THE BLOCKADE.

The Situation Slightly Changed.

Knights of Labor Prepared to Join.

Conflict With the Government Troops Approaching.

The Only Train Moved on the Coast Yesterday Carried a Military Force.

By the Associated Press.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., July 3.—There is no change in the strike situation here. The men are quiet. Injunction papers have been issued restraining employes from interfering with the road. Two trains are still at Barstow tied up. It is reported here that the bridges on the Atlantic & Pacific near Needles have been burned. Applications for positions have been received by the railroad officials, but no places have been filled.

They Remembered Stanford.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 3.—Mrs. Jane Stanford, widow of the late Leland Stanford and executrix of the great Stanford interest in the Southern Pacific, continued to play a romantic or at least a picturesque part in the desperate struggle now waging between the company and the A. R. U.

Today Mrs. Stanford, borne by A. R. U. men, who had triumphantly entered into the city with her car decked with flags and bright bunting, came into Oakland this afternoon and at the Sixteenth street yards was lustily cheered through the very mob of strikers that had stalled a passenger train on a parallel track and was battling with its trainmen. The determined committee of fourteen A. R. U. men that had brought Mrs. Stanford's engine and car from Dunsmuir on the Oregon branch saw that her car went straight through to Ferries. Several division officials at Oakland attempted to board the car, but were thrown to the ground. They were sternly informed that this was an A. R. U. train.

Interviewed tonight Mrs. Stanford said: "I never passed through anything like this before, but never in my life was I treated more kindly than I have been by these men. I hope for their sakes that the difficulty will soon be settled. The fourteen men who came in my coach and brought me to this city were as gallant as possible. Up at Willows they escorted me to the hotel. They had been so kind that I told the hotel proprietors not to let them pay a cent for their accommodations. I said I would settle the bill. He told me that the A. R. U. men had paid everything. Everywhere they were so kind, saying they did it in remembrance of the manner in which my husband had treated them."

Worked to Los Angeles.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., July 3.—The train which was carrying troops to Los Angeles and which was stalled in this city, left for Los Angeles at 4:45 p. m. and is expected to reach its destination between 2 and 3 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Governor Markham Apprehensive.

PASADENA, Cal., July 3.—Governor Markham states that he instructed Mayor General Dimond to use his discretion as to the number of troops sent from San Francisco to Sacramento and to report at Sacramento and wait further instructions. The governor is in constant communication with the militia officers. He considers the situation grave.

The Rio Grande Is Loyal.

DENVER, July 3.—President Jeffrey is constantly among the employes of the Denver & Rio Grande striving to induce them to remain loyal. President Debs is trying to break the Rio Grande transcontinental connection and President Jeffrey is trying to get the trains in operation. Trains are running regularly between Denver and Pueblo. Seventy-five deputies were sent to Trinidad today to make wholesale arrests.

Santa Fe trains are running to and from the east. As soon as the troops arrive an attempt will be made to run west. The Union Pacific, Burlington and Rock Island trains to and from Denver are running regularly. The coal supply is short and cable cars cannot keep running another day if the freight cars are not moved.

A Critical Day.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Great anxiety was caused today among railroad officials by the theft of powder at Lansing. The fact that tomorrow is a holiday for the ranks of the strikers will be reinforced by thousands of workmen who are at work today. This gives the situation a serious aspect and the mystery which surrounds the disposition of the stolen powder adds gravity to the theft.

For Blowing Up Bridges.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Deputy Sheriff Spears at Roseland telephoned to the sheriff's office that in his opinion the stealing of the powder at Lansing, was for the purpose of blowing up bridges at points to prevent the arrival of deputies.

A Few Pullmans Move.

SALT LAKE, July 3.—The order of Judge Merritt issued yesterday was ignored by the strikers and their places have been filled up as rapidly as possible. The Union Pacific train for the east went out on time this morning carrying Pullman cars and a posse of deputies. The Rio Grande Western is moving trains with non-union men excepting conductors and engineers.

Populist Sympathizers.

PORTLAND, Ore., July 3.—The executive committee of the Peoples Party today adopted resolutions endorsing the strike of the A. R. U. and calling upon the people to render all possible aid to them. The resolutions severely denounced United States courts.

The Strike Cases at Prescott.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., July 3.—The contempt cases of the Atlantic & Pacific strikers were called this morning and continued until July 5. No new arrests have been made.

Ready to Back the Courts.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—In an interview after a conference with the president and attorney general, Major General Schofield commander of the U. S. troops said: "All preparations have been made to carry out the orders of the United States courts with decision, vigor and promptitude." General Nelson Miles, commanding the department of Missouri, has been recalled from his leave of absence for consultation with officers concerning the strike situation and left for Chicago to assume control of the government troops.

A Result of the Strike.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Thousands of packing house employes have been made idle here on account of the strike. Not a single carload of live stock has reached the stock yards by rail today. The only live stock received was fourteen hogs that came in a wagon. The Michigan Central attempted to start a train with dressed beef last night, but the cars were abandoned and the beef left to spoil on the tracks.

The K. of L. Ready to Join.

CHICAGO, July 3.—Master Workman Lidholm of the Knights of Labor today said that they are heart and soul with the A. R. U. and will strike if asked.

COLLARED THE WATER.

The Arizona Canal Company Testing Its New Crosscut.

Another New and Interesting Phase of the Fight for Control of South Side Water.

The contest between the Arizona Canal company and the Consolidated for the business of carrying the water for the Tempe canal has been renewed. The water has been in possession of the Arizona since last Friday night, and the Consolidated is temporarily at least without the opportunity of even applying for a remedy.

When complaint was made against the Consolidated a month ago by the Tempe canal people that they were not getting the water to which they were entitled the Consolidated completed its cross cut and turned the water in so that when the case came to be heard the cause of complaint had vanished and upon the Consolidated furnishing a bond of $100,000 the matter was allowed to rest.

At the time this case came up the Arizona Canal company had almost completed a cross cut from its canal to the Tempe dam preparatory to delivering the water by the way of its canal into the dam. The case was generally supposed to be in an unfinished state. The point the Consolidated had gained was on the representation that about 3,000 inches of water could be saved by a delivery through its canal and it was understood that the strength of this claim was to be tested.

On Friday night all the water at the Arizona dam was turned into the canal and at the wasteway, a few miles below, 1,400 inches belonging to the Utah canal were discharged. The rest was carried on in the Arizona to the cross cut where the portion belonging to the Tempe canal, Hayden's and Wormser's ditch was carried into the Tempe dam. The Tempe people are theoretically without interest in the fight. They say they do not care how they get their water, so they get it. They really prefer, however, that the water should be delivered by the Arizona Canal company for the reason, they say, that they believe a saving will be effected by this arrangement. Their long litigation with the Consolidated is also likely to have prejudiced them against that company.

Commissioner Standage has been asked by the Consolidated to turn the water back into the river. He declines on the ground that he has nothing to do with this dispute. His business is to distribute the water under the order of the court appointing him so he has nothing to do but see that the canals affected by the order are fairly treated.

The Consolidated people can therefore do nothing as one lawyer said yesterday "but stand around and cuss until they can get a trial." Judge Baker is some where tied up in the strike. When he can return or will return is problematical and the only thing certain is that the water is flowing silently and swiftly down the Arizona canal and across the river to the south side.

THE TARIFF BILL

It Passes the Senate by a Majority of Five.

There was Imminent Danger of a Bolt.

At the Last Moment the Situation was Precarious.

The Louisiana and Populist Senators Threatened to Leave It to Its Fate.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 3.—The tariff bill passed the senate by a vote of 39 to 34. At 8 p. m. the tariff situation was precarious. Allen had broken from the Democrats and denounced the way in which the party had treated the farmers.

The Louisiana senators were indignant over the way the producers of sugar have been treated. Manderson of Nebraska, proposed to move to reconsider the graduated bounty provision and this motion was expected to cause trouble.

There was 4,000 pounds of barley on the wagon.

Badly demoralized but still in the ring with iced melons.
WM. M. ROWORTH.

Try This.

Bum cooks are usually famous for the large amount of "good work" they can do with their face. The Pacific Grotto cooks never "vag" around the streets, trying to leave the impression that they have entire charge of the place. Nor are they always talking about how good cooks they think they are. They are cooks and they know it. Maudlin talk is unnecessary. Their work speaks for itself.

And Try This.

A man went in the Pacific Grotto yesterday and asked Tomlinson why it was his pastry cook, after he had made a cake, didn't go out in the dining room and tell the people how good it was. The reply was: "For two reasons. The first is, he has been in the business too long; and the second is, he knows that if he did he would get fired bodily without any explanations."
