

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF COLONEL ROOSEVELT

Progressive Candidate Shot in Left Breast at Milwaukee Monday by a Crazy Anarchist—Wound Not Fatal

Milwaukee, Oct. 14th.—Colonel Roosevelt was shot and slightly wounded tonight, as he was leaving the Gilpatrick hotel for the Coliseum to make a speech. The wound was superficial and the Colonel went on and began his speech after he had seen the would-be assassin arrested and taken to the police station.

Henry F. Cochens seized the assassin and held him until a policeman came up. A mob surged around the man who apparently was a radical on the subject of Roosevelt's running for another term. The man, who is of small stature, admitted firing the shot and said "any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

In notes found in his pockets when searched at the police station were statements that he had been visited in a dream by the spirit of McKinley who had said, indicating Roosevelt: "this is my murderer, avenge my death." Roosevelt was taken to the emergency hospital.

The man who did the shooting was identified as John Schrank whose last place of residence was New York City. He is an undersized German, undoubtedly insane. Schrank was in front of the crowd and pushed close to Roosevelt and fired point blank at his breast at close range. Cochens, a former football player with the Roosevelt party, sprang from the automobile, crushed Schrank to the pavement and disarmed him. An attempt was made to kill Schrank but officers succeeded in taking him to jail.

A thick roll of manuscript in Roosevelt's pocket is all that saved him from instant death from the bullet. Roosevelt was taken to Chicago and it was decided then not to probe for the bullet, which X-rays show is lodged next to his lung. His condition is serious, but not thought dangerous.

All speaking dates have been cancelled.

There was a large gathering of people in attendance, including many of other religious denominations. De Luxe Train in December

The Santa Fe DeLuxe train will go into service next December and continue until next March, unless business conditions require it to be retained in service longer. The new train will save one business day between Chicago and Los Angeles, and is claimed to be the finest train in America. The train will consist of buffet, library, baggage car, dining car, three drawing room sleepers, and one observation car. The train crews will be entirely picked men, with stenographer, barber, ladies maid, and is in truth a train de luxe.

Has Lot of Good Ore

W. C. Bayless, who returned home Saturday, brought down from the Caledonia vein a sack of ore which he had taken from the bottom of a 75-foot shaft, the sample representing a pay-streak 4 feet wide and resting against the hanging wall of the vein. A previous mill sample taken from the same point and sent to the El Paso smelter, by Mr. Bayless, gave an average return of $50 per ton in silver and copper. The 100-pound sample brought down Saturday looks richer than did the former sample and will certainly run higher in both of the metals named. It shows specks of copper silver glance. The Caledonia claim is one of a group of 12 claims owned by the Montezuma gold mining company. As the property is situated only three miles from the Arizona Eastern railroad, $30 ore can be mined and shipped by the company at a profit.

Recruiting Station Opened

An army recruiting station has just been opened in the Barnett Building, in Albuquerque. It is a branch of the El Paso station, but will forward accepted applications for enlistment direct to the training station at Fort Logan near Denver.

Army, at either Albuquerque, or El Paso.

"The Rosary"

Gaskill & MacVitty's new play, "The Rosary," which has had a successful three months' engagement in Chicago, a two months' engagement in New York and a two months' engagement at the Globe Theatre in Boston, comes to Majestic Theatre Thursday November 7th. The discriminating public will then be given an opportunity to see pictured before them a decided answer to the growing unrest and irreligion of our times. Not that "The Rosary" is a decision merely; it is more. It is a faithful picture of the misery and unhappiness that comes upon a man who lacks faith in the supreme good and its inevitable triumphs in our world. A typical American family is taken as a fair example of everyday conditions that obtain throughout the United States. The husband, a man immersed in business, the exacting business of Wall Street and the Stock Exchange.

Little by little he has fallen away from the faith of his fathers, that faith that brought our Republic into being. He has replaced it by an agnostic attitude all too prevalent in our day and time. The wife believes, her confidence in all-wise, all-prevailing good has not been shaken; and so when storm and stress come, the man with no anchor is swept away by the storm of agony; the woman remains steadfast, moored by her faith to outride the tempest.

Through all the heartbreak and tears, through all the agony and anguish, clear and serene moves the wonderful figure of a modern Catholic priest whose life has been dedicated to God and the service of his fellow men. It is his clear spiritual vision that sees through the web that has been woven about the two people whom he loves and it is his faith and God-given power that sets them free.

It is a wonderful preachment of faith's mighty power, of the saving grace of the good that lies all about us.

The tremendous story, powerful in its simplicity, is interwoven with the higher threads of sane humor, of the sort that one loves to take away from the theatre and laugh over in idle moments.

Handed Something to Tom

Thomas Devine, he of the genial smile, was the recipient this week of a loving cup, alleged to have been presented by admirers of Flagstaff, although Dad Parsons and others of the railroad boys are said to have been the real purchasers of the present.—Kingman Miner.

PICTURES OF EARLY FLAGSTAFF SCENES

Jack Smith, one of the oldest residents in Flagstaff, has a valuable collection of old pictures showing the early struggles of the now prosperous city of Flagstaff. Among them is a first street scene of Old Town taken before the advent of the railroad, another showing the first old dinky sawmill and tramway on the site of the present A. L. & T. mill, then known as the Ayres sawmill.

There is a good picture of the Flagstaff Hotel, then owned by J. B. Smith, a couple scenes on Oak Creek, with a splendid showing of trout in camp. Wash Henry being in the picture accounts for many of the trout, since he held the championship in the piscatorial line during the early years.

A picture of the first members of Ransom Post G. A. R., contains twelve faces, all gone but two—Uncle George Hoxworth and J. B. Smith.

The pictures are valuable and it is only regretted that more such pictures cannot be dug up showing the great contrast between the early days in Flagstaff and our present day Flagstaff.

STATE CHAIRMAN LO- RENZO HUBBELL HERE

Senator Lorenzo Hubbell, chairman of the republican state central committee, was in Flagstaff Monday. Senator Hubbell has been pretty well over the state and is highly pleased with the general trend of the voters toward the Taft standard. "The business interests of our people in this year of our great prosperity seems to be the paramount question and the question that most interests the people. Why should there be a change when business was never better? What necessity is there for trying new experiments, new things and a new administration, when every man is doing his utmost to take care of the business that is brought to him? A change could only be for the worse and the sensible, thinkers are going to vote along that line."

Funeral of Mr. Athel O. Jones

Mr. Athel O. Jones, father of Mrs. Wm. M. Rudd, died at Phoenix last Sunday and was brought here yesterday for burial. The funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church at 3 o'clock p. m. The funeral was conducted by the Masonic order of which he was a member.

Mr. Jones was prominent in business affairs in Ohio and later moved to St. Louis. Owing to ill health he has spent the last year or more in Arizona. Mrs. Rudd was with her father at the time of his death.

COMMISSION TO REDUCE COAL RATE

After weeks of earnest effort, the Corporation Commission has secured a reduced rate on coal from Gallup, N. M., to intermediate points between that town and Phoenix.

The Maricopa County Commercial Club attacked the rates between Gallup and Mesa about four years ago and in the decision rendered therein, the Interstate Commerce Commission prescribed $2.60 per ton to be the maximum rate between Gallup and Tempe and Mesa and expected the defendant companies to adjust the intermediate rates on the basis of rates prescribed. Notwithstanding this decision, the carriers continued to collect what the Corporation Commission termed to be an unreasonable rate and the matter was taken up with the A. T. & S. F. in particular with reference to an adjustment.

For instance, although the share of the Arizona Eastern Railroad company of the $5.60 rate is 55 cents, yet the Santa Fe charges Phoenix the full rate.

Flagstaff pays the same as Tempe and Phoenix, Prescott likewise, and this state of affairs persuaded the commission that the adjustment was not in line with that recommended by the Interstate Commerce Commission. As a result of the conference between the A. T. & S. F., the rates in northern Arizona will be reduced, but the Corporation Commission contends that the reduction is not sufficient and has filed a complaint with the Interstate Commerce Commission, praying for what is termed a "reasonable reduction."

The new rate will be operative approximately thirty days from date, as that allotment of time is necessary to provide for the filing of the same under the federal law.

Below is a statement of the old rate, the proposed rate to be installed, and the rate contended for by the Commission and regarding which complaint has been filed:

	Old Rate per ton	New Rate per ton	Rate pro. by Cor. Com. per ton
Holbrook	$3.25	$2.00	$1.04
Winslow	3.35	2.35	1.25
Flagstaff	3.60	2.60	1.67
Williams	3.60	2.85	1.92
Ash Fork	3.60	3.20	2.04
Jerome Inc	3.60	3.20	2.28
Prescott	3.60	3.60	2.40
Phoenix	3.60	3.60	3.05
Kingman	4.15	3.60	2.65
Parker	3.15	4.15	3.35

Such reduction as will soon be effective has been occasioned by the good work of the Corporation Commission but that body announces that the rates proposed by it are more reasonable and that the matter will be fought out at the earliest possible date.

'He Cut and Run

Deputy Sheriff Dickinson attempted to stop a Mexican Wednesday night whom he saw with a knife. He shot over him a couple times as he ran down Aspen avenue east passed the Hunter Drug Co. store, but it only made him go that much faster in the dark. When he came back he found the fellow had cut a Mexican by the name of B. Martinez on the arm in a row near Finley's place. The man bled profusely but wasn't seriously injured. The cutting scrap had been so quiet no one noticed it until the fellow tried to get away.

HUGH HAMPSEY, Manager

SENATOR WORSLEY AND SPEAKER BRADNER HERE

Senator A. A. Worsley of Tucson and Speaker Sam Bradner last Friday evening at the court house, in which the proposed laws and constitutional amendments were discussed to an attentive audience. Senator Worsley spoke especially on the tax amendments to the constitution, and presented arguments in favor of the amendment that will permit the assessment and levying of taxes and equalization of the same as required by law. The constitution as now written was weak on this point and left open wide leeway for legal dispute.

Speaker Bradner spoke mainly in favor of the five laws affecting railroads, which the railroads are seeking to have defeated, claiming they are detrimental to the interests of the people in the development of the new state. Speaker Bradner is an old-time railroad man and spoke not only from the standpoint of a legislator but of one who had seen active service.

Little interest has been manifested so far in the amendments and few people have seen or taken the pains to read the proposed laws. It is probable that they will receive little or no attention from the voters this fall.

Normal Lecture Course

Flagstaff people are taking kindly to the idea of a lecture course for the town this winter. From all sides we hear expressions of pleasure and satisfaction. "Just the thing," one says. "Of course I'm going," says another; "the talent looks fine and I shall not miss a number." "Those Waterman people look all right to me," says a third. "All right! You bet they are, and that Strollers quartette is great, I have heard them," returns another. So we hear people talking about our talent. Everything points to a successful season for first Normal School lecture course. Tickets are now in the hands of students who are canvassing the town. It is the aim of the management to have every home visited, but if any person is missed, he may secure tickets by telephoning to the Normal. Now is the time to buy. The first number, the Waterman Concert Company, is not far distant, the date being set for November 9. Other dates are: The Geo. D. Alden lecture, Dec. 7; the Strollers quartette, January 9; the unrivalled impersonator, Ralph Bingham, April 14. Season tickets are to be sold for the relatively low price of two dollars and fifty cents. This admits the bearer to the four numbers without extra charge for reserved seats. A section of the best seats in the hall, corresponding in number to the number of two dollar and fifty cent season tickets sold, will be reserved at the hall at each lecture, so that all season ticket holders are assured of good seats. A charge of one dollar will be made for single admission. A special rate of one dollar is made on tickets sold to any school child in the city. These one dollar tickets are not transferable.

SENATOR WORSLEY AD- DRESSES STUDENTS

Senator A. A. Worsley, who, addressed the people Friday evening on the proposed constitutional amendments, visited the Northern Arizona Normal during the day and was taken all over the institution by Dr. Blome. He was greatly surprised and pleased with the state institution of learning and warmly praised its management, deploring the fact that there were insufficient accommodations for the students. He made the students a splendid short talk and was astonished to learn the wide range of country from which pupils were enrolled. He went away an ardent booster not only for our big school, but for Flagstaff, its climate and people.

Socialist Candidate Here

Hon. A. Charles Smith, the socialist candidate for congress, was in the city a couple of days this week in the interest of his candidacy and party in general. Mr. Smith is a resident of Douglas, a fluent talker and a gentleman who is ever out to win converts to his party. He claims that his party will help mix it this fall with the old parties.

COLUMBUS DAY IS FITTINGLY CELEBRATED

Da Silva Council, Knights of Columbus of Flagstaff, fittingly celebrated "Columbus Day," on Saturday evening at the Majestic theatre with a splendid program of music and patriotic addresses by Hon. R. E. Morrison of Prescott and Hon. George Purdy Bullard, attorney general.

The program was opened by the orchestra with "America" and was followed by the Normal training school children with "Columbia" and Flag song.

Attorney General Bullard's address was a master piece in which he reviewed the history of Columbus, showing the persistence and tenacity of purpose of the great navigator, the indomitable spirit of the man who would do things in spite of the many obstacles placed in his way.

After the "Knights of Columbus March" by the orchestra, Hon. Robert E. Morrison took up the earlier history preceding the struggles of Columbus and made a most entertaining address in his most pleasing and eloquent manner.

The entertainment concluded with a chorus by the St. Anthony's Academy, entitled "My Dream of the U. S. A."

A special film of motion pictures describing the voyage and landing of Christopher Columbus on the western hemisphere were shown by Manager Ryan.

The audience was an appreciative one and the actors were given hearty greetings. The actors all received high compliments for their work, and there was not one poor one in the lot.
