REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION.

By authority of the Republican county central committee a Republican county convention is hereby called to meet at the city of Phoenix, Arizona, at 10 o'clock a. m., on Saturday, September 4, 1894, with powers, as follows: To nominate a regular Republican county ticket for the coming November election. To elect delegates to the Territorial Republican convention.

To elect a Republican county central committee. To take cognizance of such further matters as may properly come before such convention. For the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention primary elections will be held in the different precincts between the hours of 11:30 o'clock a. m. and 5 p. m., on Thursday, August 2, 1894.

The test of the right to vote at such primary election shall be an affirmative answer to the question: "Will you support the Republican ticket at the coming election?"

The apportionment of delegates for the county convention is as follows: One (1) delegate for each precinct hereafter created.

Phoenix, 26 delegates; Judges, J. M. Gregory and F. W. Hill. Tempe, 8 delegates; Judges, Frank Austin, J. B. Mullen. Mesa, 4 delegates; Judges, W. A. Kimball, M. J. Forster. THE OFFICIAL call for the Republican county convention appears at the head of this column this morning.

COL. B. J. FRANKLIN seems to be in the lead for the Democratic nomination for district attorney. But the nomination is not equivalent to an election this year.

TIMES must indeed be serious when a thoughtful paper like the Minneapolis Tribune says in all soberness: "There are some things that are worse than a Democratic congress."

SAM JONES has been telling Alabamians that "a fair count may mean negro domination, but a corrupt ballot means the devil's domination." And Sam is right. With a fair ballot in the south the Democratic party would never get into power.

YOUNG REPUBLICANS. The young men who are organizing throughout the country Republican clubs are the bone and sinew of the party which they represent. They are earnest and honest Republicans, and they are ready and willing to fight the party's battles at the polls. The resolutions adopted by most of them show that the young Republicans have no desire to repudiate the principles which have made Republicanism synonymous with national prosperity and good government.

The record of the Republican party is commended with the same vigor that Democratic incapacity as it is now being exhibited at Washington is condemned. They have declared in favor of protection to American labor and American capital, and denounced the vicious proposed tariff legislation now pending in congress. The young Republicans are also in favor of a free ballot and a fair count, and earnestly in favor of liberal pensions for the old soldiers and sailors and their widows and orphans and for the free coinage of silver.

The members of the Republican clubs are fighters in the cause of Republicanism.

The party is in a prosperous condition and there ought to be large accessions to its membership between now and the election of 1896, when every fighting Republican should be in line.

We suggest that a young men's Republican club be organized in Phoenix.

THE PROSPECTIVE early admission of Arizona has already brought several aspirants for United States judge to the surface. If Cleveland appoints the judge he will of course be a Democrat. Let us hope that he will be an honest man. A corrupt judge who will hold office during life would indeed be a sad blow to the new state. The people, therefore, irrespective of party, have a deep interest in the matter and will want to see a sound lawyer, a fair man, and more than all a man above suspicion appointed.

GOVERNOR TILLMAN of South Carolina, has pledged himself, if he goes to the United States senate, to make it pleasant for Grover Cleveland. "If I go there," he has publicly said, "I will use a pitchfork in his old fat ribs." Tillman is a scallawag and no sort of man to send to the senate, but a man who will agitate the ribs of Mr. Cleveland with a pitchfork or a fish "gig" is badly needed in Washington.

COL. W. S. WHITE of the South side, is mentioned as a candidate on the Republican ticket for the legislature. Col. White is not seeking the place but is willing to serve the party if so desired. An acquaintance of many years with Col. White leads the writer to add that no better man can be found for the place. He is a gentleman of high character, fine ability and would fill the office in a most acceptable manner.

MOSES HARRIS, a negro of Delta, Miss., was bitten by a dog supposed to be mad, and not wishing to take any chances in the development of hydrophobia the neighbors gathered around Moses, mercifully knocked him on the head with a club, and buried him. We presume that the dog will be saved if possible.

HON. L. H. GOODRICH is the only Republican who has announced openly his candidacy for congress. He should be nominated by acclamation and will be elected by a large majority. He is the strongest man the Republicans can possibly place at the head of their ticket.

THE POPULIST governors are opposed to the government taking a hand to subdue anarchy and revolution; but if there ever comes a time when the government remains passive under such conditions, God help the country.
