Few die as hard Diaz does.

If hollerin' down a rain barrel is stirring things up, Teddy, he's doing it.

Colonel Roosevelt is improving physically, but losing politically day by day.

Conditions strongly indicate that Colonel Roosevelt is going to be Snodgrassed at third.

Flagstaff and Northern Arizona will furnish their quota in round numbers at the big State Fair next week.

The allied Balkan armies are marching on Turkey, says a headline in an exchange. Must be nice, soft walking.

Governor Wilson is strenuously endeavoring to convince each voter that the tariff will be arranged to suit each one individually.

The Arizona Democrat has been sold and it understood that Governor Hunt is now a part owner. Wonder what is worrying the Gazette now?

Since Wall Street first brought Wilson into the limelight, Wall street will undoubtedly do all they can to help "the people" that brought him out—including Wilson.

Felix Diaz, a nephew of former President Diaz, has mixed up a new revolution for Mexico. It starts off with enthusiasm and may result in an overturning of the Madero regime.

There was a manifest disappointment felt when it was announced that the report that Jack Johnson, the colored prize fighter, was not killed by the step father of the white girl he was keeping.

Woodrow Wilson's statement that "some one has to do the dirty work, so let the children of those who are now doing the dirty work continue doing it," does not make a very strong hit with the common people.

A negro in Philadelphia is recovering with nine stitches taken in his heart. While this in itself may only affect his loving disposition, it may lead to surgeons eventually sewing up a man's carcass with a sewing machine.

Tom Campbell, the republican candidate for congress, is gaining votes in the south and will be given a big boost in the north in November. The tariff question is one that affects the pocketbooks of the people and the republicans are on the right side of the issue.

If you are a republican from principle and believe in our present prosperity, vote the republican ticket. You have at least acquitted yourself honestly and conscientiously. Honest convictions are worth more than a temporary result and gain more in the end.

Governor Hunt thinks he will call an extra session of the legislature in January. Attorney General Bullard thinks it should be called in November, since the constitution says the terms of office of the members of the legislature are to expire January 1, 1913. Bullard wants to be on the safe side, but the governor seems progressive and wants to see if the constitution amounts to anything anyhow.

THINKS WE ARE AMBITIOUS

All unbeknownst to the rest of the republic our newest chee-ild, Arizona, has all these years been nursing a secret ambition which has just now become public property. Arizona wants a seacoast. She bankers for a merchant marine, a share in the Panama canal trade, a beach resort, a steel pier with a moving picture show on the end of it. Nothing but revolution it would seem, would serve Arizona in her desperate need, for if there is one state which nature has plainly intended not to be a salt-water state it is Arizona; but revolution is less than the limit to which Arizona is willing to go. In a word, she has looked with longing eye toward the sunny, smiling southern coast of California, and fractured that commandment which forbids covetousness.

Hence it comes about that Arizona is alive, from Flagstaff to Yuma, with a consuming ambition to grab off Imperial and San Diego counties in her sister state, and add them to her own parched domains. Bloodshed is hourly expected. Whether these frontier statesmen, emboldened by the successes of the neighboring Mexican patriots, are planning a brilliant military campaign, or purpose to consummate their desires by a coup d'etat, is not yet apparent. Deep rumblings and violent spasms shake the baby commonwealth until the mere outsider might imagine himself in the Balkans.

As for the rest of us, may success crown the efforts of the cactus state! We wish her well in her effort to change the map of the nation with the stroke of a pen. No pent-up Utica for breezy Arizona! Let her have her merchant marine, and may the flag of the Arizona naval militia proudly float in the soft winds which stir the bosom of the Pacific! All she needs is to win the consent of California.—Washington Star.

Our democratic brethren endeavor to give all the credit for our present prosperity to big crops. As usual they overlook the fact that good prices is one half the cause of prosperity, and cutely desire others to do so. What were the good crops of Cleveland's time worth to the owners? How many crops rotted on the ground for lack of buyers? How many crops were sold for what the producer could get? How many people went broke in a land of plenty but without a market? What good is a big crop if you can't dispose of it? When you think maybe a "change" would be good thing, just remember a few of these questions and answer them to yourself honestly.

Every line in the newspaper costs the publisher something. If it is to benefit some individual, he may fairly expect to pay something. You do not go into the grocery store and ask the proprietor to hand you out ten pounds of sugar for nothing, even the grocer may be a personal friend and the gift may not be a large one. If the beneficiary of advertising does not pay for it the proprietor has to settle the bill. Nevertheless, many people cannot seem to learn that a newspaper pays its expenses by renting space and it is just as much entitled to collect rent for every day that space is occupied as you are for the house you rent to a tenant.—Exchange.

Everyone interested in the welfare of Flagstaff and the building up of cities in Arizona should vote "yes" on the proposed constitutional amendment No. 107. Look it up. Don't forget it, for it gives cities, when sanctioned by a majority vote of the people, the right to increase the amount of bonded indebtedness fifteen per cent over amount heretofore allowed. Flagstaff now has a waterworks system worth $500,000, but it needs adding to to make it adequate to the needs of our growing city.

A BOOSTER BOOSTS BOOSTERS

"Boost and the world boosts with you,
 Knock and you're on the shelf,
 For the world gets sick of one who'll kick,
 And wishes he'd kick himself.
 Boost when the sun is shining,
 Boost when it starts to rain.
 If you happen to fall, don't lie there and bawl
 But get up and boost again.
 Boost for your own advancement,
 Boost for the things sublime,
 For the chap that's found on the topmost round
 Is the booster every time."

Some individuals seem to think that the recall was placed in the state constitution to be used as a sort of plaything. Whenever one gets "peevish" at an official, all he has to do is to get out a recall petition. The recall is not a weapon to be used to gratify one's personal spite, or the personal spite of a number of men, but is an instrument to correct great wrongs committed by officials. The idea that when a member of the legislature does not vote just to suit a faction of individuals, he should be made the subject of the recall, is not only absurd but ridiculous.—Phoenix Gazette.

This plaint on the part of the Gazette for fear a recall petition will be circulated against Governor Hunt is exceedingly amusing. It sounds like a case of "we know what is good for you, so take our medicine, but, for Heaven's sake don't ask us to take it—it was made only for the other fellow and we never realized any one was foolish enough to use it against we'uns."
 It sounded fine when the democratic brethren were shouting with might and main for the recall law, which every one of them knew was built on vicious lines, but a makeshift to fool the people. They said: "why should a man fear the recall if he is honest?"
 "If a man is doing wrong why shouldn't he be recalled?"
 Heavens how our minds change after we have secured the votes; gee, what a difference in the morning.

The state University as well as other state educational institutions need buildings badly to care for the rapidly increasing school population of the state. There is a body of nearly 35,000 acres of the best timber land in the entire forest owned by the state, donated by the government for use of the University. There is no law providing for the sale of this timber and no effort was made at the last session of the legislature to provide laws to handle it. Since the University needs money for more and better buildings it would appear to be a wise idea for Governor Hunt to forget the "unfortunates" for a short time and remember the "fortunate" youth of the state who so far have not had time to commit any crimes, by inserting in his message calling the next special session of the legislature, something concerning the sale of timber on University lands. It might relieve the University, reduce state taxation and permit appropriations large enough to carry on the state schools.

SALE OF TIMBER, Albuquerque, New Mexico, October 14, 1912. Sealed bids marked outside "Bid, Timber Sale Application, October 7, 1912, Coconino," and addressed to the District Forester, Forest Service, Albuquerque, New Mexico, will be received up to and including the 19th day of November, 1912, for all the merchantable dead timber standing or down, and all the live timber marked for cutting by a Forest officer, located on an area to be definitely designated by a Forest officer before cutting begins, including about 685 acres in approximately section 16 and N½ of NE¼ section 20, T. 20 N., R. 7 E., G. & S. R. M., surveyed land within the Coconino National Forest, estimated to be 4,500,000 feet board measure of live western yellow pine saw timber, log scale, more or less. No bid of less than $3.50 per thousand feet board measure will be considered, and a deposit of $1,000, payable to the order of the First National Bank of Albuquerque, New Mexico, must be sent to that bank for each bid submitted to the District Forester. Timber upon valid claims is exempt from sale. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved. For further information and regulations governing sales address Forest Supervisor, Coconino National Forest, Flagstaff, Arizona, or District Forester, Albuquerque, N. M. Allen S. Peck, Acting District Forester. Oct. 18-Nov. 15

What will your old age be?
RICH OR POOR?
It is up to YOU
Don't get tangled in the web of debt or extravagance
Bank Your money!
 Every old man is the ripened fruit of his younger days. A man does not grow old over night. Age creeps upon us, and if extravagance is stealing away our money, age is stealing away our capacity for work and preparing us for a desolate old age. If you wish to be comfortable, you must begin putting away your money now, then when old age comes you can fall back upon the money you BANKED when you were younger.
