THE CITIZEN.

Tucson, Saturday, : : Sept. 27, 1873.

LOCAL MATTERS.

SAMUEL RAOLAN, sentenced to serve three months in the county jail for an assault, escaped on the 21st.

The Jewish New Year was observed in Tucson, Monday the 22d, by the believers in that faith in abstaining from labor and closing their respective places of business.

The Fifth Cavalry Band called upon Lieut. Bourke Wednesday evening and gave some beautiful music. Several military officers and citizens were present.

MAYOR TOOLE has been kept busy in the auction business this week. The goods and furniture belonging to the estate of Vicente Hernandez and several other sales were made at auction.

FREIGHT TRAINS owned by Amobises, Osborn and Bennett & Block, arrived this week with government freight for Fish & Co. George Fields's train, loaded with citizen freight for Camp Grant, passed through town on Wednesday.

SEÑOR AND SEÑORA MOLLA gave a theatrical entertainment Sunday evening, which was well attended and heartily appreciated by the audience. In token of the esteem in which the citizens hold Señora Molla, quite a handsome sum was subscribed and presented to her.

The Papago school at San Xavier has been opened by two of the Sisters from the Academy of St. Joseph. There were at the commencement about twenty children in attendance; as the Papagos are just beginning to return to winter quarters we expect to see the school filled when they all get back.

BUSINESS has been lively this week about the mill of James Lee. He has put in successful operation a saw-mill in connection with his grist-mill, and orders can now be left and any class of lumber will be furnished on short notice. Mr. Lee intends before long to start a planing mill in connection with his saw-mill. His grist-mill is in constant operation, and he is receiving large quantities of wheat from the Gila. Industry and enterprise should be rewarded and we are glad to believe that in this instance it will be.

PERSONAL.—S. H. Drachman left this week for Las Cruces, N. M.
John T. Smith was in town this week from the Bosque ranch.
Smith Turner came in from the Gila this week.

Col. Morrow and Mr. Vedder arrived on Thursday from Apache and Grant.
Thomas Ewing and R. M. Robertson left on Monday for Grant and Apache.

C. L. Miner, editor of The Sentinel, and Frank Larkin arrived by stage last evening.
Mr. Barnett, of the firm of Barnett & Block, arrived yesterday from Yuma.

Col. Taylor, Paymaster, and son, arrived last Saturday. He will relieve Colonel Morrow, who goes east.

L. M. Jacobs arrived home by the Sonora stage on Saturday last. He came via Guaymas to see to some goods that had been detained in the custom-house at that place, and succeeded in arranging everything satisfactorily. He informs us that peace and very dull times exist throughout Sonora.

C. A. Franklin arrived in Tucson on Tuesday. He has been engaged recently with Lieut. Wheeler's exploring party, No. 2, which is in charge of Lieut. A. H. Russell of K Co., First Cavalry. This party has been principally engaged exploring the tributaries of the Little Colorado and the country north. He reports excellent stock ranges over the route generally, and the frequent discovery of coal. Mr. Franklin came across the White Mountain reserve and says that he believes the Apaches will raise this year at least 300,000 lbs. of corn.

HON. MARK ALDRICH died in Tucson, Sunday evening, 21st inst., of old age, and was buried on Monday, the 23d. A very large number followed his remains to the grave.

The Masonic Brotherhood took charge of his remains and buried him in accordance with the rights of the order.

The deceased was seventy-one years of age. He was born in the State of New York, but subsequently settled at Warsaw, Hancock county, Illinois. We know but little of his early history, but are informed that he was three times a member of the Illinois Legislature, and served with Lincoln, Douglass, McDougall, Baker and other distinguished men who have since written their names high on the roll of fame.

He came to California in 1849, and we believe engaged in mercantile pursuits. Of his history while there we are not informed.

He came to Arizona in the latter part of 1855, and has since resided in Tucson. He was the first American merchant in this town, the first postmaster and the first alcalde. Of the latter office he has told us many amusing incidents. There was no secure jail and punishments were generally inflicted by whipping; he would therefore sentence the accused to receive a certain number of lashes, but instructed the police officer to only inflict half the number and then inform the prisoner that on a certain day he must report for the balance of the punishment; but strange to say the prisoner never returned nor did he remain to commit more crimes.

He was elected and served in the Council of the Arizona Legislature in 1864 and was re-elected in 1866, and made the president of the Council that year; he was again elected a member of the Council in 1872, and served in the session of the present year. He discharged all his public and private trusts with fidelity and was possessed of quick, clear judgment.

He leaves a daughter in Tucson fourteen years old, to whom he willed his property. H. S. Stevens and M. R. Platt were selected by him to take charge of the estate until she is of age.

SWEENEY & ETCHEL'S as will be seen by advertisement have dissolved. Charles EtcHELL will continue to carry on the business at this deservedly popular establishment.

JUDGE C. T. HAYDEN arrived recently from Salt River. He is building a flour-mill to run by water, at his ferry, and expects to have it running this fall.

M. I. JACOBS & Co., have received large additions to their stock this week both via Guaymas and Yuma.

Apaches at San Carlos.

We learn from A. McKey, who arrived from San Carlos on Tuesday, that on the 17th instant Capt. Pedro reported to Lieutenant Rice that a notorious Apache named Eskoolgo who brutally murdered Mr. Redman, sutler at Camp Apache over two years ago, was at an Indian camp near the Agency. Upon receiving this information Lieut. Rice with Geo. H. Stevens acting Agent, Marchal Gallegos, the interpreter, John M. Logan, late hospital steward at Camp Apache and private Geo. Ressel started to arrest him. On arriving at the camp, the Apache was found lying down and was requested to get up and go with the Lieutenant to the Agency. On rising he drew his knife and stabbed Logan in several places, from the effects of which he died in about three hours, and slightly wounded Ressel. At this juncture of affairs Stevens and Gallegos fired upon the savage killing him instantly. The Apaches say that this Indian has murdered to their knowledge nine men, four white men and five Apaches, and among the latter was his own brother. They seem much pleased that he has been killed. He could have been killed long ago but according to Colyer he was entitled to special favor for his success and daring in killing white men, and he has gone unpunished to this time, trailing his pathway in blood and using his influence to debauch the friendly disposed. Thanks to General Crook a new order of management has been inaugurated and the Apaches are being taught that they are responsible beings, and that murder and robbery are crimes for which punishment will follow.

C. A. SHIBELL, who returned on Monday with his freight train from Camp Apache, informs us that Lieut. Eckerson is en route to Fort Yuma with Capitan Chiquito and six other Apaches, whither they have been sent by Major Randall for disobeying the rules of the reservation by being absent without leave. It seems that Capitan Chiquito has the largest band of Apaches, on the White Mountain reserve and it has frequently occurred that many of his Indians have absented themselves without the fact being reported or any effort on Chiquito's part to prevent it. Members of this band stole some horses from the San Pedro last Spring and recently from Pueblo Viejo and also several murders are believed to have been committed by the band. Major Randall has determined to make an example by punishing some of the head men of the tribe, and we have no doubt that wearing a ball and chain at Fort Yuma a few months will have the desired effect and teach these noble red men that in consideration of being fed and protected by the United States they must show a little good faith on their part. At any rate Major Randall and Agent Roberts are doing their duty faithfully; good Indians are being protected and well cared for and the bad ones are being instructed that for their evil deeds they will be punished. There is not a tribe of Indians on the continent that cannot be subdued and controlled by this system but until General Crook came here the premiums were paid to bad Indians and the well disposed were neglected. We suppose that this system of management was adopted upon the same principle that the Chinese give all their offerings to the Devil, in the belief that God is good and will not harm them but that the old devil is full of wrath and cussedness, and hence must be bought off at any price.
