

THE COURTS.

A Two Week's Lecture on the Subject of Temperance.

The Sortillon Murder Case Comes Up for Trial Today—Other Matters of Less Importance.

An analysis of the cases so far disposed of at this term of territorial and United States district court presents a strong argument in favor of temperance. Every man convicted has been convicted of an offense which is the result direct or indirect of fooling with strong drink.

Lochee, the Indian convicted of killing Pa-pa-je, was shown to have been irresponsibly drunk at the time of the killing and for hours afterward.

The second trial in this district of Sortillon for the murder of a new born babe of an Indian woman with whom he was living was continued until this morning on account of the absence of an interpreter.

Sortillon was saved last fall by a hung jury which was only hung and that was all. Sheriff Greenleaf of Yuma county, arrived yesterday with the mother and grandmother of the murdered babe, other witnesses in the case and an interpreter.

At the close of the military ceremonies, the brave soldiers and their handsome admirers indulged in dancing until midnight.—Florence Tribune.
