24, for the murder of Albert J. Skinner at South Windsor, was argued in the supreme court this afternoon.

Cronin's counsel claimed that certain testimony regarding what Skinner said while dying was inadmissible, and that the court erred in admitting it when objected to by Cronin's counsel.

Counsel for the state claimed that even if the testimony should have been stricken out, the murder was fully proven by other overwhelming testimony. The court reserved its decision.
