PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, TERRITORY OF ARIZONA, OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR.

The 30th day of May has by National and territorial legislation been set apart as a public holiday, and consecrated to the memory of the dead soldiers of the Republic, who made a tender of their lives that the Union might live.

The ranks of the once great volunteer army is fast being diminished, and as the old soldiers are being mustered out, we are advised not to forget their deeds of valor, patriotism and self-sacrifice.

Now therefore, I, Louis C. Hughes, Governor of the Territory of Arizona, do hereby request that the people of the territory join the surviving members of the Grand Army of the Republic in their memorial services; and by such recognition, prompted by gratitude, animate that spirit of patriotism and loyalty with which our people are so generously inspired.

Done at the capital, this 27th day of May, A. D., 1894. L. C. HUGHES, Governor.

THE DEMOCRATIC party is not only the victim of its own folly, but it is one of the worst sufferers.

THE HOUSE and senate are almost as far apart on the tariff question as Wilson and McKinley.

A KANSAS Populist named Credit wants to go to congress. The Populists that Kansas has in congress now are no credit.

AFTER ALL the talk of robbery at the world's fair, it has come out that only 1,300 umbrellas were stolen on the grounds.

THERE are fewer congressional districts in the country in which a Democratic nomination is equivalent to election than there ever was before.

THE HOUSE has decided to repeal the salary docking act. Since the adoption of Mr. Reed's admirable rules extraordinary methods of securing quorums are no longer necessary.

Mrs. VANDERBILT has a cat which "cost $1,000." Without intending any disrespect to Mrs. V., anybody who pays $1,000 for a cat is a chump—or chumpess, as the case may be.

POLITICS IN KANSAS.

It now seems probable ex-Governor John P. St. John will be the nominee of the Prohibition party in Kansas for governor. The state convention to nominate a complete state ticket has been called to meet at Emporia June 12 and the Prohibition leaders have announced that St. John will be nominated by acclamation and that he will devote his entire time after the convention to making a canvass. Thus early the claim is being made that St. John will poll 50,000 votes, which is more than ten times the strength developed by the Prohibitionists in 1892.

Since his defeat for a third term as governor of Kansas St. John has been a bitter and unrelenting enemy of the Republican party and his devotion to the Prohibition party has for its foundation his hatred of Republicans and his efforts in behalf of prohibition have had for their object the defeat of the party which twice honored him with the highest offices within the gift of the people of Kansas. His candidacy for governor this year is prompted by the belief that he can draw largely from the voting strength of the Republicans and thus make it more easy for the Populists to carry the state.

With St. John as the Prohibition candidate for governor there will be a close race between the Prohibitionists and the Democrats, and it is probable the Prohibition ticket will receive the most votes. The Democratic organization in Kansas has been almost destroyed by the course it pursued in 1892 when it nominated no state ticket, but indorsed the nominees of the People's Party without qualification. The bulk of the party has been absorbed by the Populists and in many counties there is no semblance of an organization and in the others it is so badly crippled that it amounts to nothing.

The Democratic leaders are at a loss to know what course to pursue in the state convention, which meets in Topeka July 3. They declare they will nominate a straight ticket and make a strong campaign, but they really have no intention of doing so. The federal officeholders are in control of the party organization and they will do whatever they are advised to by the administration at Washington. They have tried in vain to obtain some expression from the powers that be as to the policy that should be pursued, and having received no advice they have sent a committee to Washington for instructions. A straight ticket with an earnest campaign would demonstrate the Democratic weakness in Kansas and this they are loath to have shown to the world. Chairman Breidenthal of the People's party state central committee, has taken a poll of the state and says a Democratic ticket will not receive to exceed 10,000 votes. This is not encouraging to the Democrats, and rather than show such weakness they will prefer to wait for some more favorable time to make a campaign in Kansas.
