OUR MOTTO:

16 TO 1.

STAND UP FOR ARIZONA.

PHOENIX, APRIL 2, 1895.

THE SILVER SITUATION.

Yesterday's dispatches relative to the silver situation are more encouraging by far than anything that has yet appeared in print, the quotation being 67 1/4.

The remarks credited to Prince Hohenlohe, the German chancellor, which were reported a few days ago, are cautious, but they clearly manifest a purpose to push bimetalism upon the attention of the nations in interest; they show that the chancellor's statement in the reichstag accepting the resolution authorizing a monetary conference was not a mere tentative declaration but the announcement of a fixed policy on the part of the government. It is utterances of this kind, no doubt, that has strengthened the market.

Reading the chancellor's utterance in the light of his reichstag declaration, it is made manifest that the government realizes that the prevailing depression results in great measure from demonetization and that it is the part of wise statesmanship to do everything possible to remedy the evil.

Mirbach, who moved the resolution in the reichstag, is very positive in his views as to the necessity for restoring silver, and it is evident that the government, in some measure, shares his views.

With such pronounced sentiment prevailing in Germany, it is scarcely possible that the proposed international conference can fail to be a success. In previous conferences Germany has been an obstructionist and her attitude has had great influence over the action of the French delegates.
The conversion of Germany to the cause of bimetalism will remove restraint from France, and the conference, when it shall meet, will present the unaccustomed spectacle of three of the leading nations of the world working together to bring about a return to the bimetallic principle. England may hold off for the present, but Germany, France and the United States will be able to control the situation so thoroughly that the British government will be forced to take some kind of friendly action in the interest of India.

THE DURANGO LINE.

The Durango, Flagstaff and San Diego railroad is the talk of Flagstaff.
There is twelve miles of track, and twenty-three of grade ready for rails.
This is the Mineral Belt road now used by the Arizona Lumber company and can be secured by the new corporation.
Other rails can be had readily. The thirty-five mile stretch will be profitable from the start, they say.

The projectors count on tapping the Jerome district. The annual product of the United Verde Mining company's work is equivalent to 9,000,000 pounds of copper, 1,500,000 ounces of gold and 7,000,000 ounces of silver. These figures look awful, but good calculators have settled on them as pretty nearly correct.

On the way south the road in question strikes the Black Canyon, Tonto Basin and Phoenix, thence via Yuma to San Diego. Distance from Flagstaff via Verdi valley to Phoenix, 155 miles, and from Flagstaff via Ash Fork to Phoenix, 253 miles. Proposed storage on the Verdi will aid the contemplated line.

Connections at Durango are calculated to open the line to the east. The above is the general outline of the Durango, Flagstaff and San Diego route, and the cost of continuation to Phoenix is estimated at less than $2,500,000.

ANOTHER STREET RAILWAY.

A project is again on foot to furnish street car service for the northeastern part of town. The plan is a good one, not only for the property owners of that section, but for the whole town.

It is not desirable that Phoenix should be a shoestring town. The building of this road will tend to broaden the town and prevent the evil effect of a long and narrow city.

Properly owners of that section should encourage the building of the line to their utmost ability. The building of the line will double the value of property along the proposed route and persons in that part of the city should lend substantial aid.

A MONUMENT has been erected over the graves of the 6,000 confederate soldiers buried at Chicago. It will be dedicated on Decoration day with orations by Gen. Gordon of Georgia and Wade Hampton. The flowers for the decoration are to be sent from the south, and several refrigerator earloads have already been arranged for, enough to cover every confederate grave in Chicago.

IMMIGRATION into Arizona from the drouth regions of Kansas and Nebraska has been of marked extent in recent months, and Arizona farm lands are being given a higher valuation in consequence. Republicans herald the movement gladly, believing that it assures the permanent redemption of Arizona from bourbon Democratic rule.

A Tucson girl, who has long longed for an opportunity, is going on the stage at last. In about six months she will long longingly to get back home where she will not have to eat biscuits at a twenty mile rate and sleep while the curtain is down.

If SAN DIEGO is wise she will re-elect Mayor Carlson. If the people of Phoenix had a chance they would cast a unanimous vote for him. We want the San Diego road and we want Carlson re-elected mayor of that city.

A LOUISVILLE office boy killed a man the other night who tried to rob the store where the boy worked. When desperadoes get killed by office boys it is surely time to enter some more lucrative profession.

WITH ALL his celebrating, Bismarck is reported as not being much the worse for wear. But then Bismarck is an old man and can stand lots more than the young people of the age.

LOS ANGELES has so many vacant lots there is a move on foot to turn them into city farms for the poor. And a lot of unused avenues might also be put to the good use.

HYPNOTISM IN COURT.

They Use It in Their Intrigue—Learned Men Pronounce Opinions.

An interesting case was recently brought before the criminal court of Munich. A Polish adventurer named Lubetz-Czyuski had appeared in Dresden as a professional hypnotizer. Dresden has many rich people who have nothing special to keep them employed, and the man with the unpronounceable name found plenty of faithful followers. Among these was a lady of good family, beautiful and rich. The "professor" declared his love to her, she accepted him, and there under ordinary circumstances would have been an end to the matter. Unfortunately, however, Czyuski had already a wife, and he tried to get out of the difficulty by a sham marriage, asking his new spouse to keep their union secret. But the high-born lady's relatives got wind of the affair and had the adventurer arrested, accusing him of having hypnotized his victim. Half a dozen learned men, says the Echo, Berlin, were summoned from as many universities to decide whether it was possible to influence a person to such an extent that all resistance is impossible. The jury failed to be convinced that such is the case. The charge against Czyuski, of having made the lady subservient to him without her consent, was dismissed, but he was convicted of disorderly conduct and of criminal acts against the public morality and sentenced to three years' imprisonment, with five years' loss of civil honors. The Nation, Berlin, says:
"I do not believe that hypnotic influence is irresistible. When we see the exhibitions of professional hypnotizers we are led to think that they command obedience. If a hypnotized person is told: 'You are a dog,' he will begin to bark and crawl on all fours. But I believe that all such people are only somewhat stupid individuals who follow no other influence than the wish to appear interesting or to please—for some reason or other—the hypnotizer. I have often discovered proofs of this.
One man, for instance, was told that in a certain place there was a wall too high for him to jump over. He went to this place and began to jump, but he always jumped—backward! None of the great scientists who interest themselves in hypnotism have ever declared that they themselves could be influenced. It is impossible with a person feeling his responsibility, and neither judge nor jury could be influenced."
