HAYDEN WOULD CREATE MORE GAME SANCTUARIES

Congressman Hayden has introduced a bill for providing "game sanctuaries" on National forests where it is not chiefly suited for agriculture.

There is a growing disposition among the people of the west that they have been "reserved, monumented and power-sited and withdrawn" in great sufficiency by the government. All they require now is a gee string and an official to supervise them. The full text of the bill is as follows:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That for the purpose of providing breeding places for game animals on lands in the national forests not chiefly suitable for agriculture the President of the United States is hereby authorized, upon recommendation of the Secretary of Agriculture and with the approval of the governors of the States in which the respective national forests are located, to establish, by public proclamation, certain specified areas within said forests as game sanctuaries or refuges which shall be devoted to the increase of games of all kinds naturally adapted thereto, but it is not intended that the lands included in such game sanctuaries or refuges shall cease to be part of the national forests wherein they are located, and the establishment of such game sanctuaries or refuges shall not prevent the Secretary of Agriculture from permitting grazing on these areas of cattle, sheep, and other domestic animals or permitting other uses of the national forests under and in conformity with the laws and the rules and regulations applicable thereto, so far as such use may be consistent with the purposes for which such game sanctuaries or refuges are authorized to be established.

Sec. 2. That when such game sanctuaries or refuges have been established, as provided in section one of this Act, hunting, pursuing, poisoning, killing, or capturing by trapping, netting, or any other means, or attempting to hunt, pursue, kill, or capture any wild animals or birds or fish for any purpose whatever upon the lands of the United States within the limits of said game sanctuaries or refuges shall be unlawful except as hereinafter provided, and any person violating any provision of this Act or any of the rules and regulations made under the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction in any United States court be fined in a sum not exceeding $500, or be imprisoned for a period not exceeding six months, or shall suffer both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

Sec. 3. That the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause the provisions of this Act, and he is hereby authorized to make all needful rules and regulations for the administration of such game sanctuaries or refuges in accordance with the purpose of this Act, including regulations under which fishing not in contravention of State laws, and hunting, capturing, or killing predatory animals, such as wolves, coyotes, foxes, pumas, and other species destructive to live stock or wild life may be permitted within the limits of said game sanctuaries or refuges.

Sec. 4. That the Secretary of Agriculture shall cause the boundaries of all game sanctuaries or refuges established under the provisions of this Act to be suitably marked where necessary and notices to be posted showing the location thereof and warning the public that hunting game animals and birds is prohibited therein, and that hunting, capturing, or killing predatory animals, and fishing is permitted only under the rules and regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Sec. 5. That it is the purpose of this Act to provide breeding places for large wild animals, such as deer, elk, mountain sheep, and other species, which may be made to produce an increased food supply by breeding under natural conditions and spreading over adjacent territory whereon they may be hunted in accordance with State laws; to establish sanctuaries of medium size rather than large preserves; and whenever possible to establish chains of sanctuaries which in turn will restore wild game animals to intervening territory; but it is not the purpose to authorize the establishment of such game sanctuaries or refuges as will embrace all the hunting grounds of any given region.

Appropriate

"I want a pair of earrings, cheap put purty. They are fur a present."

"Yes, sir," said the jeweler. "You want something rather quiet, I suppose?"

"Well, don't 'ee go for to making they too quiet, now," replied the farmer. "My girl be deaf in one ear."

The Weather Man

The weather man lay dying; it was only a matter of a few hours, the doctor said.

Motioning to his sobbing friends, he waited until they had crowded around his bed to listen to his last words.

He gave careful directions for the disposition of his belongings, and outlined the general features of his funeral, then he murmured:

"And I want you to put up a nice tombstone for me, with these words carved on it: 'Probably cooler.'"

A minister came to the Episcopal church of a small town to speak.

"Do you wish to wear a surplice?" asked the rector.

"Surplice!" cried the visitor. "Surplice! I am a Methodist. What do I know about surplices? All I know about is a deficit!"

The story is related of a Boston contractor who was startled one morning when his foreman rushed in with the news that one of their new houses had tumbled down in the night.

"What caused it?" asked the boss.

"Why, the workmen made the mistake of taking down the scaffolding before they got the wall paper on!" said the subordinate.

Unexpected Good Business

A southern liquor house solicited mail orders and secured names by writing to prominent men in small towns asking them for lists of their fellow citizens who use whiskey. If any persons on such list purchase from the company, the citizen who sent in the names gets a commission. Some time ago a merchant in a dry county received a request, and as a joke, filled out the blank with names of total abstainers never known to take a drink or tolerate it in their homes. The business man had forgotten the incident, when one day recently he received a check for $14, accompanied by a letter from the Kentucky firm stating that the money represented commissions on liquor sold on the list he had submitted.

Speeding It On

The musketry-instructor had just been giving a lesson on the rifle to one particularly "green" set of recruits. At the end he asked: "Now, is there any question you want to ask?"

One dull-looking Johnny Raw stepped forward, blushing awkwardly.

"Yes, my man?" said the instructor, encouragingly.

"Plaze, sor," stammered the searcher after knowledge, "is it rioght that the harder Oi pull the trigger-thing the farder the bullet goes?"

As Father Saw Him

The two Sheridans, father and son, were supping with Michael Kellytone one night at a period when young Tom expected to get into parliament.

"I think, father," said he, "that many men who are called great patriots in the commons are great humbugs. For my own part, I will pledge myself to no party, but write upon my forehead, in legible characters, 'To be let.'"

"And under that, Tom," replied the father, "write 'unfurnished.'"

How to Make Sticky Fly Paper

The use of sticky fly paper is better than the use of poison to trap flies. Once a fly alights on sticky paper he is pretty certain to stay there until he dies. If you place a saucer containing poison fly paper and water in the dining room window, the flies drink the deadly stuff but they do not die immediately. They may not die until they reach the cream pitcher. If you want to make your own sticky fly paper, boil together equal parts of castor oil and resin and spread the substance on tough paper before it cools.—U. S. Bulletin.

Little "American Passenger"

"Pa, the other boys keep picking on Willie. Every time he goes to school they jump on him."

"That so? Then I guess we'll have to keep Willie out of school and off the streets. Just warn him that if he goes out tomorrow he does so at his own risk."

A small girl came over to the Arroyo ranch the other day. "Mrs. Haye," she said to the farmer's wife, "mother wants to know if you'll lend her a dozen eggs. She wants to put them under a hen." "Under a hen?" was the surprising reply. "I didn't know you had got a hen. 'We haven't,' answered the child frankly. "Mother's going to borrow it from Mrs. Oates."

What She Thought

"You say," said the lawyer, "you heard this man break into your house in the dead of night, and yet you made no effort to call for help?"

"That is so."

"Were you too frightened to call out?"

"No, I was not disturbed a particle. He bumped into the rocker of a chair and swore, so I thought it was my husband."
