OUR MOTTO: STAND UP FOR ARIZONA. PHOENIX, MARCH 30, 1895.

WE EXTEND SYMPATHY: Arizona should extend sympathy to the Indian Territory. Cleveland has rewarded two of his henchmen by placing them on the bench of that territory.

The president has appointed William M. Springer, of Illinois, judge of the United States court of the northern district of the Indian Territory, and Constantine Buckley Kilgore, of Texas, judge of the United States court of the southern district of the Indian Territory.

These appointments will provoke severe as well as just criticism. William M. Springer and Constantine B. Kilgore are not the sort of men to appoint to judicial offices whose tenure is during the life or good behavior of the incumbents.

Both of them are merely bankrupt Democratic politicians. After twenty years' service in the house of representatives Mr. Springer was a defeated candidate for re-election in a Democratic district, and after eight years' service in the same body Mr. Kilgore was defeated by a Texas constituency in a Democratic nominating convention.

Probably no man ever sat in congress for twenty years who occupied so much time and space as Springer did and accomplished so little. He was always raising a tremendous amount of dust and clatter and forever doing nothing else.

In the course of his long service in the house he was chairman of a number of important committees, including ways and means, banking and currency, elections and territories, but his name has never been linked with the title of any important and successful measure of legislation.

He has repeatedly been found on contrary sides of the same question or policy, and his agility in changing from one side to the other is proverbial.

Mr. Cleveland simply took care of two men out of a job and in need of one. Arizona, having suffered so much from Cleveland's hands in this respect, is in a position to offer heartfelt sympathy to the Indian territory in her affliction.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION. The legislature changed the law relating to municipal elections so that the city officials elected in May will serve for two years. The hold-overs will serve for three years. It, therefore, becomes apparent that the very best men must be selected to fill these offices because the next two years will be very important ones in the history of Phoenix.

Within two years Phoenix ought to double in population and wealth. Within two years there should be a sidewalk in front of every foot of property in the city and the principal streets should be paved. The additions will have to be taken in; and the question of extending the sewer, light and police service will have to be met and solved.

In fact within the next two years Phoenix will emerge from a town into a full grown city, and the men elected in May are the ones that will guide it through this period of its history.

The fate of the city depends in a large measure upon them. Politics should not cut so much of a figure as ability. There are good men in both parties, and if party tickets are nominated the greatest care should be exercised in the party conventions.

If a non-partisan ticket is named it should be composed of the best men in the city, those who are known for their energy, business qualities, enterprise and progressive spirit. No drones are wanted.

There is just enough time yet in which to consider the matter. The business men, the real estate men—in fact, everybody except the politicians—should give the matter earnest thought and devise a plan by which the city will be insured the very best material in the offices for the coming two years, an epoch of so much importance to the people.

SHOULD BE CONDEMNED. In certain quarters there is talk about contesting the validity of the laws creating the board of control and the board of immigration. Such talk is nonsense. We do not believe in technicalities. The time for the opponents of these measures to make known their objections to these laws was before their passage by the legislature. It is too late now to defeat the will of the people, as expressed by the legislature, by means of trickery, chicanery or technicality.

And the same argument used in reference to these laws applies with equal force to the relief bills which were passed over the governor's veto and became laws for the benefit of the Arizona Gazette company and Lewis Wolfley. Objections to these bills should have been made before their passage. After that they became laws and should be respected as such.

THE REPUBLICAN was opposed to some measures passed by the legislature, but it believes in obeying the will of the majority and is sorry to note that a few kickers here and there are disposed to set themselves up as a minority bigger than the majority.

Actions of this kind are not calculated to raise the territory in the esteem of outside people, and we trust that every attempt to overthrow the work of the legislature will receive that prompt condemnation which it deserves.

IF THE millennium is not to strike us till a time of universal peace among the nations of the earth, its advent would seem to be indefinitely postponed. Just now there is a heap of trouble all around the bush. The powder mills and the arms manufactories are running on overtime, while the Universal Peace society has closed its doors to take inventory.

publican party if it pronounced for free silver would be more interesting if it were not altogether improbable. Governor McKinley is out for the purpose of making friends, not enemies. The story was probably invented to force an expression from him on the money question.

THE DELAWARE legislature, which can grant divorce for "incompatibility of temper," has now forty-one divorce bills on its calendar, and when it is not balloting for United States senator it can amuse itself by considering the evidence and hearing the arguments in these cases of matrimonial discord.

SECRETARY MORTON may show that members of congress sold their apportionment of seats, but the showing will not materially hurt their reputations. Nothing can injure the reputation of the Fifty-third congress.

SECRETARY GRESHAM, as we understand it, is determined to maintain the Monroe doctrine, unless some foreign power is so ungracious as to disregard his demands.

ANIMALS ON FARMS. A Decrease Reported of All Kinds Except Milch Cows.

The statistical bureau of the agricultural department has given out the following report:

The estimates of farm animals for January, 1895 show a decrease in the number of horses, as compared with January, 1894, of 187,281, or 1.17 per cent.; a decrease in mules of 19,123, or 1.81 per cent.; an increase in milch cows of 17,125, or 0.10 per cent.; a decrease in oxen and other cattle of 2,343,959, or 0.11 per cent.; a decrease in the number of sheep of 2,753,933, or 1.11 per cent.; a decrease in the number of swine of 1,940,732, or 2.30 per cent.

In value horses have declined 24.1 per cent., mules 23.5 per cent., milch cows have increased about 1 per cent., oxen and other cattle have lost in value 1.1 per cent., sheep have declined 1.2 per cent. and swine 16.9 per cent. The decline in the prices of farm horses is general throughout the country. The exceptions are to be found in the mountain and Pacific states and Massachusetts. The range of horses is from $10.13 per head in Utah to $71.13 in Massachusetts. The average value of milch cows increased from $21.77 in 1893 to $21.97 for last year.

The average value per capita of animals as estimated are as follows: Horses, $36.29; mules, $47.55; milch cows, $21.97; oxen and other cattle, $14.06; sheep, $1.58; hogs, $4.97.

The aggregate numbers and value of animals are as follows: Horses 15,893,318, value $578,740,569; mules 2,333,103, value $110,927,334; milch cows 16,501,329, value $362,501,729; oxen and other cattle, 31,394,216, value $482,590,129; sheep 42,294,064, value $65,685,707; swine 44,165,816, value $219,501,267. Total values of live stock on farms is $1,819,346,305, a decrease of $391,370,440.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.
