

HIS POST OF DUTY

Keeping It Causes a Stage Driver's Death.

He Refused to Obey a Bandit's Command.

A Bullet Through His Body in Consequence.

Several Shots Fired, But the Driver Only Killed—The Assassin's Identity Unknown.

By the Associated Press.

NEVADA CITY, Cal., Oct. 30.—Arthur Meyer, a driver, and one of the owners of the North Bloomfield stage, was shot and instantly killed by a highwayman this afternoon at Rock creek, three miles north of here.

The incoming stage was stopped by a lone highwayman who came out of the bushes and stepped in front of the horses. The bandit commanded Meyer to get down out of the box. Meyer refused. The bandit fired twice at him with a revolver. The second shot passed through the driver's body and he fell forward into the boot in front of the coach.

So far as known the robber secured no booty. Several shots were fired at one passenger but he escaped unhurt and drove the stage to town.

WAREHOUSE VICTIM.

Knox Express Co. Sued for $5,000 by Julia A. Anderson.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 30.—Julia A. Anderson yesterday sued the Knox Express company for $5,000 worth of furniture, silverware, table linen, books and bed clothing, which were destroyed by the fire of July 24 last.

She says she was to pay $4 a month storage and had paid most that was due; that on June 15 last, by Ruth McCoy, she offered to pay the balance, and asked that the goods be delivered to her, but the delivery was refused.

She makes the usual charge of carelessness in storing inflammable materials, particularly a gasoline motor machine, in the warehouse.

In the bill as first drawn a bridal tresson is mentioned among the goods destroyed, but upon a second thought this item was stricken out.

CATTLE FOR GERMANY.

The Exports to That Country Are Not Large.

One Stockman in America Could Ship All of the Cattle That Germany Has Use For.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Secretary Morton was at the cabinet meeting today for the first time since his return from Europe.

Discussing the recent action of the German government discriminating against American cattle, the secretary said: "Last year Germany imported 4,000 head of American cattle. One American farmer could supply the entire German market, of which it is said we have just been deprived."

Secretary Morton intimated that there is no great concern felt by the administration on account of Germany's action.

TWO BODIES FOUND.

Fred Cogshall and His Wife Found Dead in the Woods.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Oct. 30.—As Fred Coulter was walking through a piece of woods on his way home this evening he stumbled upon the bodies of Fred Cogshall and his wife. Both had been shot.

The woman's clothing was torn and the ground all around the place where the bodies were lying bore evidence of a struggle.

It is surmised by some that the couple had quarrelled and that Cogshall murdered his wife and then committed suicide. Others believe that it was a double murder.

Saved by His Bicycle.

HAMONTON, Pa., Oct. 30.—Three tramps halted Joseph Grim about 8 o'clock last night two miles out of town and demanded that he turn over to them his money and watch. He had $60 with him, the proceeds of the sale of a horse during the day, and was about to hand it over under threats of being brained by clubs if he did not, when a plan suggested itself to him. He threw his watch a half a dozen yards away. The three men all turned in the direction of the timepiece.

This was the opportunity he wanted, and mounting his wheel he started off at a rapid gait before the highwaymen could comprehend that their prey was escaping. They gave chase, with loud threats, but the bicyclist was moving farther away every minute, and they gave up the chase. Grim says the watch was not worth five dollars.

A Five Dollar Assessment.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The civil service commission has received from a postmaster in Washington state a copy of a circular from the Democratic committee levying an assessment of $5 on each postmaster. It is signed by Charles De France, secretary. It states that "the committee, having had under consideration the necessary ways and means of raising funds for the campaign, have concluded that those who are enjoying the benefits of Democratic success in the past should contribute to the expenses of the present campaign. The committee has therefore assessed you $5."

A Youthful Bigamist.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The solemn affidavit of a pretty young woman whose maiden name was Susan S. Smith, avowing her marriage on May 23, 1893, to Wm. K. Kinner, a youth of 19, and a marriage certificate date July 13, 1894, and bearing witness to Kinner's union on that day to Miss Lizzie Karenburg, this morning brought this young benedict before Police Justice Painter, who held him under $2,000 bail for examination on the charge of bigamy. The extenuating circumstances are, that the first marriage was treated as a joke by all concerned; and, further, that Rev. Mr. Wren, who performed the ceremony, was an excommunicated priest.

RAVING MANIAC.

Results of the Wounding of a Boy's Hand.

Was by the Bite of a Strange Dog.

Imagination May Have Much to do With the Malady.

The Boy's Mother Believes He Was Made Crazy by His Companions.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—James Norman, 16 years old, was removed from home a raving maniac last night. It appears that the lad had for some months been employed as a stevedore. A strange dog wandered into a yard where he was at work some weeks ago, and Norman started romping with him, when the animal suddenly became infuriated and snapped at his right hand. The wound was not a bad one, the tip of the third finger only being slightly lacerated.

Norman did not take much notice of it until a couple of days ago, when it became painful. Last night the lad returned home from work and ate a hearty supper. Soon he complained of feeling hot and started to walk in the front room. Suddenly he fell, shaking like a leaf, to the floor. His brother George and Joseph R. Russell rushed to his assistance, but could not get near him.

He snapped and barked exactly like a dog whenever they approached him. A policeman sent for an ambulance, but before its arrival the boy became violent and it was all the policeman and the two other men could do to keep him from injuring himself. As it was, his brother received several scratches on the hands from the madman. An ambulance surgeon from Bellevue arrived and injected hypodermically a quantity of morphia, but while Norman was being placed in the ambulance and before the drug could have any effect upon his system, he was again attacked with the rabies and fell from the grasp of the men to the sidewalk. He was finally placed in the ambulance and removed to the insane pavilion. The boy's mother insists that her son's companions have done a great deal toward making him crazy by telling him hydrophobia stories.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 30.—Garland Smith pleaded guilty in Judge Ross' court this morning to the charge against him for passing counterfeit silver dollars and gold five dollar pieces.

Is Chicago Credit Shaky?

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The credit of the city of Chicago was attacked today by a syndicate of local banks, which recently advanced $600,000 as a temporary demand loan in anticipation of tax collections. Several of the banks asked immediate repayment of the loan. Comptroller Ackerman complied, and now there is no money on hand to meet the October payroll. Not only does the comptroller declare that the city has no money to meet its obligations, but he openly asserts that there is none in sight. The banks regard the city with suspicion. Since the Kent resolution was passed by the finance committee, casting a cloud upon the authority of the comptroller to borrow money, the banks have made constant demands on the city for repayment. Up to date $300,000 has been returned. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, not enough to meet the payroll is still on hand, but a great part of that will probably be paid back before the end of the week.

Silles' Divorce Suit.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The divorce case of Everett D. Stiles against Illian Brower Stiles, in which Herbert P. Crane, son of the millionaire elevator manufacturer, is named as co-respondent, was opened today before Judge Ewing. The charges made by Mr.

Stiles in his bill, the counter charges of Mrs. Stiles in her cross-bill, and the testimony of the complainant today promises sensational developments. Mr. Stiles testified that during a visit to Crane's summer home at Lake Geneva, Wis., he detected Crane coming out of the room of Mrs. Stiles. He went in and found his wife in tears and told her she must not allow the visits of Mr. Crane to continue. Later, he avowed, his wife received love letters from Mr. Crane, and when he remonstrated she became hysterical and told him to go away for two weeks and give her time to collect her thoughts. He went as she requested and upon his return found another man in his house, whom he thought had no business there, and then he and his wife separated. The case is expected to last for ten days. All parties to the suit are of high standing.

SUES HER DAUGHTER.

Says She Transferred Her Bank Account When Sick.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Katherine Lindsey, a woman over seventy, moved yesterday, through Lawyer David Welch, before Justice Barrett, in the supreme court, for leave to serve an amended complaint in her action against her daughter, Katherine McCahey. In the summer of 1880 Mrs. Lindsey became ill and went to the home of her daughter, No. 1444 Park avenue. The old woman had $5,000 in the Bank for Savings, and in the Emigrant, Bowery and Bleeker street savings banks.

Lawyer Welch said that while she was supposed to be dying Mrs. McCahey, who was aided by her husband, Edward E. McCahey, an inspector in the dock department, induced her to transfer to them her bank books. Mrs. Lindsey recovered, but couldn't get the books back. Mr. Welch says that then Mrs. McCahey and her husband turned her out of doors without a penny. St. Gabriel's church, in Harlem, has provided for her for the last two years. The case was taken under advisement.

LIVING PICTURES.

Five Daughters of Levi P. Morton Pose.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Oct. 30.—A series of "living pictures" was given in Rogers hall, at Hyde park, last night in aid of St. James' Episcopal church of that village. The entertainment was notable because of the number of prominent society people who posed in the pictures, including ex-Vice-President Levi P. Morton's five daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Rogers, Mrs. James Roosevelt, Miss Morgan, of Stattsburg; the Misses Ellen and Grace Roosevelt and other prominent residents of the locality.

The little hall was crowded with society folk from the surrounding country. Ex-Senator Thomas Newbold acted as master of ceremonies.

The best picture of the series was "The Marquise," by Mrs. Archibald Rogers, Mrs. James Roosevelt posed gracefully as "Penelope."

Miss Morton made a striking "America," and another of the young ladies from Eilerslie received great applause for her admirable posing as "Juno." Other pictures that were well received were Miss Morgan as Charlotte Corday; Archy Rogers and Mrs. Morgan, in Reuben and Cynthia, from "A Trip to Chinatown," Miss Ellen Roosevelt, in a picture entitled "The Rebuke," "The Scout," by Mr. Rogers and Master Edward Rogers.

The last picture represented the attack by Indians on a Puritan household.

A good round sum was realized from the entertainment.

An Important Meeting of the Arch Bishops.

All Differences Have Been Discussed and Adjusted.

The Fullest Recognition of Authority and of Loyalty to the Pope the Result of the Conference.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The mystery which surrounded the recent annual meeting of the Catholic archbishops at Philadelphia, and subsequent gathering here, is still unbroken; but from events subsequent to the meeting the conclusion is drawn that an important step was taken toward the unification of the principal Catholic ecclesiastics in the United States, in the termination of the antagonism which has risen over Mgr. Satolli's presence in this country, and in a more complete support and loyalty to the papal delegate in the future.

It is stated all differences are now adjusted and henceforth there will be the fullest recognition of authority. This recognition is regarded as a direct result of that meeting.

THE CLOSING DAYS.

Activity With Which the Republican Campaign is Maintained.

The activity and thoroughness with which the Republican county campaign has been conducted is being well maintained. There was a rousing meeting on Monday night at Gila Bend addressed by Jerry Millay and other speakers. The attendance was large and great enthusiasm and interest was manifested.

The meeting at Riverside last night was very successful and the whole country turned out to hear Col. Millay, Judge C. M. Frazier and Hon. M. H. McCord.

EARLY CLOSING.

The Matter Considered by Retail Clerks Last Night.

A meeting of the clerks of the city was held at the fireman's hall last night to consider the seven o'clock closing proposition. Nearly all the stores in town were represented and there was a good attendance. A petition was drawn up asking for the closing of the stores at the hour named providing though that between December 15 and January 1, during the holiday trade and on Saturday nights, no special hour be observed.

It was decided to put the petition into the hands of Taibot & Hubbard, the Trask-Kessler company and the Alkire dry goods and clothing company for circulation among merchants.

Another meeting of the clerks will be held next Wednesday night at the same place. A vote of thanks was tendered the fire department for the use of the hall.

A WOULD-BE BURGLAR

Detected in the Act of Entering a House.

Early yesterday morning about 2 o'clock a Mrs. Baker, living on Jefferson street between Fifth and Sixth avenues, was awakened by a noise at the front door. Her husband was absent from home and she was consequently somewhat alarmed. She went to the door and reached it just as a man was in the act of entering. Her shrill screams frightened him away and at the same time attracted the attention of special officers, Jack Mehan and H. H. Wolfley, who came up in time to catch a glimpse of the would-be burglar. They chased him in the direction of the West End school house, but lost sight of him. They afterward picked up a suspicious character in that part of town. They took him before Mrs. Baker, but she was unable to identify him and he was released.

A Woman's Daring Escape.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Seiger Young made a sensational escape from the county jail early this morning. She stood upon two chairs piled on her bunk, wrenched the iron bars apart, broke the skylight and reached the roof. Then she dropped from window to window, clinging to the iron gratings. She reached the ground, where a passer-by attempted to detain her. She threw him off and fled, clad only in her chemise, a shawl and one slipper. The police finally recaptured her after a desperate struggle.
