

INTERESTING EVENTS IN THE LOCAL SOCIAL WORLD

By MRS. FRANK N. NOBLE

WOMANS CLUB HOLD INTERESTING MEETING

General club meeting on Saturday last brought out the usual number of faithful club members. We use the word "faithful" advisedly for out of a membership of one hundred we find as a rule only about thirty-five answering to roll call. The Advisory Board met in short session at 2:30 and at three o'clock the President called the general meeting to order. Reports of chairmen of the different departments brought out interesting facts concerning their work. One notable report being from the Home Economics—which had turned some twenty odd dollars to the Library Board.

Committee reports followed. As chairman of the Surgical dressings committee for relief work—Mrs. T. E. Pollock reported her committee ready for work and ready too for contributions.

The children's room at the Library will be turned over for this important work and from time to time, days will be devoted to it.

The chairman of the Library Board is always listened to with great interest for the Library is the pet off-spring of the Woman's Club. It is surprising for those not in direct touch with this work to know how the Library is maintained but it is all due to untiring energy on the Board's part.

After the routine of business it was a great pleasure to listen to a most beautiful rendition of Schumann's "Traumerei" by Mrs. W. F. Griffin, accompanied by Miss Emma Jones, on the violin. An interesting feature was the demonstration of a correctly laid table by Mrs. C. D. Thorpe. A paper full of up to date suggestions was first read and previous to the meeting a table with all its appointments was laid—very attractive it looked—and carried out in detail the ideas suggested in the talk.

Later, punch and delicious cake were served by the Household department. Adjournment at 5 o'clock.

Gentleman's Evening at Woman's Club

An annual event in the Woman's Club is gentleman's evening. This year the date is Friday, April the 28th.

The invitations are quite clever and read thus:

"The Woman's Club on a given date, To be exact, April the 28th Bids each member bring one guest, Husband or friend for an evening of jest

On Friday night at eight o'clock In Emerson hall will gather the flock, To see a group of ladies ten Present the play of Crawford, and then Something else we have in view, We hope will please each one of you.

Don't forget that the committee on refreshments is anxious to know just how many are going to be present and have requested each one to send a response to Mrs. Tom Rees.

Economic Lecture Coming

We spoke last week of the treat in store for us when Mrs. Salisbury would give us some lectures on Home Economics.

The date will be April the 22nd and one lecture will be at 2:30 p. m. and another at 7:30 p. m.

The subjects are as follows:

2:30 p. m.—Modern Nutrition; reducing the cost of Food Preparation. 7:30 p. m.—Household Efficiency, illustrated by labor-saving devices and charts.

It is expected that all—both men and women—will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear something good.

With the Shakespeare Club

The Shakespeare Club met last Monday night with Mrs. Sanford. Roll call was responded to by quotations on "Spring." The program committee submitted outlines for the ensuing year's work. Mrs. Sanford was leader for the evening and the fourth act of Richard III was thoroughly and interestingly reviewed.

The Operetta will cost you fifty cents but let us say right here—to see Bridget O'Holleran is worth forty nine of it. Now Emerson hall seats three hundred and fifty people so on April 25th Tuesday night—come early for Bridget arrives with her American ward that night.

The Library Board is pleased to announce that on last week, it placed an order for new books—amounting to thirty-two dollars. This consignment will be most welcome we are sure as it includes a great number of the latest popular fiction.

Eva Mae Hope from Chicago, U. S. A., is one of the most stirring characters in the Operetta. Stirring is just the word for she stirs up more trouble than the old staid English boarding school has had in many years.

The Art and Literature department met with Miss Virginia Loudermilk on Wednesday last. Mrs. Paul Coffin as leader.

The Household department will not meet on Saturday owing to the absence from town of the leader for that day.

SOCIAL DOINGS OF THE WEEK

Dancing and Cards

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson were joint hostesses on last Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. Sullivan at the latter's attractive home. The occasion was in honor of wedding anniversaries of both couples and most enjoyable was the affair. The large front room with its beautiful floor made an ideal place for the dancers who enjoyed this feature while the attractive dining room was used for those who preferred an evening at cards. Delicious refreshments were served the guests who were the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Ehlers, Mrs. and Mrs. Hayes Nance, Mr. and Mrs. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Zinn, Dr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Albers, Mr. and Mrs. Waldhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Hash, Mr. and Mrs. Marlar, the Misses Gibson and Smith and Mr. Elmer Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hash entertained at cards last Wednesday evening. Five hundred was enjoyed during the hours before the delicious lunch was served the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. Zinn, Dr. and Mrs. Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Nance, Mr. and Mrs. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Rosenberg, Mrs. Switzer, Misses Lenore Francis, Ruth Sweeting, Dr. Miller, Ray Babbitt and James Buckley.

Complimenting Miss Edith Freck, whose birthday occurred last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansen and Miss Giblin in her honor. Dainty gifts in ivory were presented to Miss Freck and later the evening was spent in cards. The guests on this evening included Mr. and Mrs. A. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, the Misses Lenore, Mary and Marvina Francis, Zella Jones, Thurza Goebel and Lena Lewis, Messers. Carol, Dickinson, William and Charles Jones, Smiley and Francis. Refreshments including a lovely birthday cake in pink and white—were served later in the evening.

Last Friday afternoon a very delightful time was spent in sewing at the home of Mrs. W. F. Griffin. Tea was served at 5 o'clock to the following guests: Mrs. S. P. Merritt of Hereford, Mrs. Frank Merritt, Mrs. J. P. Moran, Mrs. John Lind, Mrs. Katherine McMillan, Mrs. James Byrnes, Mrs. Pouthie, Mrs. George Babbitt, Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. Sult, and Miss Murray.

Miss Mary Francis succeeded in planning a pleasant little surprise on her brother Dan last Saturday evening, but of course it is always hard for the surprised one to admit it. Nevertheless the young people, numbering twenty-five announce a royal good time. Music, cards and dainty refreshments made the time pass rapidly until adieu and many good wishes for coming years were said.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Moran entertained in honor of Mrs. Frank Quinn of Chicago—last Wednesday night with a little dinner. Besides the honor guest were Mr. and Mrs. Heizer and Mrs. W. F. Griffin.

A worthy cause never lacks supporters—this was evinced on Wednesday when the children's room at the Library was almost inadequate to accommodate the ladies who gathered to assist the committee on Surgical Dressings. Contributions of money and material were generous—the co-operation of the doctors was most helpful—and the work now will proceed regularly on Wednesday, 10 to 12 a. m. and 2 to 5 p. m. Mr. Finley kindly loaned chairs for which the committee are grateful.

How many people in our town? Why not have a little guessing contest to add a little spice, with some simple prizes for the nearest guess?

We have heard some put it at 2000 and some at 4000. This seems to wide a difference—so why not really find out?

The Ladies Aid of the Flagstaff Baptist church will hold a white sale, also a cooked food sale on April 22. We feel sure you will want to buy, when you see the dainty aprons, pretty towels, baby dresses and many nice articles. Then the good things to eat too—come. Remember the date, April 22, and place—first house north of the Arizona Central Bank. From 10 to 5 o'clock.

Ladies Aid of the Flagstaff Baptist church will meet with Mrs. Lee Thursday afternoon, April 20th at 2:30 o'clock.

It is quite important that all the members should be at this meeting.

EMERSON SCHOOL NOTES

Examinations are the order of the day.

CLIFF CAMP NOTES

Mrs. Hayes Weidner and sons visited in Flagstaff Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barden visited at the Greenlaw ranch Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. J. O. Peck and Earl Brown are visiting in Winslow this week.

Mrs. J. C. Kester's daughter and niece, Misses Mamie and Bernice Herman of Los Angeles, Calif., are enjoying the luxuries of the Kester ranch.

The ladies of the camp met last week and organized a Quaker club, much interest was manifested and the members hope that the full meaning of the title will be realized at each meeting.

The ladies of the camp very effectively surprised Mrs. Hayes Weidner on Saturday afternoon at two o'clock by rushing in the back door and joyously reminding her of her birthday. Games were played after which delicious refreshments were served, being eaten to the health of the hostess, in wishing that her blessings be as April showers. Those present were: Mesdames Annie V. Kester, Joe Jolly, J. O. Peck, A. P. Springstead, Wm. Hayden, Earl Brown, Carl Riblett, John Marshall and Pete Barden and Misses Emma Robertson and Mamie and Bernice Herman.

Resolutions of Condolence

Whereas it has pleased Almighty God to take from our midst our esteemed neighbor Rachel Castleberry, and whereas, through her untimely death our camp has lost a devoted member, and her family a kind and loving mother, and, whereas, while we bow in humble submission to the will of our heavenly Father, we regret the loss of our neighbor Castleberry. Now, therefore be it resolved, that we Royal Neighbors of America, Malpai Camp 7088 express to our Neighbor Della Carder, Elizabeth and Rose Castleberry and other members of her family, our sincere and heartfelt sympathy, and be it further resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be placed on the record of our Camp and the charter be draped in mourning for 30 days and a copy sent to the Coconino Sun for publication.
