PADDY QUINN, POET.

A Spokane Judge Insensible to Fine Art.

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 30.—(Special Correspondence of The Republican.)—"Paddy" Quinn, a type of Bohemian found only between the covers of a cheap novel, was sentenced by Justice Samuel C. Hyde, congressional representative during territorial days, to serve ten days on the rock pile, after confessing that he had worked only 75 minutes during his stay of two months in Spokane. Asked by the court to explain how he earned a living, the prisoner said:

"I am a poet, but there is no use of explaining to you that which would be unintelligible to your mind. I will recite some of my poetry instead. I will read a few stanzas from my masterpiece."

Before Quinn could give voice to the second line of his latest work the court had imposed sentence and the sweet singer was on the way to the city jail, where his tattered garments, Oxford shoes and flesh-colored hose were exchanged for overalls, a jumper and hob-nailed brogans. His long black hair and flowing beard were also trimmed for hygienic purposes, and armed with a six-pound hammer he started for the rock pile, mumbling as he left the station:

"The muse got an awful jolt that time at the hands of an unympathetic judge, but, then, there's hope. Recognition will come some time—it must come. Officer, please see that Pegasus is properly cared for until I return."

THEATRICAL NOTES.

Francis Ross is to appear in George M. Cohan's new musical comedy, "The Man From Broadway."

H. Cooper Cliffe will be engaged by William Faversham for Stephen Phillips' production, "Herod." He comes direct from an engagement in England.

Marion Lorne and Louise Drew are great factors in making the pace-setting hit of Henry W. Savage's latest production, "The Florist's Shop."

Harry Rogers has recently returned from England, where he has been one of the top-notchers. He will appear in "Told In A Flat."

"On the Wrong Foot," one of the impressions in vaudeville, is featuring Nym Kelo, who has had a phenomenal rise.

One of the newest American vaudeville acts will be a troupe of Russian dancers. The act is heralded in advance as nothing short of a great hula-balo, resembling a Japanese festival dance, both as to action and articulation.

Mill Daxie, the petite novelty dancer who has set the eastern vaudeville and musical comedy circles agog, will remain in this country the coming season, having finished all of her bookings already.

It is stated with good authority that Belasco is to give David Warfield a chance to take "Shylock" at a not far away date.

HOW BEES PROTECTED A LEOPARD FROM HUNTERS.

"If the lair of a leopard is known," says a writer in the September Wide World Magazine, "hunters will generally disclose the lurker. I recall one occasion when a leopard was supposed to be located in a cave near camp. The guns were placed around in positions commanding the exit and a few stones were then thrown in. There was no result at first, but as more and larger stones crashed in there came a faint humming, and then a roar like the sea under the cliffs. In a moment the air above the cave's entrance grew dark with—bees! As one man, sportsman and gun-bearer fled for the camp a few were slightly stung before they could reach their tents and pull the flaps over the entrances, which the bees for some time besieged. Incredible though it may sound, it is the truth that, although the camp was full of native servants, horses, etc., none of those who had remained behind and were not concerned in the attack on the bees' cave were stung. It was a considerable time before the bees beat a retreat, but during all the time that they stayed in the camp it was the tents of their aggressors exclusively around which they angrily buzzed."

He who has once deviated from the truth usually commits perjury with as little scruple as he would tell a lie.—Cicero.

Truth and justice are the immutable laws of social order. Far from us be the dangerous maxim that it is sometimes useful to mislead, to enslave and to deceive mankind, to insure their happiness. Cruel experience has at all times proved that with impurity these sacred laws can never be injured.—Laplace.
